"The FIRST with the LATEST" — United Press leased wire

People's Paper For All Orange County

Santa Ana Daily Evening Register

FINAL EDITION

VOL. XXXI, NO. 266 | Leading Daily Orange Co., pop. 120,000; Santa Ana pop. 31,000. Established 1905; "Blade" merger, 1918. | SANTA ANA, CALIFORNIA. | TUESDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1936 | 16 PAGES | 3c Per Copy. 65c Per Month

YANKEES CLINCH WORLD SERIES

SUCCUMBS

Harry H. Ball, prominent Santa Ana businessman who died suddenly this morning, the victim of a heart attack.

HARRY H. BALL DIES SUDDENLY

HARRY H. BALL, 58, well known Santa Ana contractor, died suddenly at his home, 111 West Seventeenth street, victim of a heart attack, early this morning.

Ball's death was totally unexpected, he having been in apparent excellent health when he went to bed last night.

Funeral services will be held from the Smith and Tuthill mortuary on Thursday at 2 p. m. with the Rev. O. Scott McFarland officiating.

Ball, who has been a resident of Santa Ana for the last 16 years was a partner of Allison Honer, immediate past commander of the Santa Ana Post, American Legion, in the contracting business for seven years.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Bessie A. Ball, three daughters, Mrs. Josephine Paine, Balboa; Mrs. Maybelle Hewitt, Davis, Calif., and Miss Winifred Ball of Santa Ana.

Born in Petersburg Mich., Ball came to Santa Ana in 1920. He, with his partner, Honer, had been instrumental in the building of many homes in North Flower street tract. He also was the builder of the new city hall. A Shriner, he also was a member of the Santa Ana Lodge of Elks and a member of the First Presbyterian church.

Brief memorial services for Ball were held at the opening of the Rotary club meeting this noon. Ball was a member of the local club. Ralph Smedley gave a prayer and W. C. Jerome delivered a short eulogy.

MINIMUM WAGE LAW IN SUPREME COURT

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—(UP)—The supreme court faced the dilemma today of repeating its much criticised judgment of last spring that states may not regulate wages of women in industry or of permitting a Washington state law of that nature to stand.

As the court began the first of the secret sessions at which it will consider almost 300 pending cases, it had before it an appeal from the supreme court of Washington which upheld that state's minimum wage law. The statute is similar to the New York minimum wage law which the court said violated the freedom of contract guaranteed by the federal constitution.

At the same time it pondered the pleas of three large industrial states that the court had erred in deciding the New York case. New York, Massachusetts and Illinois have petitioned the tribunal to reconsider the decision. A decision is expected Monday.

Alleged Slayer To Be Returned

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 6.—(UP)—Two Los Angeles officers today were to be sent to St. Louis where a man identified as Wellington D. McCandless was arrested yesterday. He is wanted here to face murder charges.

McCandless is suspected of having shot his bride, Vanthalia McCandless, to death last July 30, a month after their marriage.

A coroner's jury at the time accused McCandless of slaying his wife and police asked officers throughout the country to look for him.

Detective Lieutenants Miles Ledbetter and Lloyd Hurst probably will leave tonight for St. Louis to return the suspect, Capt. Bert Walls reported.

Landon In Bitter Attack On Hopkins

CITY BALANCE $109,330.06

CENSORSHIP OF WPA COST IS CHARGED

Books Opened as Candidate Accuses Administrator is Afraid of Facts

TOPEKA, Kans., Oct. 6.—(UP)—Gov. Alfred M. Landon lashed out bitterly today at Federal Relief Administrator Harry Hopkins and charged the administration was afraid to open WPA payrolls in Kansas to public inspection because of the "waste and extravagance existing there."

"There is censorship of news and censorship of the sources of news," the Republican presidential nominee said at his morning press conference. "We have both of them right now. Every taxpaying citizen of this country has a right to know where his money is going."

Landon's comments followed a statement yesterday by Hopkins in which he stated Kansas officials have another "red herring," when they asked him to open state WPA payrolls for public inspection. The request was made by John G. Stutz, Kansas relief administrator, who was appointed by former Gov. Harry H. Woodring, now secretary of war.

Hopkins in his statement said Kansas has not contributed a dime toward relief.

"Same Old Hopkins"

"It's the same old Hopkins' charge," Landon said. "By his own figures Kansas ranks 16th in the amount of money for relief expended by the state. When he talks about finding red herrings—well, it seems to me he has been discovering a lot of red herrings lately. In fact, I believe he intends to go fishing."

Landon was asked if he had any comment regarding Hopkins' statement that WPA payrolls and records would not be released for "exploitation."

'It's a matter of public business," Landon replied emphatically. "Those records should be open to newspapers and citizens.

"Those records are like any state and county business and should remain open to the newspapers and to the public. If Hopkins insists they should be opened only for legitimate purposes it seems to me that newspaper publicity comes within the rank of legitimate purposes."

Landon was asked why the administration did not care to make public WPA payrolls in Kansas.

"Because they're afraid of the waste and extravagance which will be found there," he replied.

The Republican nominee said he did not want to "get into an argument with Hopkins," but indicated since the matter was brought up by administration officials he intended to answer them.

The controversy had its inception last week when Evan Griffith, Kansas WPA administrator, charged the relief organization headed by Stutz, and which operates independently of WPA, spent 25 per cent for administrative purposes whereas WPA spent only five.

HOPKINS RELEASES WPA FIGURES

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—(UP)—Official figures advanced by administration supporters, showed

(Continued On Page 2)

'MA' KENNEDY IN DEMAND FOR PROBE

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 6.—(UP)—Mrs. Minnie (Ma) Kennedy today demanded a grand jury investigation into the private life of her daughter, Aimee Semple McPherson, to determine if the evangelist had been "blackmailed and threatened" as charged by her attorney.

The statement by Mrs. Kennedy was the latest phase of a battle for control of Angelus Temple, home of the evangelist's Four-Square Gospel organization.

Mrs. Kennedy, once a dominant figure at the Temple, declared she would stage a "last ditch fight" to defend the rights of her granddaughter, Roberta Semple, who claims she was forced out of the organization.

NEWSPAPER WEEK TRIBUTE PAID TO REGISTER, STAFF

Editor and Staff:

As this is Newspaper Week why not extend our thanks to you for the service you have given us by the publication of your paper The Register? A paper for every member of the family from Dad to little brother, from the business man to the housewife. As a subscriber and as reporter of Calumpit Auxiliary United Spanish War Veterans of Santa Ana I extend thanks to you for your wonderful co-operation and best wishes for the years to come to yourself, staff and all the success that goes with a successful newspaper.

Yours,
MRS. ELIZABETH ERICKSON.

1041 W. 6th St., City

Tearful Baroness Rages When Pilot Deserts Her

FLOYD BENNETT FIELD, NEW YORK, Oct. 6.— (UP) — Kurt Bjorkvall, Swedish pilot, took off on a projected non-stop flight to Sweden at 7:35 a. m. today, leaving a disillusioned and bitterly disappointed Baroness behind.

Holding back her tears, the Baroness Eva von Blizen-Finecke watched the Bellanca monoplane lurch down the runway and lift itself into a hazy, sun-streaked sky. She had spent hours trying to persuade Bjorkvall to live up to his agreement and take her along. He refused. He needed her space for gasoline.

For weeks the Baroness and Bjorkvall have waited at Floyd Bennett for good weather to begin the flight, sponsored by the newspaper, the Stockholm Tidningen. Yesterday the newspaper withdrew its sponsorship, believing the season made such a flight risky.

Last night, she was at a party at the Aviation Country club at Hicksville, Long Island. She was informed that Bjorkvall was preparing to take off at dawn.

Will Fly Alone

A few hours later she appeared at the field, dressed in her modish flying togs. She and the pilot went into a long conference. After it was over, she announced, trying to smile, that she was not going. Some time, she said, she was going to fly the ocean—next year perhaps. She would buy her own plane, she said, and, to forestall such a personal tragedy as today's, she would use an automatic pilot.

Bjorkvall purchased the plane from the newspaper after it withdrew its support. He altered the cabin so as to carry more gasoline, making up the room reserved originally for the Baroness.

He hoped to reach Stockholm in 34 hours. He carried 745 gallons of gasoline to cover 4359

(Continued On Page 2)

Landon Leads Roosevelt In Santa Ana

Landon is leading Roosevelt by a majority of more than two to one, in the city of Santa Ana, according to first returns of the Literary Digest presidential poll covering this city.

The initial count of ballots from Santa Ana was reported in a national radio broadcast last night over a Los Angeles station, giving Landon 295 and Roosevelt 130.

FAMED RESORT TO BE CLOSED

THE Capistrano Hot Springs health resort will soon be a thing of the past, F. W. Kelly, who has operated the business for the past three years, announcing today that all buildings and equipment will be removed and sold. Failure to obtain a lease from the Santa Margarita company, owner of the property, was given as the reason for the move.

The hot springs have been used as a health center for the past 90 years, being one of the best known resorts in the Southland.

There are 75 buildings on the property, including 58 cabins, store, pavilion, bath house, dining room and a pool 40 by 100 feet.

Kelly stated that he has not decided on his plans for the future.

NINE MINERS DROP 900 FEET TO DEATH

MULLAN, Idaho, Oct. 6.—(UP)—Nine miners plummeted to their deaths at the Morning mine today when a cage broke loose from its cable and fell 900 feet to the bottom of the shaft.

The men were being loaded into the cage at the 3000-foot level to be brought to the surface at the end of their shift. The cage was raised to put nine additional men in it when the cable broke and the men fell to their deaths.

Two of the nine men killed were tentatively identified as Louis Goff of Spokane and a man known as Donaldson.

SURPLUS IS IN EXCESS OF ESTIMATE

Auditor Lloyd Banks Files Quarterly Report With Council Members

THE BALANCE in Santa Ana's treasury, as of Oct. 1, is $109,330.06, according to a quarterly report filed with the city council last night by City Auditor Lloyd Banks.

"This amount, plus income outside of taxes, which we will receive during the next quarter," Banks said, "will be sufficient to carry on our ordinary operating expenditures without asking for any advance from the county on taxes. The only expenditure which exceeded our anticpation during the quarter just closed was for the repairs of the outfall sewer, caused by a storm some time ago; however, funds will be transferred from surplus to take care of this expenditure."

It was also brought out in the report that during the first quarter, the receipts are in excess of the amount estimated by $7383.90. This shows, Banks said, that all major items will exceed the council's estimates during the entire year. The receipts during the first quarter are entirely receipts other than taxes, since the first payment of the 1936-1937 taxes will not be received until December.

(Continued On Page 2)

CHEST WORKERS HOLD LUNCHEON

BULLETIN

Workers in the Community Chest drive reported 567 new subscriptions for a total of $5792 bringing the total numbers of subscribers up to 771 and the amount of money subscribed up to $12,873.45 or 36 per cent of the goal set for the drive.

WITH 20 per cent of the goal reported at the first meeting yesterday, volunteer workers in the Community Chest campaign met again at noon today at the Elks club for the second report luncheon.

Division No. 2 of the Residential Group, with Mrs. Wm. H. Spurgeon jr. as colonel, was the honor division for today, and the colonel and her majors acted as hostesses to the workers.

Honors for the best individual work reported on Monday noon went to Geo. C. Perkins, Captain of Team 5A4 of the Business Division, who reported 167% of his quota at the first meeting with more expected from the same territory.

Establishment of a "Roll of Honor" listing employee groups and Company Chairmen where 100% of quota is subscribed, was announced by Campaign Chairman D. G. Tidball yesterday. The following groups and Company chairmen have qualified for this honor roll: J. C. Penney Co., M. O. Johnson; Excelsior Creamery, A. C. Ketchum; Security Title & Guarantee, Florence D. Fessman; Home Cafe, B. J. Chambers; Alliance Mutual Life Ins. Co., J. Wayne Harrison; Post Office Clerks, E. C. Palm and Elwin Gammell; Post Office Carriers, Maril W. Guynn and Fred Kirchhofer; Gilbert P. Campbell Co., Gilbert P. Campbell.

SALINAS FACING GENERAL STRIKE

SALINAS, Cal., Oct. 6.—(UP)—Union workers today drew up a proposal for a 48-hour general strike in protest against recent action in the Salinas lettuce workers' walkout.

The proposal, voted at a mass meeting of labor men last night, will be submitted for rejection or approval by local and international unions which have local chapters here.

The proposal will be presented to 26 unions having members in Salinas. Some of the union groups can act immediately while others must seek the approval of their international organizations or the State Federation of Labor to join the general strike movement.

Probe Discovery Of Mail Pouch

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Oct. 6.—(UP)—Federal inspectors today were investigating the mysterious discovery of a mail pouch containing $25,000 in stamps, found along railway tracks in the desert 40 miles from Las Vegas, Nev.

The pouch had been slit and $3.70 in three-cent stamp books was missing, postal authorities said. The stamps were brought to San Diego postoffice after their discovery by Railway Engineer D. W. Schenck. Schenck reported he saw the sack from the cab of his engine and saw an automobile drive away from the spot.

SUPERVISORS SPEED WORK ON FLOOD CONTROL JOB

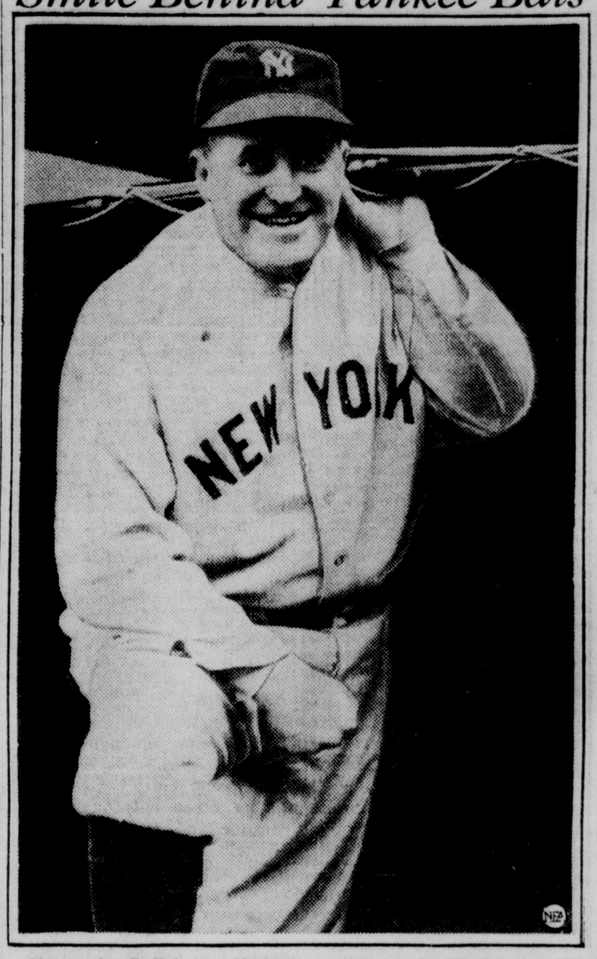

TECHNICAL STEPS paving the way for initiation of the U. S. Army's $13,000,000 flood control project in Orange county was taken up by the county supervisors today when a resolution was passed pledging the county to procure all necessary easements and right-of-ways for the project.

The resolution fits the agreement between the county and the federal government for such provision, in connection with which the county now has three appraisers at work evaluating the required ground, for purposes of a county bond election, to supply funds for the purchase.

The resolution today also agrees to protect the federal government against any damage growing out of flood control work.

Action was taken at the request of Major Theodore Wyman jr., Los Angeles division engineer for the U. S. Army, who cited the pledge as a necessary step precedent to initial drilling tests on the various reservoir sites, which soon will be started.

Smile Behind Yankee Bats

No wonder Buffalo Joe McCarthy smiles . . . his Yankees won the world series today . . . and victory was worth, in round numbers, about $6000 to each member of the American league champions.

Loyalist Battle Fleet Challenges Rebel Navy

SANTANDER, Spain, Oct. 6—(UP)—A loyalist battle fleet, arriving off Santander, broadcast to the rebel navy today a challenge to meet it in pitched battle.

In the fleet were the battleship Jaime Primero, the cruisers Libertad and Cervantes and six destroyers.

"We are off the Cantabrian coast," said the challenge. "Your piracies have ended. We challenge you to come and fight."

There followed an invitation to the crews of the ships to seize control and hand over their officers as prisoners.

"Do not forget the fleet of the republic is composed of battleship, three cruisers, 12 destroyers, 11 submarines, an auxiliary fleet and a merchant marine," continued the challenge.

"We will destroy you all, ships and men."

ASTURIAS MINERS ATTACK OVIEDO

WITH THE LOYALIST MINERS, OVIEDO, Spain, Oct. 6.—(UP)—Asturias miners, spurred on by bitter hatred, fought their way into Oviedo today against murderous machine gun fire.

Opposed to them was a desperate rebel garrison which has held out against all their attacks since the start of the civil war.

For the third day the miners hurled themselves against the rebel fire, seeking to penetrate to the center of the city where, in selected positions, the rebels are strongly fortified.

The miners' losses have been terrific; those of the rebels slight.

The miners hoped to take the city today, but the chance was negligible.

Strong rebel columns are almost within striking distance of the city and 3,000 picked Moors from the San Sebastian zone are on the way.

DRINKING TOURIST IS GIVEN FREEDOM

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 6.—(UP)—Frank B. Saunders, bibulous New Yorker who said he traveled across the country in bar to bar stages, talked himself out of a jail sentence in sunrise court today when he was arraigned on an intoxication charge.

Clad in the same tuxedo he said he wore in his cross-country drinking spree, Saunders stated his case in such convincing fashion that Municipal Judge Joseph Marchetti not only continued the case and released him on his own recognizance but also offered to lend him enough money to tide him over until he received funds from home.

NEW CRISIS IN MARINE STRIKE

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 6.—(UP)—A shipowners' ultimatum to the Pacific Coast Marine Firemen's union that the workers submit unsettled issues to arbitration today brought a premature crisis in the west coast waterfront situation as it approached a new deadline Oct. 15.

Negotiations between the employers and the firemen—whose official title is Pacific Coast Marine Firemen, Oilers, Watertenders and Wipers association—ended today. This union, following the lead of the International Longshoremen's association, has been reluctant to submit to arbitrators questions involved in drawing up new working contracts.

"No other peaceful means remains for their settlement," the coast committee of shipowners said in a letter signed by Thomas G. Plant, chairman.

The shipowners said:

"Our negotiations having been concluded, with many of the proposals made by both parties remaining in dispute, it now becomes necessary for you to determine promptly if your union will agree to submit these issues which are in dispute to arbitration. No other peaceful means remains for their settlement. We remind you that the agreed extension terminates on Oct. 15, 1936.

"Please advise us promptly whether your union will agree to arbitrate issues on that date."

FIX TOLL CHARGE FOR S. F. BRIDGE

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Oct. 6.—(UP)—The toll charge for traveling across the San Francisco-Oakland bay bridge probably will be 70 cents a car, including passengers, Earl Lee Kelly, director of public works, said today as the California toll bridge authority met to discuss technical details of the bridge dedication ceremonies planned for November 12.

"We probably will not adopt a definite toll charge for a week or two," Kelly said, "but opinion is veering around to a flat charge of probably 70 cents. This would permit speedier handling of automobiles at the toll plaza.

FINAL ORGY OF BATTING SINKS GIANTS

Ninth Inning Rally Ends Series' Deciding Game With 13-5 Score

POLO GROUNDS, NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—(UP)—Rising up in all their might in one final display of power, the New York Yankees today won the world baseball championship by conquering the Giants in the sixth game of the world series, 13 to 5, before a crowd estimated at 42,000.

The victory gave the Yanks the title by a margin of four games to two.

The last vicious attack from the Yankee firing squad obliterated Bill Terry's brave crew when they were fighting tooth and nail to snatch victory out of the fire.

With the score 6-5 in favor of the Yanks at the start of the ninth, the Yankee bombshell exploded. When the smoke had cleared away, the Yankees had scored 7 runs in the greatest ninth inning attack in world series history, breaking their own mark of six runs set in the last inning of the second game.

The official attendance was given as 38,427.

PLAY BY PLAY

Yanks First

Crosetti up: Crosetti popped to Whitehead behind second. Rolfe up. Rolfe grounded out to Terry unassisted on the first pitch. DiMaggio up: DiMaggio flied to Leiber who made a nice running catch in short right center.

No runs. No hits. No errors. None left.

Fitzsimmons used only six pitches to retire the Yanks.

Giants First

Moore up: Moore dropped a single into left field near the foul line. Bartell up: Bartell walked. Moore advanced to second. Terry up: Terry bunted to Rolfe and was thrown out Rolfe to Gehrig.

Both runners advanced. It was a sacrifice for Terry. Leiber up: Leiber walked, filling the bases. Ott up: Murphy started warming up in the Yankee bull pen. Ott drove a liner down the first base line for two bases scoring Moore and Bartell and sending Leiber to third. Mancuso up: Mancuso fouled to Rolfe near the third base boxes. The runners held their bases. Whitehead up: Whitehead was out, Lazzeri to Gehrig. Two runs, two hits, no errors, two left. Ott's sharp hit liner hit just inside the foul line by a foot and rolled all the way to the right field wall.

Yanks Second

Gehrig up: Gehrig flied to Leiber in deep right center. Dickey up: Dickey flied to Moore who raced way over into center field to make the catch. Selkirk up: Selkirk drove a liner into deep right field and pulled up at third for a triple. It was the first triple of the series. Powell up: Powell hit a home run into the upper left field tier scor-

(Continued On Page 2)

BOX SCORE

Yankees	AB	R	H	PO	A	E
Crosetti ss	4	0	0	0	1	0
Rolfe, 3b	6	1	3	3	2	1
DiMaggio, cf	6	1	3	2	0	1
Gehrig, 1b	5	1	1	10	0	0
Dickey, c	5	2	0	3	0	0
Selkirk, rf	5	2	2	3	0	0
Powell, lf	5	3	3	3	0	0
Lazzeri, 2b	4	2	3	3	5	0
Gomez, p	3	0	1	0	3	0
Murphy, p	2	1	1	0	0	0
Totals	45	13	17	27	11	2

Giants	AB	R	H	PO	A	E
Moore, lf	5	2	2	2	0	0
Bartell, ss	3	2	2	0	2	0
Terry, 1b	4	0	1	6	1	0
Leiber, cf	2	0	0	6	0	0
Ripple, cf	0	0	0	1	0	0
Ott, rf	4	1	2	3	0	0
Mancuso, c	3	0	0	4	0	0
Danning, c	1	0	0	3	0	1
Whitehead, 2b	3	0	0	1	2	0
Mayo, 3b	1	0	0	0	0	0
Jackson, 3b	2	0	1	0	0	0
Koenig 2b	1	0	0	1	0	0
Fitzsimmons, p	1	0	0	0	1	0
Castleman p	2	0	1	0	1	0
Coffman, p	0	0	0	0	0	0
Gumbert, p	0	0	0	0	0	0
x-Leslie	1	0	0	0	0	0
xx-Davis	1	0	0	0	0	0
Totals	34	5	9	27	6	1

x—Batted for Mancuso in 7th.
xx—Batted for Castleman in 8th.

Score by Innings

Yankees	021 200 017—13
Giants	200 010 110— 5

Summary

Runs batted in—Crosetti, Rolfe 2, DiMaggio, Gehrig, Powell 4, Lazzeri, Gomez, Murphy, Moore, Terry, Ott 3; Two base hits: Ott, Bartell. Three base hits Selkirk. Home runs: Powell, Ott, Moore; Sacrifice hits: Terry, Leiber. Left on bases: Yankees 11, Giants 10; Struck out by Fitzsimmons 1, Gomez 1, Castleman 5, Gumbert 1, Murphy 1; Bases on balls: Gomez 2, Castleman 3, Coffman 1, Gumbert 3, Murphy 1; Hits: Off Fitzsimmons 9 in 3 2-3 innings, Gomez 8 in 6 1-3 innings, Castleman 4 in 1 2-3 innings, Coffman 3 in no innings (pass out in ninth), Gumbert 1 in 1 inning, Murphy 1 in 4 2-3 innings. Winning pitcher: Gomez; Losing pitcher: Fitzsimmons.

Umpires: Geisel (A) plate; Magerkurth (N) first; Summers (A) second; Pfirman (N) third.

Time of game: 2:50. Attendance, 38,427.

1280 CARS OF VALENCIAS ARE SHIPPED OUT

Associations affiliated with the Orange County Fruit exchange shipped 1280 cars of Valencias during the month of September, making a total of 5802 cars handled this year, as compared with 5486 cars at the same time last year, according to figures released today by Clarence Skiles, exchange manager.

Of the 1280 cars shipped last month, 282 cars were sold through the Los Angeles Distributing plant.

The estimate of Valencias remaining to go as of October 1, including all Orange County Fruit Exchange associations, is 1311 cars of tree crop, which compares with 2191 carloads of actual tree crop for last year after the first of October.

Lemon shipments from this district for the month of September amounted to 30 cars, which brings the total shipments to date of this variety to 771 carloads. The total California Fruit Growers' exchange storage of September 15 is 19 per cent below the storage at the same time last year.

"The market on California lemons at the present time is very satisfactory on large sizes," Skiles said. The values, however, on extremely small sizes and off-condition are quite low.

"The revised tree crop as reported by the California-Arizona Orange and Grapefruit agency as of October 3 amounts to 6223 carloads of Valencias. This compares with an actual tree crop on the same date last year for all shippers of 10,719 cars and 2878 cars after the same date in 1934. The California-Arizona Orange and Grapefruit agency anticipates that of the fruit remaining on the trees as of October 3, approximately 4211 cars of Valencias will be shipped to fresh fruit markets including both packed and loose. This compares with 7768 cars shipped after the comparable date last year and 2653 cars after the comparable date two years ago. This anticipated figure is 3557 cars less than last year, a reduction of 46 percent, and 1558 cars more than the 1934 season, or an increase of 59 percent. These figures cover the shippable crop of all shippers which takes into account the entire domestic fresh fruit shipments, packed and loose.

"The California Valencia orange market for the month of September has been very satisfactory. Prices at the present time are going through a slight downward adjustment on certain sizes. Values in general, however, are still holding quite steady.

"It appears from recent information from Florida that anticipated shipments of oranges from that state are going to be a great deal heavier for the month of October than for the comparable period in any of the last seven years. It is reported that the orange crop in Florida is approximately 30 per cent greater than the 1935-36 season. With the large crop in prospect it is not unreasonable to expect that shipments of oranges from Florida will be made as heavy in the early fall months as the Florida pro-rate commission will allow."

KEN Murray SAYS:

NEW YORK, Oct. 6. — Uncle Sam's palm must be itching, if there's any truth to the rumors that as soon as the world's currencies are stabilized, Europe contemplates making a settlement of the war debts . . . So far, their promises to pay have been as wet as the opening day of a world's series.

Apparently, those powers over there have come to the conclusion they can afford to buy a little good will, now that most of them have laid aside the down-payment on another war.

Judging from the way the debt payment keeps being postponed it looks as if when the Mayflower left Europe, she brought about all the early settlers.

Oh well, its our own fault! We should have been satisfied with that old adage about casting your bread up on the water, instead of trying to throw our dough across it.

(Copyright, 1936, McNaught Syn., Inc.)

MONOPOLIES IS TOPIC BEFORE COUNTY FORUM

A large audience gathered again last evening in the high school auditorium to hear Graham A. Laing of the California Institute of Technology discuss monopoly in industry. Dr. Laing first gave some time to clarifying the meaning of the word monopoly as it is used in economics. The literal meaning of a monopolist is a single seller or one who has no competitor. Since this could, in no case, be absolutely true, it has came to mean sufficient control of any one commodity to substantially dominate in its production and determine its price.

Monopolies are of three general types: 1 Those resulting from a government grant. Copyrights and patents fall in this class. 2 Those which arise from the operations of persons, groups or corporations within a framework of competition. These grow gradually from attempts to escape the hazards of competition. They may start from "gentlemen's agreements," pools and trusts. 3 Those which might be thought of as natural monopolies. Mail service and telephone service fall in this class. Greater equality of service in all sections, urban or rural, less expense and less confusion are some of the benefits to the consumer of a product of such a monopoly.

Dr. Laing next considered the question "Are monopolies a blessing or a curse?" The underlying principle of rendering equal service to large numbers at a small margin of profit can be approached through a monopoly, he said. In addition, it is possible to make expensive research which would be quite out of the question in small competitive business. However, it is necessary for the government to appoint commissions to control the activities of monopolies and there are many complex problems arise which are very difficult to analyze and to control.

The last half hour was devoted to announcements, questions and discussion. W. H. "Ted" Blanding presided. Dr. Laing will again be the forum leader next week.

ED HOLMES GIVEN S. A. CITY INSURANCE

The Pacific Indemnity Co., represented in Santa Ana by E. D. Holmes jr., 429 North Sycamore street, was last night the low bidder for insuring city property. On the recommendation of City Auditor Lloyd Banks, the company's bid was accepted.

The policy, which will cost the city $1679.37, will insure all city equipment with limits of from $50,000 to $100,000 on public liability, and $5000 on property damage.

COUNCIL NOTES

The city council last night referred a request from L. J. Detrixhe for a franchise to sponsor an all-star soft ball girls' team to the city auditor for investigation. Auditor Lloyd Banks will report on his findings at the next meeting of the council.

A request from J. A. Crawford for the rezoning of 1318 West Sixth street to enable the construction of an apartment house was referred to the planning commission.

Upon recommendation of the planning commission, the council last night ordered the posting of property on South Main street between McFadden and Oxford streets for special usage. The order was in response to a request from R. L. Peterson, who plans to erect a building at that location for the sale of auto trailers.

A request from Superintendent of Schools Frank Henderson for warning signs at the Seventeenth street crossing near Jefferson school was referred to the street commissioner for investigation and action.

A request for permission to hold an auction of office equipment and other items, the property of the Taylor Cannery Co., was referred to the police commissioner and the chief of police with power to act. The auction was scheduled for Oct. 20 at 10 a.m.

At the request of Police Commissioner Plummer Bruns, Dale Briggs, Santa Ana, was appointed an officer without pay.

YANKS CAPTURE WORLD SERIES FROM GIANTS

(Continued From Page 1)

ing behind Selkirk. It was a terrific clout which went into the stands above the 360 foot mark. Lazzeri up: Lazzeri singled to left. Gomez up: Gomez grounded out, Fitzsimmons to Terry. Two runs, three hits, no errors, one left.

Fitzsimmons got in a hole on Powell and had to give him a good pitch with the count three and one.

Giants Second

Jackson up: Jackson singled through the box. Fitzsimmons up: Fitzsimmons flied to Selkirk, Jackson holding first. Moore up: Moore flied to Powell, Jackson holding first. Bartell up: Bartell walked. Jackson moving to second. Terry up: Terry flied to DiMaggio. No runs, one hit, no errors, two left.

Gomez was having trouble with his control and pitching with none too much confidence.

Yanks Third

Crosetti up: Crosetti fanned swinging. He almost fell after a terrific lunge at the ball. Rolfe up: Rolfe singled to left. DiMaggio up: Fitzsimmons attempted to catch Rolfe off first but the runner dived back safely. DiMaggio lined to left for a single and Rolfe raced to third on the hit. Time was called while the umpire walked out to the mound to look at the ball. He left the ball in the game. Gehrig up: Gehrig lined to Ott and Rolfe scored after the catch. DiMaggio held first. Dickey up: Mancuso threw to Terry attempting to catch DiMaggio off first but Joe dived back to the bag in time. Dickey flied to Moore who ran over to center field to make the catch. One run, two hits, no errors, one left. The Yankees were hitting Fitzsimmons hard now. Gehrig's liner was a terrific clout but almost directly into Ott's hands.

Giants Third

Leiber up: Leiber fouled to Dickey who made the catch behind the plate near the stands. Ott up: Ott hit a grounder to Gomez and the ball bounced off his glove and Crosetti fielded it near second and threw to Gehrig retiring the runner on a very close play. Mancuso up: Mancuso hit a bounder to Rolfe and the ball fell out of his glove for an error. Whitehead up: Whitehead fouled to Selkirk who made a fine running catch near the wall. No runs, no hits, one error, one left.

Gomez was settling down now and had better control of his fast ball.

Yanks Fourth

Selkirk up: Selkirk flied to Leiber in right center. Powell up: Powell beat out an infield hit to Bartell, who fielded the ball behind Jackson and had no chance to make a play on the runner. Lazzeri up: Mancuso threw to Terry attempting to catch Powell but the runner was safe. Lazzeri singled to left sending Powell to second. Lazzeri's hit was a grounder between Bartell and Jackson. Gomez up: Gomez lined a single to left scoring Powell and sending Lazzeri to second. Crosetti up: Crosetti flied to Leiber in short center, and both runners held their bases. Rolfe up: Mancuso threw to Bartell attempting to catch Lazzeri but the runner was safe. Rolfe lined a single to right, scoring Lazzeri. Gomez went to third on the play. Terry called time while he talked to Fitzsimmons. Castleman replaced Fitzsimmons in the box for the Giants. The bleacher fans gave Fitzsimmons a big cheer on his way to the center field clubhouse. Di Maggio up: Di Maggio flied to Ott, who backed up a few steps to make the catch.

Two runs, four hits, no errors, two left.

Giants Fourth

Jackson up: Jackson grounded out, Lazzeri to Gehrig, on the first pitch. Castleman up: Castleman singled to right. Moore up: Moore hit the first pitch to right field and Selkirk made the catch. Castleman held first. Bartell up: Bartell bunted down the third base line and beat it out for a scratch hit, Castleman moving to second on the play. Terry up: Terry grounded out, Lazzeri to Gehrig.

No runs, no hits, no errors, two left.

Gomez appeared to have complete control of his fast ball now, and wasn't getting himself in a hole even when the Giants were hitting him. The sun came out briefly during this inning.

Yanks Fifth

Gehrig up: Gehrig hit a sharp grounder down the first base line hopper. Selkirk lined to Leiber in Dickey grounded out, Whitehead to Terry. Whitehead came in on the grass to make a fine play on a slow and was out to Terry, unassisted. right center.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Giants Fifth:

Leiber fanned swinging. He almost fell down after a vicious swing. Ott hit the first pitch for a home run. The ball just dropped into the boxes in the upper left field tier. Mancuso lined to DiMaggio who ran back a few steps to make the catch. Whitehead grounded out, Gomez to Gehrig.

One run, one hit, no errors, none left.

Ott caught one of Gomez' fast balls on the outside and drove it into the left field stands, an unusual home run for the left-hander Ott, who usually drives his homers into the right field stands.

Yanks Sixth

Powell fanned swinging but tipped the ball and Mancuso held on to it for the out. Lazzeri fanned swinging. Gomez fanned swinging.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

The crowd gave Castleman a great hand for his brilliant pitching exhibition in this frame in which he fanned Powell, Lazzeri, and Gomez in succession with all three swinging at the third one. Castleman had plenty of speed.

Giants Sixth

Jackson popped to Lazzeri. The crowd applauded Castleman when he came to bat. Castleman grounded out, Gomez to Gehrig. Moore grounded out, Lazzeri to Gehrig.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Yanks Seventh

Crosetti grounded out, Bartell to Terry. Bartell made a spectacular play coming into field the ball on the grass with his bare hand and then making the throw while running full speed. Crosetti kicked at the decision at first, which was very close. Rolfe singled past Whitehead. It was his third straight hit. DiMaggio flied to Leiber who raced all the way in from deep center to make the catch just behind second. Gehrig was out, Whitehead to Terry. It was a hard hit liner which hit the ground in front of Whitehead and bounced into his hands and he made an easy play out of it.

No runs, one hit, no errors, one left.

Rolfe's single was the first hit made off of Castleman since he relieved Fitzsimmons in the fourth.

Giants Seventh

Bartell doubled down the left field line. Terry lined sharply to center field and the ball got away from DiMaggio, Bartell scoring and Terry pulling up at second. It was a single for Terry and an error for DiMaggio. Lazzeri came in to talk to Gomez. Leiber sacrificed, Rolfe to Lazzeri who covered first, Terry advanced to third on the play. It was a beautiful bunt which went down the third base line. Lazzeri and Dickey held a conference with Gomez. Ott walked. Gehrig, Lazzeri and Dickey gathered around Gomez for a conference. Murphy replaced Gomez in the box for the Yankees. It was the first appearance in the series for Murphy, a tall right handed fastball pitcher. Leslie batted for Mancuso. Leslie fouled to Rolfe back of third on the first pitch. Rolfe made an easy catch out of a weak pop-up. There was a delay while the Giants held up the game. Ripple batted for Whitehead. Ripple walked, filling the bases. Jackson went out to confer with Terry at third base. Gehrig went out to the pitcher's box to talk to Murphy during the delay. Koenig batted for Jackson. Koenig was called out on strikes. He hit the ground with his bat but walked away from the plate without protesting. It was a perfect strike.

One run, two hits, one error, three left.

Yanks Eighth

Koenig went to second and Mayo to third and Ripple to center, and Danning behind the bat for the Giants. Dickey walked. Selkirk singled to right, sending Dickey to second. Powell was called out on strikes. Lazzeri singled through the box, scoring Dickey and sending Selkirk to second. The ball went all the way to center field and Ripple fumbled it momentarily but was not given an error. Murphy was called out on strikes. Crosetti walked filling the bases. Rolfe flied to Ott who barely had to move out of his tracks to make the catch.

One run, two hits, no errors, three left.

Giants Eighth

Davis batted for Castleman. Davis flied to Powell in left. It was a towering fly which Powell camped under. Moore hit a home run off the right field roof. The ball hit the stand and bounded back on the field. Bartell popped to Lazzeri between first and the pitcher's box. Terry grounded out, Lazzeri to Gehrig.

One run, one hit, no errors, none left.

Moore's home run was a sky-high fly which almost cleared the stand.

Yanks Ninth

Coffman went to the box for the Giants. DiMaggio singled to left, Gehrig lined a single to right sending DiMaggio to third. Koenig made a diving attempt to reach the blazing liner but failed. Dickey bounced to Terry who threw to the plate attempting to get DiMaggio and the throw got away from Danning. DiMaggio scored, Gehrig pulled up at third and Dickey at second. Selkirk walked filling the bases. Powell hit a sharp grounder through Bartell's legs scoring Gehrig and Dickey and sending Selkirk to third. Powell pulled up at second and was given a single. His advance to second was on the throw in. Coffman was taken out and replaced by Gumbert. Lazzeri was given an intentional walk, filling the bases.

Murphy singled to right on the the first pitch, scoring Selkirk and leaving the bases filled. Crosetti walked forcing in Powell with a run and leaving the bases filled. Rolfe grounded to Bartell forcing Crosetti at second, Lazzeri scoring on the play. DiMaggio beat out an infield single to Bartell, scoring Murphy and sending Rolfe to second. Bartell caught the ball with his bare hand but couldn't make a play with it. Gehrig walked filling the bases. Dickey fanned swinging. Selkirk flied to Ripple in deep right center.

Seven runs, five hits, one error. Three left.

Thirteen Yankees came to bat this inning, with DiMaggio making two hits.

Giants Ninth:

Mayo fouled to Rolfe near third. Ott flied to Powell. Danning grounded out to Gehrig unassisted.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

TOWNSEND CLUBS

The Townsend Youth clubs will hold open house at Townsend headquarters tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. An entertainment program has been arranged and L. C. Carlisle will be the principal speaker.

Oceanview Townsend club will join with Westminster club in a meeting at Westminster I. O. O. F. hall at 7:30 o'clock this evening.

KOREANS SHOT IN BRAWL

SHANGHAI, Oct. 6.—(UP)—Two Koreans were shot, one possibly fatally, by two unidentified Chinese Japanese authorities said they did not regard the incident seriously as they believed the shooting was the result of a quarrel between dope peddlers and was without political significance.

REPUBLICANS TO HOLD RALLY HERE THURSDAY

The Republican rally scheduled Thursday evening in Birch park, Santa Ana, will mark formation of an Orange county "Landon-Knox Sunflower Club For the Winning of the West," it was announced today by Chairman Howard Irwin, of the Republican county central committee, who made known that J. A. "Jack" Moore, war veteran and widely traveled newspaperman, will be the principal speaker.

Moore is one of three speakers sent to California by the Republican national committee to organize the Landon-Knox Sunflower clubs.

National headquarters in Chicago, said Irwin, have mailed letters to 1500 Orange county residents, inviting them to attend the rally Thursday evening, at 7:30.

Moore saw war service in France and Siberia, then traveled on every continent as a news observer, witnessing the overthrow of several democracies by political revolutions in the back-wash of the war.

New Deal moves to substitute a government of men for our government of laws, will be discussed by Moore at the rally, said Irwin, "He compares the siren voice from the banks of the Hudson in 1932, to the siren voices of Kerensky, Lenin and Trotsky, who in 1917 swept the 180 millions of Russians into the current which in 1936 has forged the collar of serfdom about their necks," Irwin stated.

BARONESS CRYS AT DESERTION

(Continued From Page 1)

miles. Weather reports said he was likely to encounter favorable conditions most of the way across.

Baroness Angered

The little 28-year-old noble woman who flew to this country on the Hindenburg expecting to fly back across the Atlantic with Bjorkvall was angry.

"It's a dirty trick," she exclaimed. "He refused to take me. I expect he wishes to have all the publicity."

"It's a great misunderstanding," she said. "I'm afraid it might change public opinion against me in Sweden. Remember, I'm not scared. I may make the solo flight to Sweden later."

She even refused to shake hands with the pilot and wish him "happy landing."

"There's a limit to sportsmanship," she said.

CITY BALANCE IS $109,330.06

(Continued From Page 1)

Banks also revealed in his report that the total expenditures during the quarter were under the budget allowance in the sum of $2437.10. This amount, added to the excess of receipts of budget allowances, makes a total surplus at the end of the first quarter of $9821.

List of Receipts

Receipts, other than taxes, during the first quarter were as follows: general fund, $33,198.64; street fund, $874; water, $46,774.39; sewer, $11.88; park, $30; street improvement (fines), $4,976.30; library fines, $594, and joint outfall sewer maintenance, $533. In each case, the amount taken in exceeded the estimates.

Disbursements were as follows: general, $67,377.72; street, $19,264.40; fire, $15,873.92; sewer, $1,933.47.

LANDON FLAYS HARRY HOPKINS

(Continued From Page 1)

today that wederal administrative expenses under the $4,000,000,000 work relief program—statistics demanded by Gov. Alf M. Landon—amount to four and one-half cents of every dollar spent.

Of $3,424,564,515 paid out by the U. S. treasury to make jobs for needy unemployed during the last fiscal year, a total of $154,476,341 went for costs of directing the big drive.

Administrative costs for the whole program were 4.51 per cent. The figures were taken from a national emergency council report based on treasury balance sheets summarizing all work-relief spending between July 1, 1935, and June 30, 1936.

Cost of WPA

The biggest job making agency was Harry L. Hopkins' Works Progress Administration. WPA spent $1,305,802,580 of the $3,424,564,515 and $63,596,525—or 4.87 per cent—went for administrative expenses.

The statistics presented a probable campaign issue. Governor Landon on his most recent campaign tour as Republican presidential nominee, asked the government to announce how much is being paid "all the relief directors, coordinators, supervisors and straw bosses."

John G. Stutz, Kansas state relief director, made public a letter to Hopkins and Evan Griffith, Kansas WPA director, asking for program administrative expenses.

Hopkins replied with a formal statement declaring Stutz, a holdover appointee of a Democratic governor, "makes it pretty clear that he has put himself in the hands of the Republican national committee.

He said "our records are open to John Stutz or to anybody who has a legitimate reason to see them, but we won't allow these records to be abused by individuals who would exploit them if they got their hands on them."

SEEKS LAURELS

Handsome enough to make feminine hearts flutter, the Earl of Warwick pauses briefly in New York before continuing his journey to Hollywood to recoup his family's vanished fortune in the movies. He is reported to have a starring contract for $1000 a week, with a raise in sight if he makes good.

GRAND THEFT CASE HEARING PUT OFF

Preliminary hearing for Lewis W. Uolly and A. H. Vanstone, charged with two counts of grand theft and two counts of violation of the corporate securities act,, was postponed until Oct. 21 yesterday by Justice of the Peace K. E. Morrison.

According to the complaint filed against the pair, they assertedly accepted 26 shares of common stock in the Southern California Edison company, and 40 shares of the Associated Telephone company stock in exchange for stock in Continental Royalties Ltd. The combined stocks, owned by Mrs. Alice Scheel, 1902 Spurgeon street, Santa Ana, was valued at $1796.

The two defendants, out under $2000 bail each, assertedly had no license to sell the stock in the first place, and are charged with grand theft as a result of their acceptance of Mrs. Scheel's stock.

RED CROSS BOARD HOLDS MEET HERE

Red Cross executive board meeting was held Friday afternoon in the Farm board rooms at 624 North Main street. Dr. John Wehrly, chapter chairman, presided over the business meeting in which plans were discussed for the state Red Cross conference to be held at Hotel Laguna October 23. Col. M. B. Wellington, vice-chairman of the chapter, will share chairmanship of the conference with a chairman to be chosen from San Diego.

For the first time, the books of the branch and local chapters were audited by someone outside of the chapter.

Police News

Word was received by Sheriff Logan Jackson today, that Deputy Russell R. Lutes is en route to Santa Ana from Detroit, Mich., with a prisoner wanted here on five counts of grand theft and four counts of violation of the corporate securities act. The prisoner, Warren Mar, assertedly participated in a fraudulent insurance deal. His partner, Albert E. Acree, is at the present time in San Quentin as a result of his conviction on similar charges. Justice of the Peace K. E. Morrison has set bail on Mar at $5000.

Santa Ana police were today investigating a burglary reported at 7:20 p. m. yesterday by Ralph W. Cole, 813 South Sycamore street. Cole reported that upon his return home last night, he found the house had been ransacked. Jewelry valued at $5 was taken.

Rafael Jordon, 2309 South Main street, today reported the theft of his car from East Fourth street, Santa Ana. Police were told that the theft occurred at about 1 a. m. today.

W. W. Woods, 2208 Greenleaf, last night asked police to search the neighborhood for a prowler that had been seen in the vicinity of his home.

A car registered to Oliver Harnois, 333 Harwood Place, reported stolen Sunday, was recovered late yesterday by Santa Ana police. The car was found abandoned on Maple street near Pomona street.

"Nobody knows what a boy is worth,
And the world must wait to see,
For every man in an honored place,
Is a boy that used to be."

The Y. M. C. A. realizes the essential truth of this short poem and believes that the training of our youth in Spirit, Mind and Body is the best means of assuring the community of responsible and respectable citizens tomorrow.

Funds received from the Community Chest are used to make up the deficit in our Boys' activities, for boys do not have the money to pay the full cost of services rendered to them. The dormitory and men's athletic classes are entirely self-supporting—in fact, dues and rentals amount to more than half of the total operating cost of the institution.

We must ask the public for gifts through the Community Chest to enable us to render a character-training service to the boys of Santa Ana.

Y. M. C. A. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

R. Carson Smith, president

H. G. Nelson, Dr. C. E. Paul, D. G. Tidball, J. F. Burke, A. W. Gerrard, Frank A. Henderson, Thomas J. Hunter, E. H. Layton, Harry W. Lewis, Lyle Mitchell, Lester Rohrs, Rev. P. F. Schrock, Nelson Visel, H. E. Wahlberg

Other Community Chest Agencies

Salvation Army, Y. W. C. A., Girl Scouts of America, Veterans Welfare Committee, Ruth Home, Boy Scouts of America

This Space Contributed by the Register.

the best $7.75 . . . . . you ever invested in shoes!

Throw out the fact that Nunn Bush shoes are made of honest leathers by salaried craftsmen, not piece workers, and ANKLE-FASHIONING alone justifies your investment in them! Comfort and looks are worth their price!

Peterson's
215 West Fourth

The Weather

Southern California— Fair tonight and Wednesday but morning fogs near the coast; little change in temperature; gentle northwest wind off the coast.

San Francisco Bay Region — Fair and mild tonight and Wednesday with morning fogs; gentle west wind.

Northern California— Fair tonight and Wednesday but fogs on the coast; high temperature in the interior; gentle northwest wind off coast.

Sierra Nevada—Fair tonight and Wednesday; slightly warmer Wednesday; gentle to moderate easterly winds.

Sacramento, San Joaquin and Santa Clara valleys—Fair tonight and Wednesday; high day temperatures; light variable winds.

Salinas valley— Fair tonight and Wednesday but morning fog in north portion; cooler in north portion; gentle northwest winds.

Wind velocity yesterday averaged 2.3 m. p. h., according to records at the Santa Ana Junior college meteorological station. Temperatures ranged from 50 at 4 a. m. to 78 at 3 p. m. Relative humidity was 79 per cent at 6 a. m.

Notices of Intention to Marry

Bernard F. Adams, 28; Dorothy E. Mack, 27, Porterville.

Marshall D. Adcock, 21, Los Angeles; Dixie A. Iddings, 18, Huntington Park.

Ralph W. Boyd, 27, Georgia M. Troop, 19, Huntington Beach.

Wallace R. Bidwell, 21; Margaret Otterson, 18, Huntington Park.

Stephen S. Cisney, 31, Hynes; Grace Johnson, 22, Long Beach.

William L. Cox, 60, Brea; Susan F. Tracy, 48, Los Angeles.

George T. Ducos, 42; Catherine Shropshire, 40, Los Angeles.

Stanley Domgaard 34, Atolia; Dorothy F. Robison, 34, Long Beach.

Walter L. Ezell, 25; Elizabeth G. Trumbly, 30, Long Beach.

James R. Fisher, 34; Helen F. Hedrick, 34, Los Angeles.

Macedonio Garcia, 27, Cora Arebalo, 19, Huntington Beach.

Arnold O. Lund, 25, Irene Hylton, 22, Anaheim.

Dallas D. Mahan, 28, Elizabeth A. Savana, 28, Santa An.

William Van Russell, 29; Alice L. Trantham, 19, Westminster.

Jess Stewart, 24, Julia G. Hammer, 23, Huntington Beach.

Nikolas Stepankow, 46; Annie B. Alley, 46, Compton.

Mario G. Trumpette, 31; Cora A. Davis, 45, Los Angeles.

Stonewall Towns, 31; Anna B. Slaughter, 28, Los Angeles.

Gunnar Zeliath, 48; Orpha M. Russell, 53, Los Angeles.

Marriage Licenses Issued

Ted R. Hughes, 30; Emelia B. Jiminez, 30, San Juan Capistrano.

Henry Mendez, 24, Ruth Salazar, 19, Santa Ana.

Maurice E. Patton, 23, Santa Ana; Virginia Gabriel, 22, Balboa.

Albert J. Sahm, 41, Compton; Faith D. Watkins, 36, Lynwood.

Charles Lennstrom, 66; Helen Weis, 54, Los Angeles.

Clyde W. Corigan, 25; Beatrice M. Shenk, 24, Los Angeles.

Irving Radell, 29, Bertha G. Taylor, 23, Santa Ana.

Andrew T. Levering, 26, Vanderbilt, Penn.; Margaret Aquino, 26, Orange.

Kent Martin, 23, Ellen Mair, 20, Santa Ana.

Auburn Nelson, 29, Santa Ana; LaVerne C. Tanner, 29, Vista.

Raymond Y. Neff, 42; Marion A. Goodale, 30, Redondo Beach.

Gaston P. Avila, 28, Pomona; Vera Romero, 19, Monrovia.

Cleo G. Hattenhauer, 28; Hilda W. Cook, 24, Los Angeles.

Charles Guelker, 27; Edith L. Temple, 28, Los Angeles.

Henry Alvarado, 26; Natalie Castillo, 18, Los Angeles.

Joseph H. Knott, 28, Philadelphia, Pa.; Elva A. Waer, 29, Coquille, Ore.

William D. Mathews, 28; Dole Imron Smyer, 29, Long Beach.

BIRTHS

BRINER—To Mr. and Mrs. Omar Briner, 929 West Chestnut street, Santa Ana, a daughter at Santa Ana Valley hospital, Oct. 6.

DEATH NOTICES

A WORD OF COMFORT

It is as stupid to tread so cautiously that you seem devoid of convictions as it is to blatently voice your individual opinions.

While you are obligated to avoid hurting others unnecessarily and purposely bruising their ideals or their prejudices, you are responsible for living your allegiance to the God of Love.

As you express your trust in Him through your days of deepest sorrow, others will be led to seek from Him the comfort and strength which assist you.

LOCKE—October 6, 1936, John M. Locke, aged 85 years, of 409 Minter street, a resident of Santa Ana for past 6 years. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Katherine L. Locke and a son, Alfred M. Locke, of Pasadena. Funeral services will be held from the Winbigler Mortuary chapel 609 North Main street, tomorrow, October 7, at 2 p. m. The Rev. George A. Warmer, pastor of the First Methodist church officiating. Ritual of Santa Ana Masonic Lodge, No. 241 will be given at the chapel. Private cremation following.

BAY—At his home, 443 South Parker street, Orange, October 6, George Milton Bay, 87. He is survived by one son, L. C. Bay, of Orange, and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Clarence Bay, of Orange. Funeral services Thursday at 10 a. m. at the Gillogly Funeral chapel, with the Rev. R. B. McAulay of the First Presbyterian church officiating. Interment in Fairhaven cemetery.

BALL—At his home, 111 W. 17th St., Oct. 6, 1936, Harry H. Ball, aged 58 years. Mr. Ball had resided in Santa Ana 16 years and is survived by his wife, Mrs. Bessie A. Ball, and three daughters, Mrs. Josephine Paine, Balboa; Mrs. Maybell Hewitt, Davis, Calif., and Miss Winifred Ball of the home. Notice of funeral will be given later by Smith and Tuthill.

SMITH—Oct. 5, 1936, at 903 E. First street, Lon Smith. Mr. Smith was a single man and had no relatives here. Notice of funeral will be given later by Smith and Tuthill.

HUGHES—October 5, 1936, in Santa Ana, Mary Hughes, of Laguna Beach. Announcement of funeral later by Brown and Wagner.

(Funeral Notice)

REED—Funeral services for Jack B. Reed who passed away at his home, 518 South Garnsey street, October 4, 1936, will be held at 1 p. m. tomorrow at the Utter-McKinley Funeral home, 4254 South Broadway, Los Angeles. Interment in Forest Lawn Memorial Park. Brown and Wagner in charge.

Beautiful Floral Tributes
Dainty Corsages
Artistic Floral Baskets and Wedding Flowers

Flowerland

Phone 845
Greenhouses 201 West Washington
Downtown store 510 No. Bdwy.

A limited number of desirable crypts are available in beautiful Melrose Abbey Mausoleum, priced from $135 to $225, on easy terms. Visitors welcome. Phone Or. 131.—Adv.

The aepyornis, an extinct bird, laid an egg that was equal to a gross of hen eggs.

CITY REJECTS PETITION FOR FOUR CONCERTS

A petition, signed by over 100 residents of Santa Ana, requesting the city council to sponsor a series of four concerts by a symphony orchestra under the direction of El-Wood Bear, was turned down last night. In taking the action, councilmen expressed their regrets at their inability, for financial reasons, to foster such a program.

The plan, as outlined by Bear, called for concerts to be presented at the Santa Ana high school auditorium at a cost of approximately $150 for each concert. The orchestra, which is comprised of 75 musicians, has obtained permission from the school board to use the auditorium for free concerts. There is no expense involved in the matter of renting the auditorium when such functions are free to the public. However, when admission is charged, the organization presenting the concert must pay the school board $50 for the use of the hall. Bear expressed the belief that the organization would be unable to risk a loss by charging admission.

In turning down the application, Councilman Layton explained that there is no provision in the city's funds for an orchestra. Councilman William Penn, in commenting on the project, pointed out that the affair would be primarily for the purpose of presenting concerts, and expressed doubt as to the advertising value of such a plan.

HOLD FUNERAL OF MRS. MYRTLE HALL

ANAHEIM, Oct. 6. — Funeral rites for Mrs. Myrtle May Hall, 42-year-old resident of La Habra, who died Saturday at the Anaheim sanitarium, were held this afternoon from the chapel of Backs, Terry and Campbell, the Rev. W. J. Hatter, of Santa Ana, officiating.

The body is being taken to Fort Collins, Colo., for interment and will be sent tonight, accompanned by Mrs. Hall's husband, Phillips P. Hall. Mrs. Hall's sister, Mrs. H. B. Parsons, lives in Anaheim.

Mrs. Hall also leaves a daughter, Betty Mae, a son, Eugene and a brother, W. L. Davis, of Willington, Colo. She was a member of the Episcopal church of Fullerton. Death came after a long illness. Mrs. Hall was born in Fairfax, Ill.

Roemer Placed In Charge of Jaysee Weather Bureau

Charles Roemer, post graduate student at Santa Ana Junior college, has been placed in charge of the jaysee weather bureau for the second consecutive year, H. O. Russell, engineering department head, announced today.

The bureau is located on the roof of the Board of Education building where it was moved from the high school two years ago.

Through the use of $400 worth of meteorological equipment, an attempt will be made this year to establish the first complete annual report of local weather, Roemer announced.

Another objective will be the collection of statistics in an effort to learn more about the destructive Santana winds which are common to this area.

Daily weather reports are printed in The Register.

Mrs. Frank Isbel Shower Hostess

BUENA PARK, Oct. 5.—Mrs. Stanley Smith (Arvilla Huston) was complimented recently with a post-nuptial shower and luncheon at the home of Mrs. Frank Isbel. A gift of silver salad forks in her chosen pattern was presented the honoree.

Individual favors presented the guests at the luncheon table were old-fashioned bridal bouquets. A pastel motif was used in appointing the table, which was centered with an arrangement of flowers and tapers.

In addition to the honoree, invited were Mrs. Mae Huston, mother of the guest of honor; Mrs. Anette Arelianes, Mrs. J. F. Greenawalt, Mrs. William Malott, Mrs. Vernon Criswell, Mrs. H. Cummins, Mrs. James Kilgour, Mrs. Jack Ritterbush, Mrs. Arthur Phillips of Fullerton, Mrs. W. B. Shaw, Mrs. J. H. Johnson, Mrs. Tommie Nelson, and Mrs. Richard Nelson, of Buena Park.

W.R.C. President Shower Honoree

L HABRA, Oct. 6.—Following the meeting of the local W. R. C. at the Masonic temple, the members honored their president, Mrs. Anna C. Launer, with a surprise birthday handkerchief shower. The refreshments were served at a long table which was decorated in the Hallowe'en motif and a decorated birthday cake was presented to the honoree at this time.

At the business meeting a pot luck supper was planned for 5:30 p. m. October 16, which is to be followed by the regular inspection of the corps. A silver tea was planned by the group for October 6 at the home of Mrs. Maude Adcock.

Funeral services for Brother Locke will be conducted at Winbigler's funeral parlors at 2 p. m., Wednesday, Oct. 7. All Masons meet at the temple by 1:45 p. m.

DR. H. J. HOWARD, W. M. —Adv.

COUNTY C. OF C. WILL SPONSOR MEXICO JAUNT

Voting to sponsor another Orange county trip to Mexico, perhaps in January, the executive committee of the Orange County Associated Chambers of Commerce meeting last night in the Green Cat cafe saw the selection of a committee of seven to arrange the good will junket. The sponsorship will be arranged without obligation to the associated, it was explained by George Raymer.

The committee selected includes E. B. Sharpley, George Raymer, John Tuffree, Walter Muckenthaler, Dr. C. G. Huston, Carl Hankey and T. B. Talbert. Special low excursion rates will be possible, Mr. Sharrpley explained.

Further investigation into the proposed skyline drive along the crest of the Santa Ana mountains was authorized and Dr. Huston, president, appointed a committee of three for this purpose. Dr. Huston made it plain that the action in no wise is a sponsoring or promotion of the drive. The committee consists of Capt. W. K. Hillyard, George Kellogg and Dion R. Gardner.

The group decided to devote the next regular meeting of the associated to a discussion of the amendments and propositions on the November ballot. A speaker will direct the discussion. The meeting will be held at the Elks clubhouse, Anaheim, October 27, and will be open to the public. Dinner reservations will be necessary.

ORANGE G. O. P. STRONGHOLD OF ENTIRE COUNTY

Orange still stood alone among the in corporated cities of the county as a Republican stronghold, although two unincorporated towns, Yorba Linda and San Juan Capistrano, also showed Republican registration leadership, as County Clerk J. M. Backs today disclosed registration of the two major parties in population centers of the county.

El Modena, Villa Park, Olive, among the smaller communities, and East and West Anaheim, thickly settled rural citrus areas, likewise showed Republican leads.

Democrats led in registration in the other cities and towns, from Santa Ana, the largest, to Olinda, the smallest.

Orange, with an even 2500 Republicans registered, gave the GOP a lead of 381.

Santa Ana was Democratic by 2008, the count being 10,016 to 8008. The Democratic lead in Anaheim was 572 and in Fullerton it was 354.

Registration of the two major parties in the various cities and towns follows:

	Democrat	Republican
Santa Ana	10,016	8008
Anaheim	3145	2573
Fullerton	2964	2610
Orange	2109	2500
Huntington Bch.	1504	676
Newport Beach	1135	975
Costa Mesa	1289	673
Laguna Beach	997	955
Garden Grove	809	705
Buena Park	906	477
Brea	794	568
La Habra	638	477
Seal Beach	540	260
East Anaheim	243	358
Yorba Linda	297	303
West Anaheim	288	306
Cypress	426	167
Tustin	293	252
Placentia	273	208
San Juan Capis.	210	262
Talbert	290	143
Midway City	237	123
Westminster	242	115
San Clemente	189	158
Stanton	210	95
Sunset Beach	180	106
Los Alamitos	182	90
Richfield	140	94
Doheny Park	128	63
El Toro	111	61
Barber City	118	42
Olinda	96	72

EXTENSION EXPERT WILL VISIT COUNTY

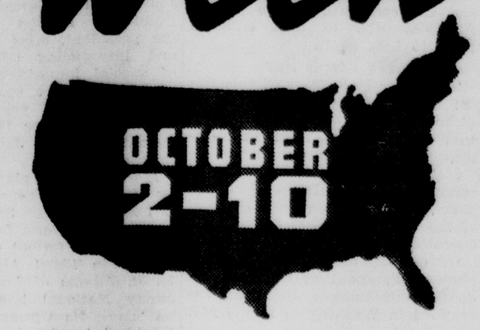

If spring in chair and davenport cushiins have sprung, the women in Orange county will be interested in attending a demonstration featuring cushion repair. Miss Jessie-Lee F. Decker, Extension Specialist in Home Furnishing, and Miss Frances Liles, Orange County Home Demonstration agent, will hold two all day meetings where processes of cushion repair will be shown: On October at the Legion hall, Fullerton, and on October 9 in the Farm Bureau hall, Santa Ana, both meetings beginning at 10 o'clock.

TOWNSEND CLUBS

Seal Beach Townsend club will open the fall social season with a potluck dinner at 6:30 o'clock this evening in the Civic auditorium Dinner arrangements are in charge of Mrs. Grace Haskell, Mrs. Julia Smohl, Mrs. Margaret Johnson, Mrs. Mary Armstrong and Mrs. Anna Sylvia. A program with surprise features is planned.

SEWING MACHINES REPAIRED
Fix-it Shop, 105 E. 3rd. Adv.

National Furniture Week

And in our store National Furniture Week means exceptional values in good furniture on convenient terms of payment . . . and Horton Service. We have made many special purchases for this event . . . every department has one or more feature values. TRADE IN YOUR OLD FURNITURE as part payment on new furniture this week!

Whole Roomful of Drapes! $26.95

SPECIAL FOR FURNITURE WEEK! Four sets of draw draperies, made in our own workshops, completely finished and ready to hang, priced at just $26.95. And you can pay for this roomful, or any other room-ful of draperies of your selection, on special terms! $2.90 month

This Beautiful Livingroom for $48.80

This new livingroom group has just been placed on our floors. It will be $48.80 during National Furniture Week only. A brand new design, of exceptional comfort, and modern quality. You'll like it. The terms are special, too, just $3.90 a month. $3.90 month

Pendleton Blanket

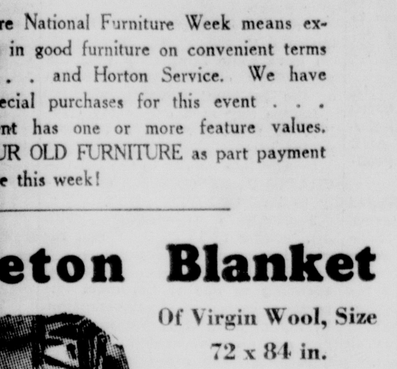

Of Virgin Wool, Size 72 x 84 in.

$9.95 50c week

People are greatly surprised when they see this blanket and realize it is only $9.95! It is really worth much more. To open new accounts this week we offer to sell it on terms of 50c a week!

Karpen HAIR Built Spring Mattress

This mattress has a Hair Top and bottom, a heavy St. Francis ticking, 4-row stitch, ventilator, handles, patented Karpen inner roll, Karpen Spring Unit. Hand tied box springs to match at the same price.

$27.50 Buy on Convenient Budget Terms

Just in—New Fashion-Thrift

Armstrong Linoleums

Beautiful new Armstrong floors for Fall! These new colors and designs will transform any room in the house, give it new life and sparkle. See them now.

Armstrong's Quaker Felt at 29c

Genuine Armstrong Quaker Felt, 63 in wide; 29c running foot.

Genuine Inlaid Linoleums at $1.19

New Fall patterns in inlaid linoleums, a value at $1.19 square yard.

Felt Base Rugs for $3.98

And these are the 9x12 size! Brighten your floors with one of these fine new patterns!

Trade in your old furniture as part payment on new furniture this week!

Studio Couch Sale!

Fine Studio Couch at $15.95

. . . Makes either double bed, or two twin beds, a couch by day. Special at $15.95.

New Studio Couch for $19.95

. . . And it has a WARDROBE! A new type, makes double or twin beds. Easy payments.

Simmons Studio Couch $29.95

. . . A special Simmons value for their 65th Anniversary! It's a very good one!

"Pull Easy" Couch at $39.95

. . . And this is Simmons well known studio couch, with arms; operates very easily.

USED furniture specials!

Reconditioned overstuffed livingroom sets at $14.95.

Sanitary cots, $1.00.

Monterey livingroom suite, Philippine mahogany frame at $34.50.

Rocking chairs, 95c.

Wicker settee, large size, $4.95.

Choice of floor and bridge lamps, $1, up.

Metal beds, 25c.

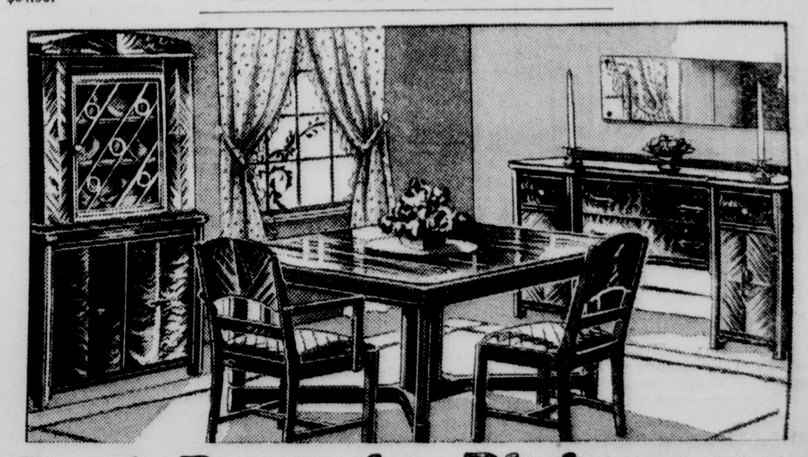

Reconditioned gas ranges, $4.85.

Ice boxes for $1 and more.

Used radios, some play well, some don't, $2.50 up.

Used electric washer, $9.95.

Large choice of bedroom furniture, dressers, chests, benches, night stands, etc., at bargain prices.

Good Buys in Diningrooms

7-Piece Oak Dining Group $69.50

Solid oak continues in popularity. See this beautiful 7-piece group at $69.50. The buffet is $39.50.

Walnut Veneer Group at $37.50

Dining table with walnut veneer top, five side chairs and one arm chair; 7 pieces at an extremely low price.

Philippine Mahogany Set $59.95

Table, five side chairs, one arm chair, 7 fine pieces. The Credenza type buffet is $30.

18th Century Diningroom $64.85

A gorgeous diningroom group of 7 pieces, worth much more. Buy it on convenient terms.

HORTON'S

Main at Sixth
Phones 281, 282

PRESIDENTIAL BATTLE PAGE

(Provided by the Democratic National Committee)

Roosevelt Exposes On Major Issues Landon's Weakness

In a few devastating sentences in his opening campaign speech, President Roosevet exposed the futility of Gov. Landon's position and deftly punctured his adversary's efforts to face both ways on national issues.

A new man in the public eye after his nomination at Cleveland, Gov. Landon had the national stage virtually to himself for three long months. He had an opportunity unrivaled in American politics to sell himself and his principles of government to the electorate. His entry upon the stage was preceded by the greatest newspaper build-up in the history of politics.

ELEPHANT TURNS OSTRICH! Why doesn't Gov. Landon reveal whether he is for or against the New Deal?

During July, August and September, Gov. Landon campaigned from West Middlesex to Milwaukee, from Maine to Minnesota. He discussed nearly all major issues and now it is apparent that he left those subjects far more beclouded than when he started to speak. He has been confused, muddled, vague and self-contradictory. He has given the public an impression of a man uncertain in his own mnid, of a man bewildered and unprepared to play the role which has been assigned him.

It remained for President Roosevelt to penetrate his armor and reveal this political two-timing. Said he:

"You cannot be an Old Guard Republican in the East and a New Deal Republican in the West.

"You cannot promise to repeal taxes before one audience and promise to spend more of the taxpayers' money before another audience.

"You cannot promise tax relief for those who can afford to pay and at the same time promise more of the taxpayers' money for those who are in need. You simply cannot make good on both promises and at the same time."

FACING BOTH WAYS

In those few sentences, President Roosevelt disclosed the weakness of the Republican position. Gov. Landon promised tax reduction for the large corporations at Buffalo and at Des Moines he promised a farm program to cost more than the one now in operation.

In his speech at Portland, Me., Gov. Landon denounced national planning and in his farm speech he promised national planning. He has promised the East to get rid of the New Deal and he is promising the West to keep it.

Another pointed example of the tactics being employed by Gov. Landon was his absurd announcement that if elected, he will not appoint Mr. John D. M. Hamilton as Postmaster General. Now if the Governor wanted to raise public confidence he should have announced that he did not intend to appoint Mr. Hamilton to any office. That certainly would be a public relief.

CIVIL SERVICE NEGLECTED

But for Gov. Landon to proclaim his love for the civil service is farcical. There is a Kansas statute which says: "It shall be the duty of the Governor to appoint three electors as civil service commissioners."

And yet Kansas has no civil service commission and not a single civil service commissioner. In other words, Gov. Landon is violating the civil service law in his own State openly and flagrantly.

(Provided by the Republican National Committee)

Taxes Soak Poor, Roosevelt Warns At Pittsburg

By FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT

From an address by Franklin D. Roosevelt at Pittsburgh, Oct. 19, 1932

Pittsburgh—We all know that our own family credit depends in large part on the stability of the credit of the United States.

Here at least is one field in which all business, big business and little business, and family business and the individual's business, is at the mercy of our big Government down in Washington.

What I should like to do is to reduce, in so far as possible, the problem of our national finances to the terms of a family budget.

Now the credit of the family depends chiefly on whether that family is living within its income. And this is so of the nation. If the nation is living within its income, its credit is good.

If in some crisis, it lives beyond its income for a year or two it can usually borrow temporarily on reasonable terms.

But if, like a spendthrift, it throws discretion to the winds, is willing to make no sacrifice at all in spending, extends its taxing to the limit of the people's power to pay and continues to pile up deficits, it is ON THE ROAD TO BANKRUPTCY.

TAXES ARE PAID IN THE SWEAT OF EVERY MAN WHO LABORS BECAUSE THEY ARE A BURDEN ON PRODUCTION AND CAN BE PAID ONLY BY PRODUCTION.

If excessive, they are reflected in idle factories, tax-sold farms, and hence, in hordes of the hungry tramping the streets and seeking jobs in vain.

Our workers may never see a tax bill, but they pay in deductions from wages, in increased cost of what they buy, or (as now) in broad cessation of employment.

There is not an unemployed man—there is not a struggling farmer—whose interest in this subject is not direct and vital.

Federal Spending Dangerous

What I am talking about are the taxes which go to the ordinary costs of conducting government, and that is where the question of extravagance comes in. There can be no extravagance when starvation is in question; but EXTRAVAGANCE DOES APPLY TO THE MOUNTING BUDGET OF THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT IN WASHINGTON DURING THESE PAST FOUR YEARS.

The most obvious effect of extravagant government spending is, then, its burden on farm and industrial activity and, for that, nearly every government unit in the United States is to blame. But when we come to consider prodigality and extravagance in the Federal Government—as distinguished from state or local government—we are talking about something EVEN MORE DANGEROUS.

For upon the financial stability of the United States Government depends the stability of trade and employment. AND THE ENTIRE BANKING, SAVING AND INSURANCE SYSTEM OF THE COUNTRY.

It is my opinion that in the conduct of national finances, as in the conduct of corporation finances or family budgets, if things are not going as well as one had hoped, IT IS FAR BETTER TO FACE THE TRUTH than to try to hide it.

This Administration specifically acknowledged the necessity for that.

It said it was going to balance the budget.

If it is not true, then the Administration STANDS CONVICTED of a NEW AND FATAL TRIFLING with the welfare of our people and the credit of our country.

Afraid to State Facts

I regret to say that the appeal of this Administration for applause . . . is simply not based on facts. The budget is NOT balanced, and the whole job must be done over again in the next session of Congress.

Who is to blame for this new blunder?

It is very clear that, under repeated insistence that the budget was being balanced, Congress gave our Treasury—without hesitation or limit—every cent of revenue it asked for and that, at the end, the Administration assured Congress and the country that the task had been accomplished.

I have already shown how unreliable these constant assurances are. It is not seemly to conjecture motives, but I think it is fair to say the whole record of Administration policy in the last four years reveals that it has been afraid to trust the people of the United States with the true facts about their affairs.

That is a fundamental error which shows unfamiliarity with the true basis of American character.

The truth is that our banks are financing these stupendous deficits and that the burden is absorbing their resources.

All this is highly undesirable and wholly unnecessary.

It arises from one cause only, and that is the unbalanced budget and the continued failure of this Administration to take effective steps to balance it.

The People Pay

The other bad effect of this fiscal mismanagement is not at all technical. It is the burden of high cost on the backs of all our people.

I shall approach the problem of carrying out the plain precept of our party, which is to reduce the cost of the current Federal Government operations by 25 per cent.

Of course, that means a complete realignment of the unprecedented bureaucracy that has assembled in Washington in the past four years.

I am no stranger to Washington.

I have some familiarity with the psychology of the Administration of the National Government.

Before any man enters my Cabinet he must give me a two-fold pledge of:

1—Absolute loyalty to the DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM and especially to its ECONOMY plank.

2—Complete co-operation with me, looking to ECONOMY and reorganization in his department.

I regard reduction in federal spending as one of the most important issues of this campaign. In my opinion, it is the most direct and effective contribution that government can make to business.

My friends, these have been unhealthy years for prophets, and I hasten to disclaim that role.

I Pledge Economy

But one thing I know. A powerful cause contributing to economic disaster has been this inexcusable fiscal administration and the obscurity and uncertainty that has attended and grown out of it.

There it remains for all to see—A VERITABLE CANCER in the body politic and economic.

Is it prophecy to assure you that if we remove this destructive growth we shall move on to better things?

To my mind this is so plain and persuasive as scracely to be open to argument. As I said in the beginning, this is the one field in which business is wholly in the grip of government.

By the same token, it is the one field where government can make the greatest possible present contribution to recovery. To this contribution I HERE PLEDGE THE UTMOST OF MY FAITH AND MY ABILITY.

Join me, and "Let's go!"

(Mr. Roosevelt will speak again at Pittsburgh tonight at 9 o'clock. He will be followed by Alfred E. Smith from New York City at 9:30 p. m.)

Clouds do not burst during a cloudburst; raindrops held up by air currents suddenly fall when the currents weaken.

VACUUM CLEANERS REPAIRED
Fix-it Shop, 105 E. 3rd. Adv.

PUBLICITY IS TOPIC BEFORE B. & P. W. CLUB

Departing from their customary procedure of being entertained and instructed by a speaker in some one of the various fields embraced by their year's study program, Business and Professional Women last night provided their own entertainment in a program planned by the publicity committee of the club.

This was given in connection with the semi-monthly club dinner in the Doris Kathryn, and had as its sponsors, the two newspaper writers of the organization, Eleanor Young Elliott of The Register and Betty Cox of The Journal. It followed a short introductory session conducted by the president, Miss Lena Thomas, and introducing several features of special importance. These included the first southern district meeting of the year, to be held in Hemet October 17 and 18, with Hemet and San Jacinto clubs as hostess groups.

More detailed plans were given by Mrs. Edith Thatcher, to include a board meeting Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock following registration; the formal dinner at 6:30 o'clock in Hotel Alessandro, with H. B. Adams of Los Angeles Security National bank as speaker on "Society's Upward Spiral"; the "Hobby" breakfast Sunday morning at 9 o'clock with a speaker on Indian Arts and Crafts, and the 12:30 o'clock luncheon at which Augusta Rosenberg, Los Angeles woman lawyer, will discuss "Women's Property Rights."

Registration for this conclave must be made by the end of the coming week through Miss Helen Gallagher, 2622.

With "Publicity" as the evening's program theme, it was quite in keeping that aims and ideals of the Community Chest drive should be publicized by the general chairman of the present campaign, D. H. Tidball. He presented his arguments in favor of the chest fund, with forcefulness and clarity, recognizing that his audience was thoroughly in sympathy with the views he expressed.

In the subsequent hour, each member of the club gave publicity to the work in which she is engaged, outlining her reasons for tertaining that particular field, and closing by calling upon some one other member whose personality or endeavors she especially admired. The result was that clubwomen were given a new understanding and appreciation of the various pursuits represented in the membership.

Teaching in general and in specialized fields, beauty culture, legal business, banking, title searching, journalism, county affairs, undertaking, nursing, short story writing, department store buying, music, catering to women's clothing needs, and secretarial duties were some of the many fields publicized.

These various fields were represented by the club president, Miss Thomas, the Misses Hester Covington, Mabel Wiseman, Lula B. Finley, Dorothy Decker, Elizabeth Perkins, Olivia Clark, Genevieve Humiston, Juanita Snyder, Artie Cleaveland, Lorraine French, Mabel Whiting, Effie White, Ella Vezie, Louise Kaiser, Harriet Whidden, Mesdames Marie Fowler, Ruth Rensberger, Katherine Stinson, Hazel Northcross, Grace Wolff, Ethel Lockwood, Laura McNaught, and the committee members, Betty Cox and Eleanor Elliott.

When leaning on a curve, a horse keeps his eyes parallel to the ground.

KILL THAT COLD

Give It No Chance to Survive Thru the Use of Half-way Measures!

Treat a cold to kill it, not to coddle it!

Many a cold lightly treated turns into something worse.

Hit a cold "where it lives"—in the system! That means to take an internal treatment.

Hit it with a cold medicine, not with a preparation good for all kinds of ailments.

Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine is the treatment you want.

First of all, it is a cold tablet, made expressly for colds.

Second, it is internal medication and of fourfold effect.

Here's what it does:

First, it opens the bowels, an advisable step in the treatment of a cold.

Second, it checks the infection in the system, a vital step.

Third, it relieves the headache and fever.

Fourth, it tones the system and helps fortify against further attack.

That's the fourfold treatment a cold calls for and in Bromo Quinine you get it in the form of a single tablet.

Bromo Quinine tablets now come sugar-coated as well as plain.

The sugar-coated are exactly the same as the regular, except that the tablets are coated with sugar for palatability.

When you feel a cold coming on, don't "monkey around" with halfway measures.

Go right to your druggist for a package of Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine tablets.

Start taking the tablets immediately, two every four hours. Used in time, Bromo Quinine will usually break up a cold in 24 hours and that's the speed you want.

Before you buy any range— insist upon a demonstration of TAPPAN D-I-V-I-D-E-D COOKING TOP GAS RANGE

921 S. Main St. RUSSELL PLUMBING CO. Phone 523

IF YOU BUY NOW . . .

Savings of $30 and Up on De Luxe Clock Controlled

Gas Ranges

DURING THIS MAMMOTH SALE the electric clock and its oven controls cost you nothing. ● Every De Luxe range is on sale—no matter who manufactures it or who sells it.

THE VERY LATEST RANGES

That means the most modern ranges on the American market are included. Many have the entirely new low temperature ovens as well as high speed burners. They enable you to serve delicious oven-baked dinners—flavorful, slow-baked beans—finer fish and roasts—angel food cakes of matchless texture. ● Among other outstanding improvements are the marvelous "simmer-save" top burners, for waterless cooking.

PRICES AND TERMS

Prices vary according to the model you select but all De Luxe clock-controlled ranges are on sale at savings of $30 or more. ● And, of course, you obtain a full 10% trade-in allowance on your present range. Down payment may be as low as $5. Terms are liberal.

ALL DEALERS

These tremendous values are offered you by all manufacturers and retailers of gas ranges in cooperation with your gas company. See the beautiful new models today!

MODERNIZE YOUR HOME WITH Natural Gas lowest in cost of all practical fuels

SOUTHERN COUNTIES GAS COMPANY

PARKING ZONES ESTABLISHED BY CITY DADS

There will no longer be any doubt as to the legality of Santa Ana's parking zones. This fact was established last night with the passage of a series of resolutions by the city council, prepared and presented by City Attorney L. W. Blodget.

All of the resolutions passed legalized zones already painted. The zones affected were the no parking zones, painted red; time limit parking zones, painted green; freight loading zones, painted yellow, and passenger loading zones, painted white.

Two other resolutions established the central traffic districts and through streets.

As a matter of formality, resolutions accepting deeds to a strip of land in the Santiago creek for the purpose of completing the city's park project, were passed. The strip runs between North Main street and Santa Ana boulevard.

In the future, city officials must carry their office accounts in the name of the city, subject to checking by the city officers. In the past, it has been customary for the officials to make the deposits in their own names. This change was effected in a resolution passed by the council.

Another resolution passed by the council made it possible for the council in the future to make changes in the wages of city employes whenever necessary. In a recent resolution passed by the council, definite wage scales were set up. The new law gives flexibility to the old ordinance.

In Pennsylvania, there are "ice mines," where icicles form in hot weather and melt when winter comes.

Use only one level teaspoonful to a cup of flour for most recipes.

Efficient and Economical

KC BAKING POWDER

Same price today as 45 years ago

25 ounces for 25c

Manufactured by Baking Powder Specialists who make nothing but Baking Powder.

MILLIONS OF POUNDS HAVE BEEN USED BY GOVERNMENT

ATTENTION TOWNSENDITES!

The Townsend Youth Club of Santa Ana will hold open house Wednesday Evening, October 7th, at 8 P. M. Townsend Hall, 509 West 4th Street. Plenty of entertainment. Bring the young people.

Here's more help to

PREVENT MANY COLDS

● At The First Sneeze, sniffle, or any irritation in your nose

● Quick! A Few Drops of Vicks Va-tro-nol up each nostril

● It S-p-r-e-a-d-s its scientific medication swiftly spreads through nose and upper throat—where 3 out of 4 colds start.

You can feel the tingle as Va-tro-nol s-p-r-e-a-d-s through the trouble zone in your nose and upper throat. Va-tro-nol is specially designed to stimulate Nature's defenses in this area. Used in time, Va-tro-nol helps to prevent many a miserable cold from developing . . . and to throw off head colds in the early stages.

Quickly relieves "Stuffy Head"

VICKS VA-TRO-NOL

4-H CLUBS OF COUNTY TAKE FAIR HONORS

The Humming Birds, under the leadership of Mrs. F. L. Benson and two of the Tustin Livewires with Mrs. G. D. Griset leader, were the winners of many ribbons at the recent Los Angeles County Fair for their excellent exhibit of their home furnishing project work, reports Miss Frances Liles, Orange County Home Demonstration Agent.

Sheets, pillow cases, towels, and wash cloths marked with owner's initials, blanket protector, quilted pillow, curtain tie-back, treated dust cloth and container, and a portfolio to hold circulars, pictures, charts, etc., comprise the outline for the first year's work. The following ribbon awards were made: Louise Benson 1st on sheet; 3rd on pillow case, fourth on towel, fourth on wash cloth, second on portfolio, third on dust cloth and container, first on blanket protector, fifth on curtain tie-back, and fifth on pillow. Euelda Bowman, second on sheet, first on pillow case, first on towel, fourth on portfolio, fourth on blanket protector, second on curtain tie-back, and first on quilted pillow. June Malmstrom, third on sheet, second on pillow case, fifth on towel, fifth on portfolio, first on dust cloth and container, and second on blanket protector.

Esther Benson, fifth on sheet, second on towel, fifth on wash cloth, first on portfolio, second on dust cloth and container, first on curtain tie-back, and fourth on quilted pillow. Lucille Griset, fourth on sheet, fourth on pillow case, first on towel, and third on washcloth. Bertha Bell Shith, fifth on sheet, fifth on pillow case, third on towel, fourth on dust cloth and container, third on blanket protector, and third on curtain tie-back.

Orange County 4-H club members won a total of 80 ribbons on both home economics and agricultural entries.

FLASH! FLASH! Lose Ugly Fat

"Eat sensibly and drink Welch's Grape Juice," says Irene Rich

WILL you do only two pleasant things to get rid of your ugly fat? First, eat sensibly. Second, mix ¼ of a glass of Welch's Grape Juice with ¼ of a glass of water and drink before meals, and at bedtime. No strict dieting, exercising, or taking drugs. Yet!—weight losses of 7 pounds a month have been credited to this SAFE method. Use only Welch's—made from the finest grapes grown; always full strength. Certified Pure.

HEAR

IRENE RICH

FRIDAYS—NBC RED NETWORK

Welch Grape Juice Co., Westfield, N. Y.

Welch GRAPE JUICE — Approved and Approved by Good Housekeeping Bureau

News Behind The News

By Paul Mallon

TRANSPOSITION—

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6. — The Japanese have been marching and countermarching up and down the Yangtze river valley, where Britain's major interests in China are located. The British are worried. They did not much care when the Japanese took Manchuria in 1931. Their trade stood to gain by abolition of Chinese rule and misrule there. At that time, they could not get interested in Former State Secretary Stimson's threats against Japanese aggression.

Now that the problem has moved right up against the British pocketbook, the situation is different. American newsmen in London lately have been obtaining unofficial interviews at the foreign office suggesting that Britain would like to use "strong pressure" on the Japanese in Shanghai and on up the Yangtze.

The significance of these London dispatches was not lost here. State Secretary Hull has found similar unofficial ways of letting it be known quietly that this time, he is not interested.

It means that any prospect for Anglo-American - Chinese - Russian cooperation against Japan is lost. Everyone will have to look out for his own pocketbook in the far east. Time marches—back.

Note—President Roosevelt's now fully developed far eastern policy is based on that of T. R. without much change. Advocating an independent foreign policy in Asia, Mr. Roosevelt, the first, once said: "I believe that our future history will be more determined by our position on the Pacific, facing China, than by our position on the Atlantic, facing Europe."

* * *

UNDERSTANDING—

When the whole inside story of the monetary negotiations comes out eventually, you will find other evidences that the general popular suspicion of another Anglo-American understanding is not justified. Mr. Morgenthau's fancy rescue of the pound from degradation and despair was appreciated in London, but not in the way you surmised. The British would really have liked to have let the pound slide to get a world trade advantage. Some say they wanted to stabilize as low as $4.40 or $4.50. At any rate, Mr. Morgenthau and the British are far from an agreeable figure.

Many inner signs have hinted that we have a gentleman's agreement with Britain on naval matters, but it is just as technical and narrow as the monetary agreement.

The current trend seems to be toward further U. S. shrinkage into its independent international shell.

* * *

SILVER POLISH—

Senator "Silver Key" Pittman's recent swing through the silver states was made as a member of the migratory board commission. This is not the only indication that the silver policy is on the wing again.

Equally significant was the action of Mexico restoring silver coins to their pre-1935 fineness. This means the Mexican government has decided the price of silver will not again reach the high levels of April, 1935, when her coins became too valuable to keep and were thrown into melting pots for the purpose of recovering the silver from them. To any insider here, it is inconceivable that Mexico acted without knowing what the American treasury intended to do. The treasury has been diplomatically close to Mexico since its initial silver policy upset Mexican money.

But why Mexico should undertake such a costly step at this time is harder to explain. Two good guesses can be made. The action may reflect pressure from the Pittman group (the senator still backed the silver policy) to restore the social standing of silver and save its monetary face. Or it may be a preliminary move toward expanding the monetary market for silver in Latin America in connection with the forthcoming Pan-American conference.

* * *

INEXPERIENCE—

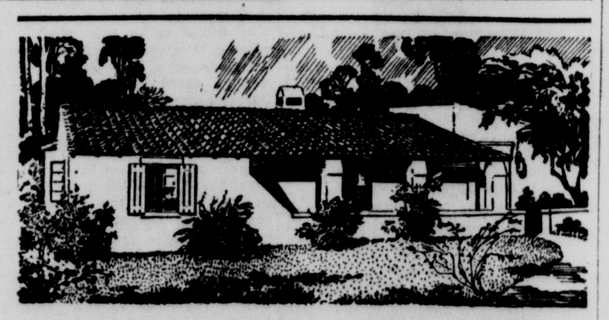

The last tribute of the navy to its World War leader, Admiral Sims, could have been greater. The man who criticized and loved the service with equal ardor was given all the honors due his rank. But the usual official invitations to other departments were not issued. The war department finally moved without an invitation and sent a staff officer in full uniform, but the others did not.

This gave encouragement to a story that the admirals still remember some of the strictures which descended upon them from Sims' caustic pen and tongue. There is nothing in that. The navy just does not often have charge of such arrangements and did not know what to do.

* * *

WARWICK—

When Agriculture Secretary Wallace and his first assistant were out of town during the last few weeks, all questions of agriculture policy were referred to a man who left the department months ago—the federal reserve boarder, Chester Davis. Quite unobserved, Davis has taken a very active part in all the recent farm policy developments. He only uses the federal reserve board as a more congenial place in which to hang his hat.

The Modest Budget Reaps the Benefit of a Firesafe CONCRETE HOME

Concrete is not only the most satisfying of all home building materials, but one that saves in many ways.

Its firesafety reduces insurance premiums . . . its slow depreciation gives higher re-sale value . . . its permanence cuts costly repair bills. And another saving: termites can't eat concrete!

Your concrete home may be Ranch House, Spanish, Southern, Colonial, Modern. It will be warm and easy to heat in winter, cool and dry in summer, and its charm will endure through the years.

Don't overlook the importance of concrete floors. They stiffen the whole house; prevent cracked plaster, sticking doors and windows. They're warm, quiet, firesafe. And you can cover or finish them as you please—with wood, carpet, linoleum, terrazzo, or simply colored and waxed.

How to Get a Concrete Home:

1. Phone or write a nearby concrete products man or concrete contractor for the names of architects and builders experienced in concrete.
2. Select an architect familiar with concrete construction and tell him you want concrete walls and floors and a firesafe roof.
3. Have your plans figured by builders experienced in concrete construction. Let nothing shake your determination to obtain the best value for your home building dollar in today's market . . . A FIRESAFE CONCRETE HOME.

Free Booklet. Let us mail you beautiful booklet, showing 55 homes designed by leading architects.

PORTLAND CEMENT ASSOCIATION
816 W. Fifth St.,
Los Angeles, Calif.

Please send free illustrated booklet, "Designed for Concrete."

Name.....

Address.....

City.....State.....

S. A. BAND WILL BE IN PARADE ARMISTICE DAY

In answer to a petition signed by over 100 business men and residents of Santa Ana, the city council on motion of Councilman William Penn last night employed the Santa Ana Municipal band to represent the city in the Armistice day parade here. This will be the first time in several years that the city has employed a band, it was revealed at the meeting.

Under the direction of Leland Auer, the band members will in all probability ride on a float prepared for the occasion. Each member of the band will receive $4 for his services.

Councilman Ernest Layton, in commenting on the action, revealed that the council has no desire to hire the band permanently. However, the council wants to be in a position to employ the band whenever possible.

In his motion to employ the band, Penn recommended that the organization be employed for direct advertising of civic functions whenever possible. He also recommended that no action be taekn in employing a permanent leader for the band.

At the present time, plans are being formed to employ the band at least once during the Christmas season. Councilman, although realizing the publicity value of such an organization, looked with disfavor on any plan to enter the band in the Pasadena Tournament of Roses. Their reason for frowning on the idea is based on the belief that the annual event has become too commercialized, and that it would be a waste of time and money to enter the parade.

Conduct Service In New Building

LA HABRA, Oct. 6.—The first worship service in the new church building was held by the Missionary Baptist church members Sunday. The building is located on West First avenue at Wallace street and is of stucco finish.

The Rev. Silas Hill, pastor of the church, conducted the service. Special music was given by a quartet, E. J. Buck, Jack Hanes, Mrs. D. W. Hall and Mrs. Earl Haseltine. Instrumental sacred numbers were played by Mr. Carter, of Long Beach, on the guitar.

WED AT SEAL BEACH

SEAL BEACH, Oct. —Baltimore and Seattle joined hands in Seal Beach this week in the persons of James Francis Dunnigan, quartermaster of the U. S. S. Pensacola, from the eastern city, and Miss Mildred Arline Clark, from the west, when Justice of Peace Fred J. Smith performed a civil marriage ceremony for the couple at his office here.

COLE BROTHERS CIRCUS IS POPULAR WITH SANTA ANANS

By MARAH ADAMS

Thousands of persons witnessed the two performances of the Cole Brothers and Clyde Beatty circus here yesterday afternoon and evening, two great audiences characterized by very evident enjoyment in the entertainment offered and by a happy holiday spirit. Faces of spectators changed in expression from tenseness when thrilling moments came along—and they were frequent—to amusement when the many funny features were presented.

Opening with a pageant in which even the tiniest folk present recognized old friends such as "Mother Goose" and "Cinderella" and closing with the traditional races of circusdom, there was not a moment during the show which could possibly have been dull for anyone.

Highlight of highlights was Clyde Beatty's act with so many lions and tigers it was impossible to count them correctly but which programs gave as two score. The high, strong steel bars of the arena were a comfort to the audience as the slender young man armed only with a chair, a whip and a revolver put the giant cats of the jungle through a program of tricks accompanied by the crack of the whip, the explosions of cartridges in the revolvers kept loaded and thrust through the bars many times by attendants outside the cage.

There's an old saying that a wild animal may be trained but not tamed. Harriet Beatty, wife of Clyde Beatty, a slender slip of a girl, performed the nearly incredible feat of securing the cooperation of an elephant and two of his deadliest jungle enemies, a lion and a tiger, themselves enemies, in an act which appears on the surface to have accomplished the actual taming of the lion and the tiger. The two great beasts leaped to the back of the elephant through a hoop of fire, a common and fearsome enemy of the three.

An old friend of many here was included in the performers. This was Kinko, the Clown. Glen Kinko to circus folks but known in Orange and Santa Ana as Glen Sunbury, as a boy learned the first steps of the circus business in Orange. Kinko's light hair which was uncovered revealed his identity. The clown band, the height of foolery, brought laughter and applause from old and young.

The daring young men on the flying trapeze and young women as well furnished their share of thrills for the circus goers, new twists to familiar stunts and new stunts making the aerial acts especially interesting and spectacular.

Imagine if you can the Gretonas. At the highest point of the high tent one rode a bicycle on a tight wire, bicycle rider supporting young man in a chair, girl on the young man's shoulders. No net below. A difficult balancing act in which the entire troup took part was closed with round after round of applause—and a sigh of relief for the safety of the actors from the spectators.

Trixie is a circus dog. Yesterday she walked around the entire ring on her hind legs without once resorting to the use of her forelegs. The Spanish troupe with their difficult and different feats with ladders was an interesting event on the program.

Horses and their very competent riders were spots on the bill which pleased everyone. Harold Barnes who, believe it or not, turns a somersault on a tight wire was accompanied by a group of girls in red and white who formed an effective background for the act.

And then the elephants. Jumbo the second, a mere stripling of an African elephant, who it is expected will be much larger, was conducted around the ring with an Asiatic, relative and points of difference in the African and native of Asia were very evident as the march progressed.

All told the circus was a good one and the large audiences gave every evidence of satisfaction with the clean and wholesome entertainment.

Local Option Is Urged by Speaker

FULLERTON, Oct. 6. — E. E. Covert, of Los Angeles, advised a "yes" vote on the local option measure on the November ballot, and advised voting against No. 3, the liquor control measure, when he talked Sunday afternoon at a meeting sponsored by the united dry forces of Fullerton at the Fullerton Presbyterian church.

R. L. Chambers, chairman of the united dry forces, presided. The Rev. F. E. Hawes opened the meeting with prayer.

on sale

2 Days Only!

DIAMOND SET

Engagement Ring and Wedding Ring

EIGHT PERFECT Blue-White DIAMONDS

$29.85

NO MONEY DOWN • $1.00 A WEEK

SET, complete, $29.85! Engagement Ring of 14k Solid White Gold, FOUR Diamonds on the sides and larger Diamond in center; Wedding Ring to match with THREE Diamonds, all of our perfect BLUE-WHITE quality. Full exchange privilege! Both Rings, $29.85 (on sale two days only). Open an account—NO MONEY DOWN, $1.00 a week. No interest.

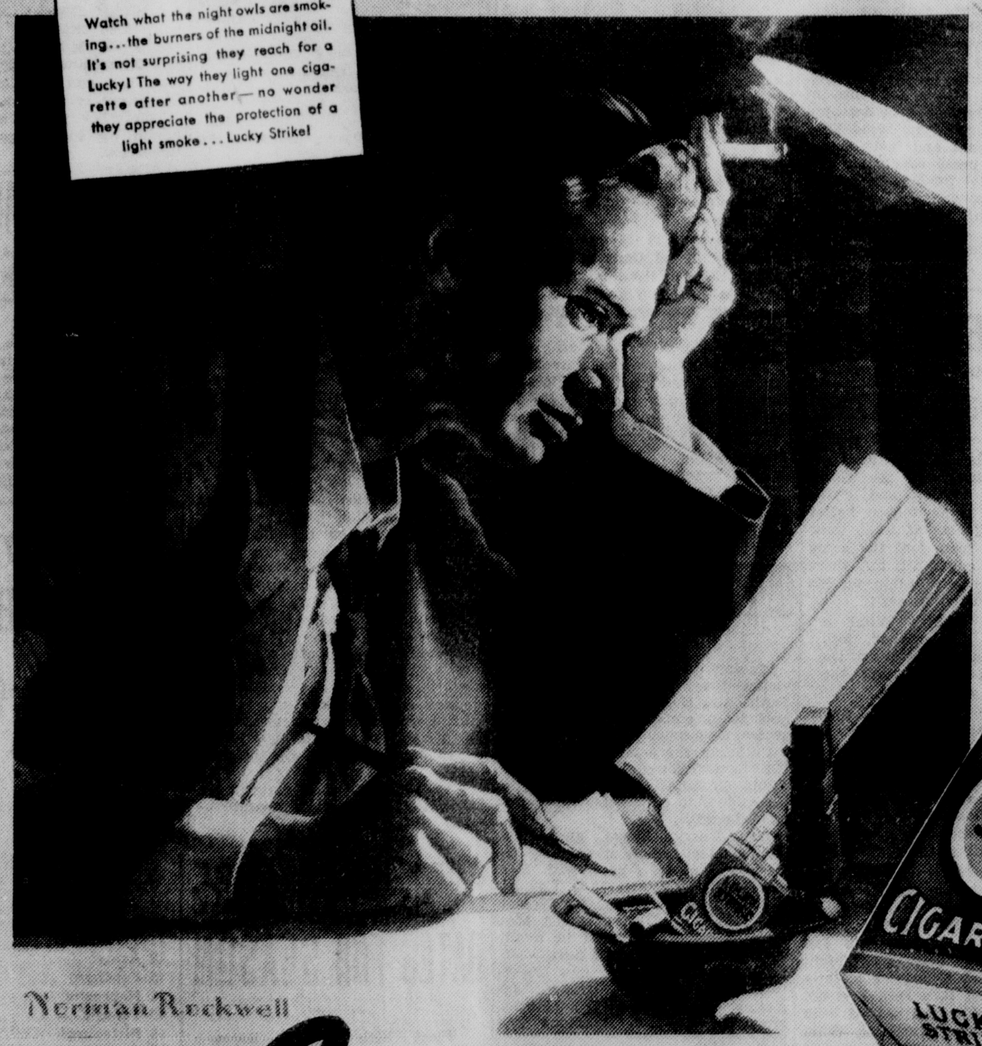

GENSLER-LEE

FOURTH STREET AT SYCAMORE — SANTA ANA

Lucky for You —It's a Light Smoke!

FOR "OVER-TIMERS" —A Light Smoke!

Watch what the night owls are smoking...the burners of the midnight oil. It's not surprising they reach for a Lucky! The way they light one cigarette after another—no wonder they appreciate the protection of a light smoke...Lucky Strike!

When you reach for another... and another!

Maybe you've never sat up through a lonely night—working and smoking hour after hour, lighting one cigarette from another—depending upon the cheerful smoke of your cigarette to keep you company and help you along. It's times like these you're grateful for a light smoke... for a Lucky Strike! For, though you may smoke right on through the night, you can trust a light smoke to be gentle with your throat. Lucky Strike is the only cigarette to offer you the important protection of "Toasting." And further, since your Luckies are made from the very tenderest, most mellow center-leaf tobacco, you'll find they taste good to you—all day—and all night, too!

★ ★ NEWS FLASH! ★ ★

Tries 14 times in vain— then wins 4 in a row

Ruth Hoff, a stenographer of East 68th Street, New York, has been entering the "Sweepstakes" since they began, but never won until a month ago. Then she really clicked and won four in a row.

Have you entered yet? Have you won your delicious Lucky Strikes? Tune in "Your Hit Parade"—Wednesday and Saturday evenings. Listen, judge, and compare the tunes—then try Your Lucky Strike "Sweepstakes."

And if you're not already smoking Luckies, buy a pack today and try them. Maybe you've been missing something.

Luckies—a light smoke

OF RICH, RIPE-BODIED TOBACCO — "IT'S TOASTED"

Copyright, 1936, The American Tobacco Company

WEST WINDS

Here and There in Local Sport

By EDDIE WEST

JUNIOR COLLEGE FOOTBALL RECEIPTS TO SET RECORD

All-time financial records are likely at Santa Ana jaysee this fall if the Dons cut much of a figure in the impending Eastern conference football race. . . . Receipts to date are well ahead of any previous season.

Last Friday's game with Long Beach grossed $617.54, better than any non-league conflict ever played at the Municipal Bowl. Even the mighty U. S. C. frosh, backbone of the present strong Trojan varsity, lured only $611 through the Municipal Bowl turnstiles.

The recent Glendale game brought in $398.

Junior college officials are still anxiously awaiting a report from Pasadena on the Rose Bowl game of two weeks ago. That one undoubtedly did better "box-office" than Long Beach. In fact, the Pasadena crowd was said to be the largest that ever watched a Santa Ana team in action.

When massive Miles Norton leaves tonight with the Southern California football squad for Illinois it will be the Santa Ana tackle's first train trip since he was 3 and traveled with his parents to Minnesota. Norton is a native son.

His fellow townsman, Guard Joe Preininger, is a seasoned traveler. In addition to a jaunt to Pittsburgh and several to Northern California, Preininger was with the S. C. squad when it played in Hawaii during the Christmas holidays. On this jaunt, the Trojans will have a day to spend in Chicago, two at the Dallas exposition.

Doings of the Dons:

Coach Bill Cook could pick the fastest football team in the Eastern conference if he wanted to go in for sheer speed alone. With Erdhaus and Lenzie at end, Faul and Bolton at tackles, Mosiman and Crawford at guard, Minder at center, and Sides, Greschner, Koepsel and Mercurio in the backfield he would have 11 men capable of running a "hundred" under 11 seconds...Koepsel can run 10 flat or better, and Greschner, Mercurio and Sides are all members of the track team...The two bulkiest men on the squad, Crawford and "Tubby" Waer, are two of the fastest.

Here's a flash from the Farm about Don Kennedy:

When Stanford's golf coach called out freshmen players he made a nice little speech: "I'll be frank with you. Prospects aren't so hot. If any of you frosh can shoot a round on this course under 80 I'll kiss him, so help me!

The coach had never heard of Santa Ana's Kennedy, junior champion of Southern California a year ago.

Kennedy had never played the Stanford course but turned in a 74 his first round, 73 his second.

Next day the golf coach went to Harry Shipkey, freshman football mentor, and demanded that Kennedy be turned loose from the grid squad.

"With a swing like that he'll go places in golf," said he.

Believe it or not, but taking it all the way through women made a better showing than men in the first round of The Register's Football Contest...Notable was the selection of C. H. Gardner of Huntington Beach, who forecast the Texas-Louisiana tie, and the selection of Lewis Sherman who foresaw a tie between Tulane and Auburn...One chap missed 19 of the 25 games on the list...Another checked every team on the left side of the list, going right down the line. He only missed 10 at that.

STANFORD GRIDDERS ON STRIKE

Dons, Saints Scrimmage

'LITTLE BULLS' WRESTLE WITH BIG ONES GONE

By PAUL VISSMAN

With all the better elephants working with the circus last night, the wrestling show staged in the Orange County Athletic club's hippodrome, laughingly called the Highway Horror House, was a rather tame affair. Only the smaller bulls, considered unsafe for exhibition where there were women and children, were used in the arena.

"Baby" Bob Coleman, scheduled for the main event with Kiman Kudo, lost his match when he was so badly injured in tumbling from the ring he could not return to the wars.

Coleman won the first fall in 10:09 minutes with a flying tackle and a body press. Kudo took the second in 10:27 when Coleman missed a flying tackle and sailed into the ringside seats. Coleman was so badly shaken up he apparently could not return to the arena inside the count. Shortly after the matches he left the club under his own power with his brother and two girls. The recuperative power of these wrestling fellows is remarkable.

Pretty While It Lasts

In spite of the fact that Kudo was hampered by an injured knee, he and Coleman put on one of the prettiest wrestling exhibitions that has ever been offered O. C. A. C. fans. It was not their fault that the script called for an easy out.

In the semi-windup, a one-fall, 30-minute time-limit chore, George Kondelis, the Terrible Greek, won in 11:42 with a flying tackle and body press. The match went 11 minutes too long.

Billy Hanson won a dramatic decision over "Baron" Ginsberg in 17:05 when Referee Dick Ruthera foul. Ginsberg had knckled his afoul. Ginsberg had knuckled his way about the ring, gouged Hanson in the eyes and otherwise maltreated the heroic Hanson until the fans demanded action.

Just before the verdict, Ginsberg and the "Baron" staged a pretty bit of by-play. Hanson clamped a body scissors on the "baron" and started plucking hairs from his beard. The "Baron" did not like it at all but who cared? The boys regained their feet with Hanson again plucking at Ginsberg's hair. This time he took handfuls of the "baron's" back covering. Ginsberg leaped to his feet, pounded his chest and bellowed, like a real ape, and Hanson mocked him.

Referee, Wrestler Collapse

The foul was awarded when Ginsberg gouged Hanson's eyes, rubbed them with his taped hand. After getting the decision Hanson crawled about the ring, with his eyes closed and arms outstretched until he clasped Referee Dick Rutherford about the knees and both members of the cast sunk gracefully to the floor while an angel band played "Hearts Bowed Down."

Dr. Fred Meyer and Pat O'Shocker wrestled 20 minutes to a draw over the knuckle and thumb route.

Among the minor accidents of the evening Floyd Hanson defeated "Wild Bill" Grubbs in 16:04 with an airplane spin and body press. The boys in press row never did care a whole lot for Mr. Grubb and they liked him even less after he had dropped in on them, informally, several times. The boys felt that the last few visits were not on the up-and-up.

Confidentially Speaking

FOOTE NAMES STARTERS FOR HILLER GAME

Tuning up for their first conference games—the Dons at Citrus Friday night and the Saints at San Diego Saturday afternoon—Santa Ana's jaysee and high school football teams tangled in a practice scrimmage at the Municipal Bowl today.

The Saints also have a workout listed tomorrow at Tustin.

Several changes in the junior college lineup were made when Coach Bill Cook's squad resumed training Monday. Cook had Fred Erdhaus and Erwin Youel at end, Ray Devine and Russell Roquet at tackle, Joe Crawford and Carl Benson at guard, Bill Greschner at quarter, Carl Lehnhardt and Al Lamb at half, and John Lehnhardt at fullback.

Cook said he wasn't worried about the mental attitude of his veterans toward the Citrus contest, but was concerned with some of the freshmen. The veterans, whose defeat by Citrus last year cost them the Eastern conference title, should be in the proper frame of mind Friday despite their impressive victories over Long Beach and Glendale which might inspire overconfidence.

Cook and several of his players personally scouted Citrus against the U. S. C. Spartans last Saturday and their report throws a different light than the score on the Spartans' 17-7 triumph. Citrus had a 7-0 lead at the half and showed great defensive strength until the heavier Trojans wore them out. Several Spartans, notably King Hall and "Bud" Langley, were first stringers at S. C. last season.

KADOWAKI STARTS AS SAINT QUARTER

Coach Bill Foote today tentatively picked 7 of the 11 Santa Ana high school football players who'll start against San Diego in the San Diego stadium.

Joe Kadowski, Foote said, will be the quarterback. The Japanese lad's blocking gives him the edge over Harold Tucker.

There is a good chance that changes will be made at left tackle and guard. Dissatisfied with "Big Bill" Milligan's defensive play, Foote threatens to start the 165-pound Vernon Carney at tackle. Bob Maddock has won back his job at guard but Lyle Moyer still has a battle on his hands to start instead of Dick Horton and Monte Klepper.

Ferris Wall will be at right tackle if his sprained ankle permits. Otherwise, Mark Stewart will get the assignment.

Foote is definitely set on his backfield, with Kadowski at quarter, Capt. Dwight Nott at right half, Len Stafford at left half and Billie Musick at full. Mittsuo Nitta and Larry Stump will man the end positions, and Don Warhurst is a sinch at center.

The other places will be determined by scrimmages today and tomorrow.

Trojan Troupe Off For Illinois Game

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 6.—(UP) — The University of Southern California football squad, composed of 38 players, leaves tonight for Champaign, Ill., where the Trojans will meet the University of Illinois Saturday.

The team will stop off at El Paso and Dallas, Tex., Wednesday and Thursday for workouts en route and will arrive in Champaign in time to go through limbering up sessions Friday afternoon.

Although Ambrose Schindler, star sophomore quarterback, may not be able to play Saturday because of a bruised muscle, he was one of the players selected to make the trip. Two other injured players, Owen Hansen and Joe Wilensky, both first string running guards, also are included.

NAME HANNAH L. A. MANAGER

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 6.—(UP)—Harry (Truck) Hannah, veteran catcher and coach of the Los Angeles baseball club, last night was appointed manager of the team, succeeding Jack Lelivelt who resigned recently.

Truck Hannah

Hannah's elevation to the managerial post was announced by Oscar Reichow, business manager of the club. He said that Hannah was given the job because of his success in handling the Angels during the regular manager's absence in the past.

The new manager has been with the Los Angeles team for 11 years and until a year ago took his regular turn behind the plate. Reichow said that Hannah would attend minor and major league meetings during the winter to pick up new players.

Oilers Out For 'Kill' At San Bernardino

Still battling behind extreme odds, San Bernardino's Stubbys bid for their second Southern California play-off victory against Huntington Beach at San Bernardino tonight.

Almost certain to become another four-straight victim of the mighty Oilers, San Bernardino pulled the unexpected last Thursday by winning the fourth game of the series, 3-2.

It left Huntington Beach still on the business end of a 3-1 series count, but also gave the Stubby's a gleam of hope.

Venn Botts, manager of the club will be in the pitching slot, with Jimmy Norton doing the catching.

To Botts goes the principal credit for the Stubby's only triumph. Firing his fast ball with all the steam and stuff that has made him one of nightball's greatest pitchers Botts gave up but five hits to the Oilers.

Back on his home diamond with a four-day rest, Botts must still be considered a good bet to stop the Oilers.

Louie Neva will be back on the mound for Huntington Beach as the Oilers are anxious to complete the series and leave on belated vacations.

CONTEST WITH U. S. C. OCT. 24 IS JEOPARDIZED

SEATTLE, Oct. 6.—(UP)—Bobby Morris, referee of the Washington State-Stanford football game Saturday, said today he had made a full report to Herb Dana, of Oakland, Pacific Coast commissioner at Dana's request for information on the disputed game.

Morris said Dana would decide whether to make the report public. "I intend to go to Palo Alto as scheduled to referee the Stanford-U. S. C. game Oct. 24," Morris said.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Oct. 6.—(UP) — A Stanford football players' "strike" in protest against Referee Bobby Morris of Seattle was nipped today when Graduate Manager Al R. Masters ruled that the team must fulfill its schedule regardless of officials chosen to handle the Indians' games.

Spokesmen for the squad announced earlier they would refuse to play in any game in which Morris officiated. Morris refereed the Washington State-Stanford game at Pullman Saturday. Morris also has been designated as referee of the Stanford-University of Southern California game at Palo Alto Oct. 24.

Stanford players charged Morris "tutored" Washington State's quarterback, Ed Goddard, in the huddles, and made a misruling of "no touchdown" when Jake Brigham, fullback, plunged through the line from the two-yard marker.

The Stanford gridmen, who lost, 14-13, asserted Brigham's body was more than half way into the end zone and that a touchdown, which would have won the game for the Indians, should have been allowed.

"The players may feel strongly against Morris, but the notion of a 'strike' is ridiculous," Masters said.

However, official cognizance of the players' protest was taken by the university. After conferring with Masters, President Ray Lyman Wilbur requested the graduate manager to lodge a complaint with Pacific Coast Conference Commissioner, Herb Dana.

Coach "Tiny" Thornhill, meanwhile, indicated he had given his full support to the team in its protest.

"I'll tell the commissioner's office all they want to know if they ask me," said Thornhill. "I'm ready to go the limit on this thing."

Dana said he would do nothing about the matter until he had received a full report of the protests and charges against Morris.

S. F. NEWSPAPER DEMANDS DANA INVESTIGATION

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 6.—(UP)—The San Francisco Daily News today demanded that Herb Dana, czar of Pacific Coast conference football, investigate the conduct of four officials at Saturday's game between Stanford and Washington State college.

The four officials are Bobby Morris, Stan Riddle, Hugh McKenna and Perry Mitchell.

'Bud" Spencer, writing of Stanford's 13-14 deefat at the hands of W. S. C., today listed the following five points which he demanded be investigated:

1. Since when has Morris, the referee, the jurisdiction to coach Ed Goddard of the W. S. C. team? Yet he continuously did throughout the game.

2. "Babe" Hollingbery, Cougar coach and the hop-along-the-sidelines genius of football, continued to pace up and down the chalk lines throughout the third and fourth periods when the Indians were routing the Cougars with a dramatic offensive drive. The pacing wasn't any more than poor Emily Post but all those yells and signs he was giving weren't exactly within the rules of the game. The entire Stanford team complained but the home coach was not penalized.

3. The Cougars employed a shift that did not come to a full second stop, particularly in the backfield where the men have longer to travel. The shift was timed by several of the scouts and all agreed it was illegal. Coach "Tiny" Thornhill of the Indians had instructed Morris before the game to watch it and the players complained time and again yet several times the officials instructed the complainers to go about their own business or they would draw a penalty.

4. Several of the decisions were so raw that scouts and coaches were heard to remark: "How can they get a penalty on that one?"

5. Morris once had a run-in with "Pop" Warner and is reported to have remarked in effect, "if I ever get a chance to sock Stanford I'll do it good and plenty."

Huskies Entrain For Tussle With U.C.L.A. Bruins

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 6.—(UP) — University of Washington's Huskies left today for Los Angeles where they will meet U. C. L. A. in their first game away from home Saturday.

VAUGHAN OFF ON HUNTING TRIP AFTER DAY IN FULLERTON; 'HOMECOMING' LATER

BY JOHN NEUBAUER

Although rumor has it that Floyd Vaughan will don a New York Yankee uniform next spring, "Arky" hasn't the slightest conception of any such events. In fact, his father, Robert Vaughan, even laughed at the idea.

Arky arrived at Fullerton following a successful season with the Pittsburgh Pirates and after spending a day with his parents and family packed his shooting irons yesterday and headed for the tall timber this morning.

Besides his father and younger brother, Glenn (Little Arky) and his new brother-in-law, Herman Booie, several baseball players will join the expedition to Modock county.

Although an elaborate homecoming was planned for the Fullerton diamond star, it had to be postponed to accommodate his annual hunting trip.

Vaughan isn't talkative. He is one of the hardest celebrities to interview. Modest, almost bashful, he never talks about himself.

Vaughan holds the unique distinction of being in the public limelight without tooting his horn. He never did and probably never will. He just smiles and his answers are all yes or no.

In fact Vaughan's name isn't even in the telephone book any longer. But he has a phone, which is generally answered by his charming wife.

Twice yesterday I called his home, having secured his number from his father. Twice his wife answered. Then we called his father's residence. "Arky" had just gone home.

"How is Floyd, Mr. Vaughan?" we asked.

"He's just fine. He's really looking great," his father answered.

Vaughan stated that Floyd had gained weight during the heat of the season and now weighs nearly 190. His weight is deceptive, however, and one would never guess that he was that heavy.

When we finally connected with Floyd and asked him about the rumor that was being circulated in New York relative to his changing monkey suits, he showed interest and asked:

"Where did you get that?"

"Why it was in a press report. Is there anything to it?"

"I don't know; I hardly think so."

Naturally, Vaughan is out to forget baseball for the time being. Last spring he said he wasn't too anxious to start the 1936 campaign as it interfered somewhat with his golfing activities.

Vaughan plans to take up his putter and niblick where he left off and probably will be a regular figure on the Hacienda golf course greens this winter in company of Art Roux, popular professional under whose guidance the baseball star learned the finer points of the game. Although a left-hand hitter on the diamond, Vaughan swings his golf sticks from the right side.

But even worse than their stories (and that's saying a lot) are the pictures which have accompanied them. After the first game (which saw Hubbell lick the Yankees) the illustration of their stories showed Hubbell, grinning like a drunk Cheshire cat, at his typewriter, with Gehrig, grinning like another drunken Cheshire cat, watching him peck out the yarn of the Yankees' defeat.

Now, I ask you, how do you expect the baseball fans of the nation to consider the world series a bitter fight between two bitter rivals when the two stars of the opposing clubs are pictured as dear old chums, who are closer together than Damon and Pythias? Wouldn't it have been better to have had Gehrig at least wear a frown? His team lost the game and he didn't get a hit, but there he sat with an expression on his face which seemed to say:

"Good 'ol Hub! What a swell game you pitched, kid. Congratulations. And I bet we don't get a hit off you the next time out."

Then, after the fourth game, when Hubbell was knocked out there was another illustration of their literary masterpieces which showed Carl in just as happy spirits as he was after the game he won. It looked like a scene from the Rover boys, with carefree Dick telling fun-loving Tom what a swell fellow he was.

I say what the hell! Maybe they don't care which team wins, but for the sake of the public which, heavens knows, has few enough illusions left, they might make an effort to appear slightly dispirited when they lose. And not pose with their arms around each other. Maybe you gentlemen think the baseball customers are suckers, and maybe they are, but they aren't going to stay suckers forever. It's a long sucker, you know, who has no turning. Let your stars keep up the sort of thing Hubbell and Gehrig have been doing this series, and some day the suckers are going to figure the autumnal classic, as the boys call it, doesn't mean so much.

And then they won't be suckers anymore, and there won't be 64,000 people out there for a series game.

It seems to me that if the customers are willing to picture the world series as a red hot, no-holds-barred, battle between two teams which hate one another, the ball players might at least agree to act if same were true.

GOODIN, HUSTON OF OREGON BADLY HURT

EUGENE, Ore., Oct. 6.—(UP)—"Bud" Goodin, University of Oregon's ace fullback, will be out of the lineup for the remainder of the season with leg injuries suffered in the U. S. C. game last Saturday, team physicians said today. Doctors also said it was doubtful if Joe Huston, veteran left guard who also received leg injuries, would be able to play again this year.

VALDEZ IN OLYMPIC MAIN SPOT TONIGHT

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 6—(UP)—"Sonny" Valdez of Tucson tonight substitutes for Henry Armstrong of Los Angeles in a main event bout at the Olympic auditorium against Frankie Costello of Los Angeles.

BOWLING SCORES

Careful Laundry

	1st	2nd	3rd	Tot.
C. Johnson	195	178	183	556
E. Conner	165	155	205	525
C. Walker	163	161	147	471
H. Christman	217	189	166	572
J. Mettram	222	142	207	571
Totals	962	825	908	2695

Santa Ana All-Stars

	1st	2nd	3rd	Tot.
B. Stassin	140	191	158	489
T. Baessler	156	203	166	525
P. Kelley	155	174	167	496
T. Allan	169	200	146	515
H. Gasper	181	187	175	545
Totals	807	957	812	2576

RAP BASEBALL FRATERNIZING

Hubbell, Gehrig 'Ghost' Stories Disillusion Fans

BY HENRY McLEMORE

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—This is the nature of an open letter to the Messrs. Ford Frick and Will Harridge, and I don't know why I write it because rope-climbing is my game and I don't care if baseball rolls over in its own blood and dies.

But I'm going to write it anyway, and this is what I would like to ask the presidents of the National and American leagues:

Why, in the name of brown-eyed Susan Brown, do you gentlemen allow members of the competing world series teams to go through the journalistic didoes that certain Giants and Yankees are going through now?

I refer particularly to Carl Hubbell and Lou Gehrig.

Before the series started these men, the standouts of the opposing clubs, sold their "by-lines" to a newspaper and were assigned "ghost-writers." With the swing of the first bat in the opening game the "ghost-writers" went to work, and magnificent is the dribble which has appeared beneath the signatures of Carl and Lou.

CANZONERI IS 'WASHED UP'

BY HENRY SUPER

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—The fistic career of Tony Canzoneri, one of the grandest fighting men the ring ever has known, was at an end today.

Last night in Madison Square Garden, the little bull-shouldered Italian, who started fighting in New Orleans 12 years ago, was battered to a pulp by Jimmy McLarnin, the baby-faced assassin from Vancouver, in a ten-round battle that marked the passing of a man who has ruled three boxing divisions.

Tony's ring obituary was written a month ago when he lost the lightweight title to young Lou Ambers. But always he has come back to confound his critics.

Last night it was different—only Tony didn't realize it. He sat on a stool in his dressing room, blood pouring from four gaping cuts on his face, and insisted he was not through.

A gamester to the end, Tony stood up under the battering. He had been dropped for the count of two in the second round. By the end of the fifth round Canzoneri was bleeding from four places on his bruised face.

The crowd of 11,423 was sickened by the sight of Canzoneri. Many winced when McLarnin hammered home his left. They yelled for Referee Billy Cavanagh to halt the bout.

But Canzoneri never had been knocked out before and Cavanagh realized it would be an inglorious way to end such a career. He let the fight continue and Canzoneri wound up his career by going the route.

WOMEN GOLFERS TO OPEN SEASON FRIDAY

Playing in an entirely new division—the Metropolitan division—Santa Ana Country club's women's golf team embarked on its 1936-37 league season Friday.

Pursuing the same schedule that the men followed last year, the Santa Anans open against the Lakeside club on the neutral course at Flintridge.

Mrs. Harry Bakre and Miss Lolita Mead, club champion, are to play the No. 1 spot, with Mrs. Paul Hall and Mrs. Jack Colburn at No. 2, and Mrs. R. W. Weston and Mrs. C. V. Doty at No. 3. Mrs. J. L. McFadden will not be available to the lineup until next week.

Other clubs in the new eight-team Metropolitan division are Hollywood, Wilshire, San Gabriel, Mountain Meadow, Oakmont and Flintridge.

F. E. Farnsworth and Dick Ewert rang up 36 points for first place in last week-end's point tournament for men at the Santa Ana club. B. J. MacMullen and L. W. Bemis made 33, Ben Manker and Fay Hochstrasser 32.

The mixed foursomes, with selective drives, went to R. W. Weston and Mrs. Colburn who posted an 85-13-72. Other winners: Mrs. Paul Hall and C. V. Doty, 91-18-73; Hall and Mrs. Doty, 88-15-73.

SPUNKY GIANTS REFUSE TO QUIT

By GEORGE KIRKSEY

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—The Giants won't quit. The Yanks have to beat them!

That's the way the world series stood today as the teams moved into the sixth game at the Polo Grounds. The Yanks were still in the driver's seat, three games to two, but no nearer the world's championship than they were 24 hours ago.

Beaten, battered, belittled, the Giants still barred the door to baseball's throne. They are clinging on—from pitch to pitch, from play to play, from inning to inning.

Old Story With Giants

It's an old story for the Giants—fighting with their back to the wall. A sunrise ago the Giants were being counted out of the world series from all sides—the gamblers, the scribes, the technical baseball men. The Yanks were cinches. The Giants were game—that was all.

How far can they go in gameness?

Destiny watched over the Giants yesterday as they emerged triumphant in a dramatic 10-inning battle, 5-4. The Yanks deserved the game on play, but lost.

Today will tell. For if fat Freddy Fitzsimmons, the Arcadia, Cal. chicken fancier, can come back with two days' rest and beat the Yanks, the world series will be all even—three games to three. And "King" Carl Hubbell will mount the mound for the deciding game tomorrow. The Yanks will use Vernon (Goofy) Gomez against fat Freddy, today.

Schumacher Courageous

Yesterday Hal Schumacher, shelled into retreat by the Yanks' big guns in the second game, came back to conquer them in a nerve-tingling struggle. For courageous pitching under fire, Schumacher wins baseball's biggest decoration.

He pitched his way out of holes as deep as the Grand Canyon, never tottering or trembling—not even when the bases were filled and Joe DiMaggio, Lou Gehrig and Bill Dickey were up in succession. He mowed down DiMaggio and Gehrig on strikes, retired Dickey on a feeble outfield fly. At the end, he gasped between puffs off a cigaret in the dressing room and asked:

"How did I do it?"

That question is as unanswerable as two other vital queries:

How did the Giants win the pennant?

What's keeping the Giants in the battle for the world's championship?

SAINT 'BEES' LOSE BATES FOR SEASON

Fleet little Byram Bates, blond left halfback, is lost to Santa Ana high school's Class B football team for the rest of the season. He was the key man of the attack.

A cartilage in his knee was torn in last week's game with Anaheim and Bates is still on crutches. He has turned in his suit.

Coach Joe Koegler has shifted Quarterback Richard Stein to left half and moved Wayne Piper to fullback. Cooper, a sub guard, is handling Stein's old spot at quarterback. The Class B team's next game will be with Garden Grove here Thursday at 3 p. m.

BEAVER BACKFIELD PLAYERS GET REST

CORVALLIS, Ore., Oct. 6.—(UP)—Coach Lon Stiner drilled his bruised Oregon State college team lightly today in preparation for the University of California encounter Saturday at Portland. Several of Stiner's regular backfield men were injured slightly in the Willamette game last Saturday.

The Register's FOOTBALL CONTEST

(Enter as many ballots as desired; it's free. Mark where designated with X or write TIE if you think that will be the result. Ballots must be mailed or delivered to Sports Editor, The Register, before Friday.)

1	Santa Ana J. C.		Citrus J. C.
2	Santa Ana H. S.		San Diego H. S.
3	Tustin		Orange
4	U. S. C.		Illinois
5	U. C. L. A.		Washington
6	California		Oregon State
7	Stanford		Oregon
8	Loyola		St. Mary's
9	Whittier		Fresno State
10	Santa Clara		San Francisco U.
11	Tennessee		Auburn
12	Army		Columbia
13	Fordham		Southern Methodist
14	Nebraska		Minnesota
15	Temple		Boston College
16	Pittsburgh		Ohio State
17	Wisconsin		Purdue
18	Michigan		Indiana
19	Louisiana State		Georgia
20	Kentucky		Georgia Tec'
21	Centenary		Tulane
22	Dartmouth		Holy Cross
23	Yale		Pennsylvania
24	Texas		Oklahoma
25	Kansas		Iowa State

(Name) .....

(Address) .....

(City) .....

SCOTT
Refrigeration Service
509 North Bristol Street
We Service Any Make of Electric Refrigerator
TELEPHONE 5560
REPAIRS PARTS

Everybody Is Going!

Fun Festival

and

Style Show

Sponsored by Home Owned Business Association

Ebell Club

Thursday and Friday

October 8th and 9th

Admission 25c

On Sale at All Home-Owned Stores

A Real Fanchon & Marco Stage Review and Vaudeville

A Show that is a Show!

Style Show

Living Models on the Stage!
Directed by Fanchon & Marco for the
Home Owned Merchants of Santa Ana

Two Evenings of Fun and Frolic for Young and Old!

The Biggest Show that Santa Ana has seen in years

FREE GIFTS! 25 Free Gifts

Given Away Every Evening
$100 Value — Total $200

Grand Prize $75 Last Evening

This Advertisement Paid for by the Merchants and Business Men Listed Below

NEAL'S SPORTING GOODS
HUNTING AND FISHING SUPPLIES — PETS
209 EAST FOURTH ST. PHONE 830

RONSHOLDT'S
WOMEN'S AND MISSES' APPAREL
205 NORTH BROADWAY · SANTORA BLDG. PH. 316

A. G. FLAGG
PRINTING — BOOK-BINDING
114 NORTH BROADWAY PHONE 117

DR. A. REED'S SHOES
R. A. BRADFORD
318 NORTH SYCAMORE ST. PHONE 5476

PAGENKOPP'S SUPER-SERVICE
KELLY-SPRINGFIELD TIRES — GAS, OIL, BATTERIES
120 SOUTH MAIN ST. PHONE 3964

HERBERT L. MILLER, INC.
DIAMOND TIRES — WILLARD BATTERIES
209 BUSH ST. PHONE 1906

SEBASTIAN'S
BROWN-BILT SHOE STORE
108 EAST FOURTH ST. PHONE 3858-W

BETTY ROSE SHOP
CHILDREN'S WEAR FROM BIRTH TO 12 YEARS
215 NORTH BROADWAY PHONE 2063

WILSON & HILL
GENERAL ELECTRIC KITCHEN SPECIALISTS
THIRD AND BROADWAY PHONE 4926

BAKER'S BAKERY
WE SPECIALIZE IN PARTY ORDERS
214 WEST FOURTH ST. PHONE 525

VANDERMAST
MEN'S AND BOYS' WEAR
FOURTH AND BROADWAY PHONE 244

WM. C. LORENZ
JEWELER
106 EAST FOURTH ST. PHONE 43

KNOX & STOUT HARDWARE CO.
WESTINGHOUSE REFRIGERATORS AND RANGES
420 EAST FOURTH ST. PHONE 130

STEIN'S "OF COURSE"
STATIONERY—OFFICE SUPPLIES—KODAKS
307 WEST FOURTH ST. PHONE 1111

SCHILLING'S
SHOES AND HOSIERY
112 EAST FOURTH ST. PHONE 959

WIESSEMAN'S
CHINA — GLASS — SILVER — TOYS — HOUSEWARES
MAIN AND FIFTH STS. PHONE 902

HOMART'S
GIFTS — CRYSTAL — DINNERWARE
211 NORTH BROADWAY SANTORA BLDG., PH. 1006

HOCKADAY & PHILLIPS, INC.
AUTOMOTIVE PARTS — COMPLETE MACHINE SHOP
201 SPURGEON ST. PHONE 4554

POLLYANA
WOMEN'S APPAREL AND MILLINERY
203 WEST FOURTH ST. PHONE 4522

DENNIS PRINTERS
QUALITY PRINTING — MODERATE PRICES
111 EAST FIRST ST. PHONE 5050

BRUCE MONROE
DRUGS — SUNDRIES
1030 SOUTH MAIN PHONE 5220

RANKIN'S
FOURTH AND SYCAMORE

M'COY DRUG
FOURTH AND BROADWAY 108 WEST FOURTH ST.

SOL GONZALES
LADIES' AND MEN'S READY-TO-WEAR
306 EAST FOURTH ST.

URBINE'S
E. R. URBINE, PROP.
THE HOME OF CUDAHY'S QUALITY MEATS
SYCAMORE ENTRANCE GRAND CENTRAL MARKET

M'FADDEN-DALE HARDWARE CO.
422 WEST FOURTH ST.

HENRY'S CYCLE SHOP
BICYCLES — WHEEL GOODS REPAIRED — KEYS MADE
427 WEST FOURTH ST.

RICE'S FOOT COMFORT SHOP
ARCHLOCK AND ARCH-RELIEF SHOES
409 WEST FOURTH ST. SANTA ANA

PLATT AUTO SERVICE
STEWART-WARNER AND PACKARD-BELL RADIOS
THIRD AND BUSH PHONE 2340

MARIE GRADY BEAUTY SALON
ALL LINES OF BEAUTY CULTURE
FIRST NATIONAL BANK ROOM 605 PHONE 4660

DICKEY FURNITURE CO.
"HOME OF BETTER FURNITURE"
FOURTH ST. AT SPURGEON

MATTINGLY'S
APPAREL SHOP
220 WEST FOURTH ST.

ALMQUIST'S
WOMEN'S, GIRLS' CHILDREN'S READY-TO-WEAR
105 WEST FOURTH ST.

BOUQUET SHOP
FLOWERS
409 NORTH BROADWAY

ELECTRIC APPLIANCE CO.
JOHN W. JESSEE
227 BROADWAY

OLD COLONIAL CANDIES
MILDRED VAN WINKLE
404 NORTH MAIN ST. PHONE 5420

HUGH J. LOWE
MEN'S WEAR — BOYS' WEAR
109 WEST FOURTH ST.

R. H. EWERT
JEWELER
113 WEST FOURTH ST.

MADDEN'S PHARMACY
314 NORTH SYCAMORE

MARONEY'S
GAFFERS & SATTLER RANGES
302 NORTH SYCAMORE

HART'S
DRY GOODS
306 NORTH SYCAMORE

SCOULLER'S
PERSONAL COSTUMING
312 NORTH SYCAMORE

DIETLER PAINT CO.
PAINTS, WALLPAPER, VARNISH
502 NORTH BROADWAY

CHEST DRIVE TO BE TOPIC OF DISCUSSION

The mid-week meeting at the Unitarian church will come to grips Wednesday with the problem of "Why A Community Chest?" For a month the discussion circle which assembles there to discuss the welfare of the county has been hearing a survey of the County Welfare Department's work, with the indigent, the aged, the blind and the crippled, led by speakers from the department, itself. "During the past week the town has been placarded with appeals for a community charitable drive. In addition to this official work, supported by county taxes. Are both necessary? If poverty, delinquency, and illness are community responsibilities, shouldn't the Chest agencies be supported by taxation?" some critics are asking.

What these agencies are, something of their history and organization, and their right to the support of Santa Ana citizens will be presented by Robert Speed, a well-known speaker and writer, whose long residence in the city gives him close acquaintance with all sorts and conditions of local needs, and the benefits derived from such organizations as the "Ys", "The Scouts" and the "Salvation Army."

Mr. Speed is well known as a writer of distinction. He has been a newspaper man for much of his life, working on The Blad and The Register in Santa Ana, serving as city editor on the Tulare Register and in Fresno. He owned his own paper in South San Francisco and upon returning to this, the city of his youth, he ran a printing and publishing business. During the Caranza revolution in Mexico he traveled extensively in the war-stricken country and has written a number of successful stories about this experience.

ARROW LAUNDRY TO ENLARGE QUARTERS

Due to increasing business, Arrow Laundry and Linen Supply, 620 East Sixth street, Santa Ana, has now under construction improvement that will make it the most modern laundr in Orange county, according to Ralph Hillman, proprietor.

"A ten-year lease has been taken on adjoining property and main building will be enlarged, which will double present floor space. A new 60-horse power boiler is now being constructed, two 5,250 gallon tanks on towers of structural steel will be erected, also a new 6-roll flat work ironer, large 84-inch wash wheel, two latest type extractors and other equipment will be added.

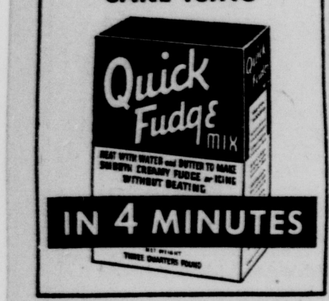

"This is in addition to present machinery and will allow laundry to double its capacity, do better work and still be able to render 48-hour laundry service which has had much to do with its increase in business since I took control of this plant a few months ago," Hillman said.

Grade Mothers of School Appointed

OCEANVIEW, Oct. 6.—Plans for the year were made by grade mothers of Oceanview school at a recent meeting with Mrs. P. H. Marshall, P.-T. A. president, presiding.

The grade mothers appointed for the year are Mrs. G. H. Gaston, chairman; Mrs. V. C. Heil and Mrs. John Murdy, eighth grade; Mrs. Ray McCormick, Mrs. Ted Case and Mrs. Clinton Brush, seventh grade; Mrs. D. E. Wood and Mrs. Jessie Cline, sixth grade; Mrs. H. Pamplin and Mrs. E. P. Mitchell, fifth grade; Mrs. George Harding and Mrs. George Reinhart, fourth grade; Mrs. Frank Swartz, third grade; Mrs. Rowley and Mrs. G. H. Gaston, second grade; Mrs. Martin Murray and Mrs. Raymond Beem, first grade; Mrs. Golden Brown and Mrs. Ray Lacy, kindergartetn.

QUICK, DELICIOUS CAKE ICING

Closeup and Comedy

by ERSKINE JOHNSON—GEORGE SCARBO

PLAYS SANDLOT BASEBALL WITH CRONIES.

REPORTED ENGAGED FIVE TIMES IN LAST FEW MONTHS.

HARBORS TURTLES AS PETS.

JAMES BLAKELEY

HEIGHT, 6 FEET; WEIGHT, 156 POUNDS. BROWN HAIR. BLUE EYES. BORN, LONDON, ENGLAND, FEB. 18, 1909. REAL NAME, JAMES WILLIAM BLAKELEY. MATRIMONIAL SCORE: ONE O.

Jimmy Fidler in HOLLYWOOD

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 5.—Extras who resemble stars too greatly are a studio headache. Wise extras do their utmost to look as unlike stars are possible, because resemblance invariably costs them money. When an important close-up of an actress is beisg filmed nearby presence of a Garbo-like creature or a face with a Joan Crawford mouth may distract audience attention. Such distratcion, even though brief, may easily interrupt the scene's thought.

Joan Blondell (so cameramen tell me) has more doubles" than any other star. Hollywood is overrun with blondes, and Joan, typically American, is easy to imitate. Countless good scenes have been left on cutting-room floors because they revealed "too many Blondells."

Assistant directors guard constantly against obviously imitative makeups. Extras who seek to look like well-known stars are curtly ordered to "wipe it off" or "leave the set." These look-alikes are invariably relegated to background work, where they become indistinct blurs on theater screens. Sadly enough, they never seem to learn. I know several who, after years of advice to "be different," continue to exaggerate their slight resemblances to stars.

Something I just learned: Dress designers' big task is not the planning of new styles. (This item will make husbands groan). Their great problem is to design new gowns that cannot be copied or made over from old ones. I dare not reveal the name of the studio designer who tipped this secret; he would like be assassinated by irate husbands or even by members of his craft.

On a Kay Francis set yesterday, she was being filmed descending a stairway wearing a flowing gown with a sweeping bridal veil. Half way down the director cried, "Cut! Let's start it again." Kay smiled and said, "All right, Ida, back me up." She meant, Ida was to lift the train and proceed up the stairs. Funny by the way, how familiar become the names of stars' maids. Say Ida to anybody in Hollywood and first thought is of Kay's employee. Rose to Hollywood, could mean only the Dick Arlen cook. Beulah, Mae West's maid. And "Brownie," Jean Harlow's companion.

Hugh Herbert tells me of a shock received when he idly perused a script the other day. One line describing a story character specified: "This part calls for a man with a face like a hot water-bottle, flat-faced — a Hugh Herbert type."

Few better sports in Hollywood than Nelson Eddy. With half hour off-set the other day, he hurried to a tiny restaurant for a sandwich. The restaurant owner, it happened, had not been having too much luck. While Nelson was munching a sandwich, the owner came to his booth and imparted the news that some twenty autographers were out front and wanted his signature. "It's a good ad for me," he said, then added ruefully, "but maybe you'd better go out the back way." Instead Eddy used the front exit and signed the autographs. This morning I stopped in that tiny cafe for coffee. The manager was all smiles. Business, he said, is rushing; word has passed around that the stars dine there.

VACUUM CLEANERS REPAIRED
Fix-it Shop, 105 E. 3rd. Adv.

ST. ANNE'S TO HOLD BARBECUE NEXT SUNDAY

Plans were completed last night for St. Anne's barbecue and Fall Carnival to be held next Sunday on Fairview Road near Harbor boulevard. Names of various committees were made by the Rev. Thomas Butler, who will act as chairman of the carnival.

The committees include: Antone Borchard, chairman, of the executive committee assisted by Mrs. Tony Oosterkamp and Herbert Huleskamp; the general committee includes, Joe Bettencourt, Tony Barrios, J. Ogden Markel, Charles Webb, Leslie B. Harrison, Erhard Hagerman, Joe DeSutta, John Maring, Pete Textra, Pete Halman, Ray Whitten, Chas. Rockwell, Roy Flanagan, Riley Huber, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Carnes, Mr. and Mrs. R. Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Wilkins, Mrs. Harry Edwards, Mrs. Colombini, Mrs. Della Treve. Mrs. F. Sheelar, Mrs. Margaret Schuster, Mrs. Langenbeck, Mrs. Jordan, Mrs. Gus Callens, Misses Nellie and Rose Colombini, Helen Oosterkamp.

There will be games of all kinds, a fish pond for the children, entertainment and music and the awarding of many valuable cash prizes. The barbecue dinner will be served commencing at 12 o'clock noon. This will be in charge of Tony Barrios and Ray Whitten. Signs will be posted along the roads leading to the grounds.

Bald eagles mate in the fall.

G. O. P. LEADERS OF 3 COUNTIES BACK COLLINS

Following a meeting of 60 leading Republicans of Orange, San Bernardino and Riverside counties at Mission Inn, Riverside, last night, a driving finish to Sam Collins' campaign for re-election was underway in the nineteenth congressional district today.

In each county, a campaign committee of 10 was selected to work together under a district coordinator, so that the Republican nominee's time and activties can be handled to the best advantage. In each county, too, an active campaign manager has been chosen. The man selected for the position in Orange county is Leslie Kimmell of Laguna Beach.

"I expect to give nearly all my time to this campaign," Kimmell told those at the session last night. "Campaign dates will be announced immediately. Itineraries will be arranged so that Collins will meet voters in every community in this large district."

The meeting at Riverside last night was brought about at the suggestion of Arthur M. Free, San Jose, former congressman and at present California representative of the National Congressional campaign committee. This particular committee is charged with the duty of sending as many Republicans to Washington as possible, so that Landon, if elected, will have a Republican congress in back of him.

"Collins," said Grant Holcomb, former mayor of San Bernardino, chairman of the Riverside meeting, "will be the ranking congressman south of San Francisco, and it is therefore extremely important that California be given the benefit of the strong position in priority that he will have. We in San Bernardino county are thoroughly satisfied with the services he has rendered the district."

PLAN AID LUNCHEON

WINTERSBURG, Oct. 6.—Members of the Ladies' Aid society of Wintersburg will act as hostesses at a pot-luck luncheon Wednesday noon at the local church hall to the Ladies Aid society of Costa Mesa. Numbers of the woman's sextette of the federal music project will be on the program and Mrs. Allen Young, president of the Wintersburg society, will preside at the luncheon.

E. J. KUHNE
FOOTOMETRIST
(registered)
CORRECTIVE FOOT SERVICE
823 N. Broadway Phone 1688

BOULDER DAM SPECIAL

Now You Can SAVE $60 on a Brand-New Westinghouse Range!

4 burner Westinghouse electric range, Dual-Automatic control, all porcelain enamel, large oven, latest design.

$99.50

EASY PAYMENTS

Knox & Stout
420 E. FOURTH PHONE 130 SANTA ANA

Now is a good time to have that TELEPHONE put in!

BACK among old scenes! Why not make Home mean more than ever before? A telephone will do what nothing else can do. It will run countless time-consuming errands for you; it will be the step-saving, money-saving way to reach the shops, stores, markets, sales; it will take you to your friends and bring them to you; it will always stand ready as the quick route to help in an emergency. The young folks know that it will mean more good times. Order this service now! Be able to call your friends and say "We're home!"

An INDIVIDUAL LINE, or that EXTENSION TELEPHONE, or a convenient HAND SET costs but little. May we tell you about them?

Just Call BUSINESS OFFICE 201 EAST FIFTH STREET
SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA TELEPHONE COMPANY
Santa Ana 4600

VOTERS: You Can and Should Kill This Tax

Defeated once, the old Sales Tax on Food is back again in disguise... along with added taxes on other necessities of life

On your November ballot, it masquerades as a "Retail Store License"—Proposition #22.

But brought down to cases, it is a hidden sales tax on food and other necessities. A tax for the consumer to pay in higher prices.

It charges individual stores $1.00 a year for the right to do business. It taxes chain stores $500.00 for each store over nine. But it is you who will really pay.

For, as the U.S. Federal Trade Commission states...

"If the ability to undersell, based on greater efficiency or on elimination of credit and delivery cost, is destroyed by taxation, it is the consuming public which will really pay the tax and not the chain."

Why? Because four out of five chain stores do not make enough profit to cover the tax.

For chain stores operate on a small profit. They eliminate middlemen's profits and unnecessary in-between expenses. The savings they make by operating efficiently are passed on to you in prices 10% below the average. The Harvard (University) School of Business Research states these to be the facts.

Thus chain stores must raise their prices or go out of business. If they raise prices, you will pay the tax.

If they go out of business, their competitors can raise prices even more—and you will pay.

Further, this tax is admittedly not for revenue purposes. It is a subsidy for wasteful business methods—at your expense.

So if you think that chain store competition helps to keep all prices in line with your pocketbook—if you are opposed to higher taxes on foods and other necessities—vote NO and keep prices low.

For no matter what name they give it ...no matter how cleverly they disguise it...22 is a tax on you—VOTE NO!

22 IS A TAX ON YOU—VOTE NO!

22	RETAIL STORE LICENSE Referendum against act of Legislature (Chapter 849, Statutes 1935) requiring every person or organization owning, operating or controlling one or more stores, wherein merchandise is sold at retail, obtain annual State license; prescribing fifty cents application fee for each store and one dollar license fee for one store, increasing license fee progressively for second and additional stores to five hundred dollars for each store over nine; excepts filling stations, ice distributing establishments, restaurant facilities of common carriers, newspaper offices, stores wherein sales are incidental to rendering personal service, theatres and motion picture houses.	YES
		NO	X

CALIFORNIA CONSUMERS CONFERENCE

PENNEY'S Fall CURTAIN and DRAPERY CARNIVAL

THE BIG EVENT STARTS TOMORROW.
Whether or not you are contemplating new curtains or drapes this fall—come to this celebration of our new drapery department on Second Floor. See our window displays. A well planned event worth shouting about. Come.

Jacquard Satin
DRAPERY DAMASK
98c yard

Use this smart rayon warp damask for your best drapes. Lovely two tone Jacquard satin designs in fashionable new colors. 50".

Novelty & Rough Weave
Net PANELS
With Loop Tops
79c

Plain novelty rough weaves, rough weaves with bottom borders, plain block designs and plain centers with floral borders. 44 in. by 80 in.

RAYON DAMASK—New colors. A remarkable quality at this low price, 36 in. wide, yard 19c

GAY AND COLORFUL CRETONNES — Guaranteed to be sun and tub fast, yard ... 19c

MEXICAN CRASHES—Heavy quality! High colors, 50 in. wide, yard 49c

NATURAL COLOR MONK'S CLOTH—50 in. wide, 4-ply, special 37c

MARQUISETTES—A wide choice of smart patterns, yard 15c

NEW PANELS!—Smart! Lasting! They're real values. Shadow weaves with interesting designs. 33½ in. by 2¼ yards 49c

PRISCILLA RUFFLED CURTAINS—Dainty Patterns 79c

PLAIN MARQUISETTE—Novelty self-patterns, the yard 25c

DAMASK DRAPES—Ready-to-hang, lined with cambric and completely finished, with hooks and tie-backs $1.98

FLOUNCED PANELS—Plain white and novelty netting and dots. Various widths, each 98c

NOVELTY NETTING at savings difficult to equal, yard 5c

CRETONNE—Lovely patterns! A low price for this material! Large and small figures, light or dark grounds; 36-inch; yard 15c

CRETONNES—Bright and gay! Make up drapes, spreads and many other things for little money! Light and dark prints; yard 10c

DRAPERY SATEEN—the yard 29c

PENNEY'S
J C PENNEY COMPANY INC
4TH AT BUSH — SANTA ANA

CITY AND COUNTY

Santa Ana Register

PEOPLE'S PAPER FOR ALL ORANGE COUNTY — DAILY EVENING

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING

SECTION TWO — SANTA ANA, CALIFORNIA, TUESDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1936 — PAGES NINE TO SIXTEEN

ORANGE COUNTY MASON WRITES VALUABLE BOOK

"Pioneer Masonry of the Golden State" and other historical sketches by Harry J. Gillingham, well known Orange county Mason, has just been released by the Dennis Printers of Santa Ana and has received most favorable comment from leading Masons of the state.

The book, bound in gilt paper cover is easily read and contains a volume of valuable information for Masons and even those who are not affiliated with the order.

The first chapter contains the definitions of Masonry by George Washington and 24 other distinguished Masons.

The second chapter deals with the origin of Masonry and quotes various authorities who fix the foundation of the order at the time of Creation and carries the trend through the building of King Solomon's temple, the ancient mysteries, the age of Mithra, Rome, the builders' guilds of the middle ages and its introduction into England. The introduction of the Bible into Masonry, three British grand lodges, and the United Grand lodge of England also are discussed in this chapter.

From its introduction into England, Masonic history then is carried to the United States by Daniel Cox in 1729 by the author. Henry Price and Benjamin Franklin also are quoted.

The real value to Masons of California is the data dealing with the first five lodges in California, the homes at Decota and Covina, the first lodge in the West, first lodge on the Pacific coast, Masonry in the Donner Party, Governor Micheltorena, the first lodge and early days in Los Angeles.

The three mother lodges in Orange county and the prominent pioneer Masons of the state come in for their share of attention by the author.

Other interesting historical data deals with the origin of Masonry William Morgan, which almost Wiliam Morgan, which almost sounded the death knell of Masonry in the United States, why women are not Masons and a description of King Solomon's temple.

Mr. Gillingham has received letters of congratulation from such outstanding Masons of the state as John Whisher, grand secretary of California Masons; Leon Whitsell, grand junior warden and J. M. Downen, superintendent of the Masonic homes at Decota and Covina.

S. F. BOATS VISIT NEWPORT HARBOR

NEWPORT BEACH, Oct. 6.—Two well known San Francisco bay yachts, Dr. H. H. Holcomb's "Zita II" and Jack Brunner's "Elsita" made Newport harbor a port of call over the weekend, both of them being on extended cruises, the former to be gone from her home port for two years and the latter to cruise down the coast as far as Panama.

E. L. Cord's "Virginia" and Mrs. Alice Pedder's "Diable" also dropped anchor in the harbor recently.

SWEATERS for FALL

Pull-ons, boat neck, long sleeve, tie belt and draped neck with wooden buckle.

$1.95 to $7.50

THE KNIT SHOP AND MILLINERY
MARGARET BROWN - D. C. PORTER
413 N. MAIN ST.
SANTA ANA, CALIF.

CANTANDO'S GUEST ARTIST

Duci de Kerekjarto, one of the greatest violinists of the age, who has been obtained as guest artist for the Cantando club's first concert at the High school auditorium on Tuesday evening November 17.

SOCIAL SECURITY ACT WILL SUPPLY FULL-TIME JOBS TO SUBSTITUTE POSTAL CLERKS

STEADY JOBS for some of the substitute postal clerks now working part time at the Santa Ana postoffice will be one of the first benefits of the Social Security Act to be felt in Santa Ana, it was learned today.

This is because of the board's decision to use postal facilities for classification of workers and creation of an index upon which a record can be kept of the benefits to which each person in the country is entitled.

For the social security board's work in Santa Ana, as many clerks as necessary will be assigned from the regular postoffice force. The places of these clerks will then be filled by substitutes already on the rolls and having civil service status.

The clerks switched over to work for the board will get the same pay as at present, and will continue to be paid by the postoffice department. The department will be reimbursed for their salaries by the board. However, though a considerable extra burden will fall upon the Santa Ana postmaster and other postmasters at first class offices, they will get no extra compensation at all, officials in Washington said. The salary of a postmaster is fixed by law, and adjusted annually, and "if he worked 24 hours a day, he couldn't earn any more," it was declared at the department.

Undoubtedly some new jobs will be created at the Santa Ana postoffice, between now and the end of the year, as vacancies occur in the substitute rolls due to substitutes moving up to steady jobs. How many new jobs will be created depends largely on the eventual number of persons in Santa Ana found eligible for social security benefits, and cannot now be predicted, officials said.

Couple Honored At Family Dinner

LA HABRA, Oct. 6.—A family dinner Sunday evening complimented Hr. and Mrs. Emery Wallin of Turlock, who have been spending the past two weeks in La Habra visiting Mrs. Willin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Lucid. The dinner party was given by Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Launer, Mrs. Wallin being a cousin of Mrs. Launer, and was a farewell compliment for the couple.

Fall flowers were used in decorating the dining table which was ligted with tall tapers. Mr. and Mrs. Wallin left early Monday morning for their home.

Guests at the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Lothrop and Mrs. C. C. Wall of Los Angeles; Miss Eunice Launer of U.S.C.; Earl Harris of Fullerton, Charles Stephens of Placentia; Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Stephens, Miss Ruthmarie Launer, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Lucid, Miss Katherine Vest and Mrs. Anna C. Launer, all of La Habra.

LOCAL WOMEN VOTERS WILL ATTEND MEET

Plans for Santa Ana League of Women Voters' participation in a state convention scheduled for October 8, 9 and 10 in Santa Monica, and for the local league's next meeting October 15 in this city were outlined today by Mrs. J. D. Campbell.

Mrs. Campbell, who is chairman of government and child welfare for the State League will preside jointly with Mrs. Clark B. Whittier of Stanford university, state chairman of government and economic welfare Friday at a luncheon which will come as a feature of the conclave in Santa Monica. Problems of relief will be the program topic, with speakers to include Stanley Abel of Kern county, a representative of the State Supervisors' association; Rex Thompson of Los Angeles, and other representatives of private and social economic welfare agencies.

Delegates to the conclave, in addition to Mrs. Campbell, will be Mrs. A. J. Knight, Mrs. Carrie Watson, Mrs. Ora K. Heine, Mrs. E. C. Wilson, Miss Dorothy Wentz, Mrs. Golden Norwood Weston and the Rev. Julia Budlong.

For Santa Ana League's next regular meeting October 15, Mrs. Arthur Alyn Jones of Santa Monica, state chairman of government and its operation, will be speaker. She will discuss the November ballot measures during an open meeting which will follow a luncheon for league members and their guests.

At its latest meeting, the executive board of Santa Ana league voted to request Orange County Public Forums to bring Gerald P. Nye to this city as one of the speakers this winter.

New Owner For Capistrano Store

SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO, Oct. 6.—R. F. Schlosser, who hao been affiliated with Romer's store for sometime, has purchased the business of Harry McCurdy. Mr. and Mrs. McCurdy left Capistrano yesterday.

CANTANDO CLUB OPENS SEASON NOVEMBER 17

At its first concert of the 1936-1937 season, to be given in the new Santa Ana high school auditorium on Tuesday evening, November 17, the Cantando club announces it has secured Duci de Kerekjarto as guest artist. Mr. Kerekjarto, while still a young man, is considered one of the great violinists of this era.

Mr. Kerekjarto first showed his musical inclinations at the age of three years, when started studying piano with his mother. At the age of five, without any instruction, he volunteered a tune on a miniature violin. At the age of six, after passing a very difficult musical examination, he took up the study of violin seriously in the Academy of Music of Budapest under Eugene Hubay.

When he was seven years old, after a concert tour of the principal musical centers of Europe, he played before the Queen of Rumania and later in the same year was commanded by her to play at her birthday celebration, at which time he was showered with priceless gifts and decorations.

Mr. Kerekjarto is Hungarian by birth, of noble parentage. In Hungary the name Kerejarto has for centuries been held in high esteem, both in the fields of science and arts.

In June of this year Mr. Kerekjarto appeared before the Philharmonic audience in Los Angeles, receiving a tremendous ovation. He was compelled to give four encores and finally, in order to quiet the tumultous applause, came upon the stage without his violin. Early in 1937 he will return to New York where he will be soloist for one of the great symphony orchestras.

The Cantando club feels Mr. Kerekjarto will make a wonderful impression upon the associate members who hear him. Such memberships may be procured from active members of the club, from Dwight Tock, secretary, 632 North Broadway, or by signing the application appearing in this paper.

INITIATION HELD BY LEGION GROUP

BUENA PARK, Oct. 6.—Get acquainted night was observed at the recent meeting of the American Legion post with visitors from Seal Beach, East Los Angeles and the Buena Park vicinity in attendance for the business session and informal program of the post.

John Miller, C. Parker and Walter Johnson were initiated as new members of the post. Other guests were Roy Moffit and Hans Schmitz, commander and adjutant of the Seal Beach post; Bud Carpenter, Lewis Robinson, also of Seal Beach; Jim Caverty and W. J. Lunbeck, of East Los Angeles, and R. B. Walling, John McLauchlin and Boyd Casey, of Buena Park.

Commander Fred Weiler again issued an invitation to all ex-service men whether members of the Legion or not to attend the meetings of the Buena Park post.

Members of the auxiliary held a brief business session during the post meeting at which tentative plans were made for a Hallowe'en box social on October 30. Mrs. John McLauchlin was a guest of the group.

J. M. Pellerin will be acting commander of the October 16 meeting as Mr. and Mrs. Weiler will leave October 11 for a vacation in New York city.

25TH ANNIVERSARY TO BE CELEBRATED

NEWPORT BEACH, Oct. 6.—Due to the fact that they will be out of the city October 15, the date of their 25th anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Gage will celebrate the occasion with an open house party to be held at their residence, 509 East Central avenue, Balboa, on the evening of October 10. Invitations have been sent to a number of out-of-town guests to join them in celebrating their silver anniversary. Mr. Gage has been a resident of Balboa for the last 27 years.

PRESBYTERIAN MEETING HELD ON WEDNESDAY

The annual meeting of the Orange county Presbyterial will be held in the Anaheim First Presbyterian church Wednesday, with the opening session set for 10 o'clock. The program will be as follows:

Organ prelude, Mrs. Richard Wise, Anaheim; meditation and hymn, led by Mrs. Walter Ross, of Anaheim; greetings and announcements, Mrs. T. A. Altenow, president of Anaheim society; devotional hour, the Rev. Thomas H. Walker, pastor Anaheim church; introduction of local presidents by Mrs. W. J. Sutherland, president of the district; reports by Mrs. H. H. Grotthause, secretary of literature; Mrs. J. J. MacBride, secretary for missionary education; Mrs. A. L. Fullwood, secretary of stewardship; Mrs. H. B. Barnes, secretary for national missions and overseas serving; Mrs. O. C. Wilhelm, treasurer for national missions.

"A Physical Analysis of Our Missionary Twins, Natalie and Fannie," Mrs. E. H. Yoder, treasurer for foreign missions; vocal solo, W. H. Hall, minister of music, First Presbyterian church of Santa Ana; "The Source of Light", address by W. C. Willets, secretary for spiritual life groups; closing prayer, Mrs. R. W. Jones, Orange.

Afternoon session at 1:30 p. m.; organ prelude, Mrs. Wise; meditation and hymn, Mrs. Ross; reports of young people's councillors, Mrs. L. R. Mitchell, Mrs. Charles F. Marshall; dramatization, "Aunt Margaret's Will," Anaheim missionary society; cast of drama, Mrs. Edith Walker, Mrs. Richard Wise, Mrs. F. A. Altenor; greetings and introduction of speakers, Mrs. R. E. Carswell, president of Los Angeles Presbyterial; "The Light in China," Mrs. William T. Blackstone, Chenekow, China; benediction, Dr. Robert Burns McAulay, Orange.

Committees are as follows: Door committee, Mrs. Frances, Mrs. M. D. Falconer; ushers, Mrs. Arval Morris, Mrs. Robert Baker; decorating, Mrs. Lloyd Ross; luncheon committee, Mrs. H. A. Hawley, Mrs. Dora Pearson, Mrs. F. K. Day, Mrs. Parmelia Mills, Mrs. M. E. Beebe, Mrs. George Minder, Mrs. Marjorie Cook, Mrs. L. J. Barnett, Mrs. Rosetta Gibson, Mrs. George Stirton, Mrs. B. G. Schlosser; dining room, Mrs. Earl Spencer, Mrs. Richard Wise, Mrs. George Watts.

Arrange Meeting Of Woman's Club

ANAHEIM, Oct. 6. — Anaheim Junior Ebell members will convene for the first time this evening at 7:30 at the Richards-Martin dance studio, 719 North Los Angeles street, with Miss Madora Holt, world traveler and literary critic, as the speaker.

Miss Holt was the first white child to be born in the jungle province of Nahn, Siam, and has traveled extensively. She appeared before the senior Ebell club last year when she discussed current events and current literature. Her theme for tomorrow is "The World's Month," in which she will review books, plays and their relation to current events. Miss Sally Newkirk is program chairman.

WRITING —TO SELL—

By ETHEL K. LOCKWOOD

THE NOVEL

Writing a novel is like no other branch of the writing business. No one can say with any degree of certainty what type of a book will, or will not click. There is one measuring stick that can—and must—be used by the person who is planning to write a novel, and that is INTEREST.

Will the material be interesting to a large number of people? The "large number of people" is just as important as the "interest." When you select material that is likely to appeal to only a small group of readers, you narrow your field down so much you cannot hope to have a book publisher fall on your neck with squeals of delight.

First novels are usually failures from a monetary standpoint. Certainly they are poor bets unless the material used is of wide interest. So your first step, in the preparation of a novel, should be careful consideration of the basic material to be used. Along with this, is your ability to use it.

What is your equipment for producing a worthwhile piece of work? Do you know your locale? Are you sure of your history? Are your chapters clear-cut, and will they fit into the environment with which you plan to surround them?

PREPARATION NECESSARY

No really sane writer will plunge into novel-writing without a great deal of preliminary work. This often involves research. It always involves study. Writing a novel is like building a house. You must start with a foundation, and you must be sure it is a good one, or the structure will wobble all over the place, and be of no use to you, or anyone else.

There are many technical points to be decided before you start work on the typewriter. Whose story is it? Are you going to center the interest on one person, or will you use a whole family, with the interest divided? How are you going to tell the story—from one point of view, or from several?

Will you have a theme? If so, how much emphasis are you going to lay on it?

Will your book be first person or third person? Will you use real locations, or fictitious?

How much territory are you going to cover? How far back are you going to go into the lives of your characters?

What is the real high point of your narrative? Do you see it as a goal to be reached after careful preparation?

What type of person will read your book, if you are successful in having it published? Are you going to write in such a way you can be sure this type of reader will like what you have written?

THINK BEFORE YOU WRITE!

If you plunge into the actual work of writing before you are sure how you are going to go about it, you are in for trouble, and no mistake. After you have spent three or four weeks—or perhaps as many months—you are likely to discover your psychology isn't sound; that your characters are wooden; that your plot is full of holes.

You may do a lot of thinking, and still find these flaws in your manuscript, but you are not half so likely to. And in a game so difficult, where the cards seem to be stacked against the beginner, why take a chance?

If you cannot consult some one in whom you have confidence about this preliminary work, secure as many books on novel writing as you can, and read them thoroughly. You will also find help in the writers' magazines. These will not be as satisfactory as personal criticism, but they will make it easier for you to "go it" alone.

Two Convicted As Drunken Drivers

Two men started serving sentences for drunk driving Saturday, and a third was booked early Sunday morning on the same charge, according to county jail records.

J. E. Stone, 42, of 142 West Malvern street, Fullerton, started a 37 1/2 day term in lieu of a $75 fine assessed in the Fullerton justice court Saturday. Renaldo Corona, 56, Artesia, will serve 50 days in the county jail in lieu of a $100 fine assessed in the Anaheim justice court.

Eugene Masters, 22, of 1015 State street, Long Beach, was booked at the jail at 3:10 a. m. Sunday by Deputies Bob Steinberger and Tom Murphine. He was arrested on the coast highway near the Los Alamitos bridge at 2:20 a. m.

Christian Science

"Unreality" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon on Sunday in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts, The Golden Text was from Ecclesiastes: "Vanity of vanities, saith the Preacher, vanity of vanities; all is vanity."

The Lesson-Sermon included these words of Job from the Bible: "Oh that I were as in months past, as in the days when God preserved me; . . . I have heard of thee by the hearing of the ear: but now mine eye seeth thee." These words of the Psalmist were cited also: "Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits: who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases."

Among the passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, were the statements: "If we look to the body for pleasure, we find pain: for Life, we find death; for Truth, we find error; for Spirit, we find its opposite, matter. Now reverse this action. Look away from the body into Truth and Love, the Principle of all happiness, harmony, and immortality."

TUBERCULOSIS ASSOCIATION TO SHOW FILM

The Orange County Tuberculosis and Health association, Ltd., is mailing 750 letters to organizations and business or industrial firms in the county, asking for the privilege of showing the latest sound film on tuberculosis, "Behind the Shadows," made by the National Tuberculosis association.

The talkie film is a visual method of telling an audience how science can control tuberculosis with modern weapons, namely, the tuberculin test, sputum examination, x-ray, stethoscope and collapse therapy.

Tuberculosis is the oldest enemy known to mankind. It has never given civilized man peace but thanks to modern science enough is now known to bring it under control. Christmas seals finance the educational campaign to help fight tuberculosis.

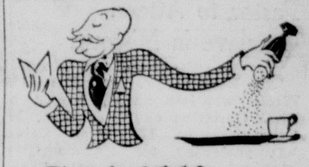

For further information regarding the scheduling of this educational feature, communicate with the tuberculosis association, 112 West Fifth street, Santa Ana, phone 4797.

COURT FREES S. A. "BOOKIE" SUSPECT

Lyle Kelly, arrested in the District Attorney's recent county wide "bookie" cleanup, was freed yesterday on motion of Deputy District Attorney Harold McCabe.

Charged with a felony, book making on horse races, Kelly appeared in court today before Justice of the Peace K. E. Morrison. He was freed on McCabe's motion to dismiss the case in furtherance of justice.

Kelly, arrested in a Santa Ana hotel, has been free on his own recognizance since his arraignment. Emmett Mallott, arrested with Kelly on the same charge, was freed some time time ago.

Schilling pepper rich in flavor

Southern Pacific News

LOW SUMMER FARES EAST THIS WINTER!

EXTRA!
Go One Way, Return Another —See Twice as Much!
You may go east on one of our Four Scenic Routes, return on another, if you wish.
For example, go straight to Chicago on our direct, scenic GOLDEN STATE ROUTE. Return SUNSET ROUTE through the sunny South via New Orleans, OVERLAND ROUTE via San Francisco, or SHASTA ROUTE via Portland and the Northwest.

FOR the first time, low first-class roundtrip fares east practically the same as summer fares (in many cases exactly the same), are in effect throughout fall and winter! For example:

CHICAGO AND BACK $86

ST. LOUIS & back . . $ 81.50
NEW YORK & back . . 136.50
KANSAS CITY & back . 72.00
NEW ORLEANS & back . 85.15

Good in luxurious, air-conditioned standard Pullmans (plus berth charge) daily to next May 14. Return limit 30 days.

Low Coach, Tourist Fares, too
Winter coach and tourist roundtrips east are only slightly above summer fares. Return limit 6 months. Examples, there and back:

	Coach	Tourist
CHICAGO . .	$62.20	$ 79.95
NEW YORK . .	92.65	130.45
KANSAS CITY	49.30	63.40
NEW ORLEANS	57.15	72.89

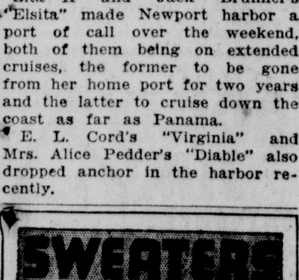

See or phone your S. P. agent for information and help in planning any trip.

EXTRA!
Winter Fares to Mexico Also Reduced!
On and after Nov. 1, we will offer roundtrip fares to Mexico even lower than summer fares.
MEXICO CITY and back $71.95
Through air-conditioned Pullmans from Los Angeles. Return limit 30 days. If you wish, you may go one way via El Paso.

EXTRA!
Longer Return Limits on Local Coach-Tourist Fares
Present 10-day return limit on coach-tourist fares on Southern Pacific's Pacific Lines will be extended to 30 days—three times as long to complete your trip.
Summer first-class 21-day roundtrips on our lines in the West will be in effect all winter. They average 2c a mile.
NEXT TIME TRY THE TRAIN

Southern Pacific

M. J. LOGUE, Agent — Phone 1401
Ticket Office 1030 E. 4th St. — Ample Parking Space for Your Car
E. B. SHARPLEY, T.P.A. — Phone 1401

Platt Service costs you nothing!

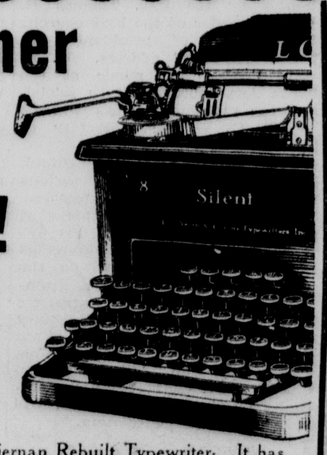

We figure that if we have the chance to watch your car, inspect it regularly, service it with modern lubrication methods, oil changes, washing, polishing, etc., that we'll save you enough on added life and wear of car to pay for our time and labor!

The Squeak Gangsters have no chance to wear and harm your car with Officer Platt on the job! His services COST NO MORE!

Platt • Auto • Service
Third at Bush Street — Santa Ana — Phone 2340

W. P. A. FEDERAL MUSIC PROJECT
Presents
"THE MIKADO"
GILBERT AND SULLIVAN
Professional Cast, Chorus of 60 Voices
Orchestra of 30 Musicians
COLORFUL COSTUMES — AUTHENTIC SCENERY
WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 7TH
8:15 P. M.
SANTA ANA HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM
520 West Walnut
Seats Now on Sale at the High School Box Office
20c - 30c - 40c
STUDENTS AT HALF PRICE

A customer wrote this ad!

"Six years ago I bought a Tiernan Rebuilt Typewriter. It has been in constant use ever since, even on many Sundays. Countless thousands of words have been written on it, as I am a hard-working writer! Not a thing has been done to it in all this time. Yet, it was in good enough shape last week that Tiernan allowed me nearly half of the original price on ANOTHER Tiernan Rebuilt machine. This machine has been used by two stenographers in offices adjoining mine in Los Angeles and both say they like it better than BRAND NEW typewriters they have operated less than a month! I don't know what more could be said about such a fine product!"
(name given on request)

R. A. Tiernan Typewriter Co.
Santa Ana — 110 West 4th — Phone 743

SOCIETY AND CLUBS — WOMEN'S ACTIVITIES

Chapter Members Plan Participation In Fall Events

Chapter GJ P. E. O. members made plans to take part in various events of the near future at a meeting yesterday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Harry Bowman, 1218 South Broadway, following luncheon in the Doris Kathryn Tea Shoppe.

Mrs. Bowman, as hostess for the day, had arranged the pleasant luncheon and its subsequent meeting in her hospitable home.

Announcement was made that chapter AB P. E. O. of this city will be hostess at a county P. E. O. meeting to be held Friday, October 16 in Laguna Beach, where luncheon will be served to decide other events of the afternoon.

It was decided to hold the next regular meeting of the chapter Monday, October 19 at P. E. O. Manor in Alhambra, where the group will meet at 1:30 o'clock.

A report was given of the recent successful rummage sale which the chapter conducted in down town Santa Ana, with Mrs. Clarence Bond, president of the group, in charge of arrangements.

• • •

Luncheon Club Group Welcomes Guests

All the appetizing dishes which Golden State Luncheon club members provided for their covered dish luncheon late last week with Mrs. V. J. Anderson, 930 South Main street, were distributed among the small tables arranged for the luncheon hour and centered with slim vases of white asters.

It provided a very pleasant day in annals of the club, and was shared with several special guests including one from the extreme eastern part of the country, Mrs. Anna Trueblood of Newport, R. I., Mrs. Mattie Hutchins of Orange, Mesdames Alice Morse, Hannah Anderson, R. R. Hindle, Harry Simmons and R. Smith, Santa Ana, completed the group of guests while a score or more Golden State members were present.

Mrs. Neva Weekley, club president, called a short business meeting immediately after luncheon, during which plans were made to hald next month's meeting on November 6 with Mrs. Richard Adams, 715 East First street. Luncheon will be the customary covered dish affair.

In the afternoon of cards and needlework, the door prize was won by Mrs. Laura Boyd, while a special prize provided by the hostess, Mrs. Anderson, was won by Mrs. Myrtle Underwood.

• • •

Pastor to Attend Conclave in Missouri

The Rev. W. S. Buchanan, 120 West Twentieth street, pastor of First Christian church, and A. W. Gerrard, 2422 Heliotrope Drive, left yesterday for Kansas City, Mo., where they will attend the international convention of Disciples of Christ, October 12-18.

With the pastor and Mr. Gerrard are the latter's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Cheverton of Whittier. They are motoring in Mr. Gerrard's car, expecting to stop at Grand Canyon, the Painted Desert and other scenic points en route to Kansas City.

The party will return home in time for the Rev. Mr. Buchanan to be in his pulpit by Sunday, October 25.

In the family's absence, Mrs. Gerrard is staying in Whittier with her grandchildren, Billie and Arthur Cheverton.

UNIVERSITY WOMEN

Following a board meeting of Orange county branch A. A. U. W. last week in the home of Miss Martha Ehlen in Orange, officers today announced plans for a busy year of activity.

The first event will be a general meeting scheduled for Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Y. W. C. A. rooms. All prospective members of the association are given a special invitation to attend.

Plans were revealed for a regional conference of American Association of University Women to be held Saturday, October 17 at Whittier College. This will be an all day affair, with state chairmen of the various departments to be represented. Mrs. Merle Swain of Whittier will preside over the meeting, which will be attended by several Orange county representatives of the association.

Our Office Methods are the Best Way to Correct
PILES— FISSURE— FISTULA and STOMACH & INTESTINAL diseases.
DR. H. J. HOWARD
OSTEOPATH
1318 NORTH MAIN
PHONE 4306

H. B. CHRISTIANSEN, M.D.
EYE, EAR, NOSE and THROAT
311 WEST 8TH ST.
Office Hours: 2 to 5 P. M.
PHONE 2304-W

JOHNSON'S OLD CURIOSITY SHOP
NOW IN ITS
NEW LOCATION
308 East 4th St.
Formerly at 208 East 4th St.
New and Used Furniture | Books and Magazines

Bose-Hagen Ceremony Occurs in Home Of Pastor

Quietly wedded Saturday evening, October 3, Dale S. Bose and his bride, the former Miss Ruth Hagen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hagen, 631 North Ross street, already are at home to their friends. The newly-married young people have taken up residence at 609 West Fifth street.

The ceremony occurred at 411 North Flower street in the home of the officiating minister, the Rev. Louis J. Ostertag, pastor of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints.

The bride was attired in navy blue satin-back crepe frock with hat and shoes in matching hue, and a corsage bouquet of gardenias. The "something old" of her costume was her mother's gold band wedding ring; the "something borrowed", a handkerchief belonging to Miss Dorothy Bose, sister of the bridegroom.

Attendants were Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Eddy, Miss Bette Soule of Costa Mesa and Gerald Hagen, brother of the bride. Completing the little group of guests was Mrs. Ostertag.

Following the ceremony the new Mr. and Mrs. Bose were complimented at a party in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eddy on South Shelton street.

Both the bridegroom and bride are graduates of Polytechnic High school. Mr. Bose, who is employed by Firestone in Santa Ana, is son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bose, 272 South Main street, Orange.

• • •

Bridge Play Follows Club Steak Bake

Adding variety to a regular bridge club party, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Mitchell invited their guests Saturday night to a steak bake in Jack Fisher park.

Following the serving of the delectable dinner, the group went to the Mitchell home, 922 West Camille street, where bridge was played for the remainder of the evening. Prizes were won by Mrs. Leland Ewbank and Leonard White, who scored high; Mrs. Ray Carse and Wilbur Gill, second high. Mrs. Carse also received a traveling award.

In the group were Miss Lettie Stowe of Los Angeles and Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Gill, Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Shidler and Mr. and Mrs. Ewbank of this city; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Carse, Bellflower and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard White, Cypress, with the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell.

DINNER PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schofield were complimented at a dinner party Friday evening when employees of the Goodwill Industries entertained at local headquarters.

Forty-five workers and their families were seated around the large dining table. Mrs. A. F. Herman had made arrangements for the dinner, which was followed by a social hour.

Announcements

First Baptist Woman's society will present a civics program tomorrow afternoon as a feature of an all day meeting to be held in the church pariors. Sewing in the morning will be followed by a noon day covered dish luncheon. Mrs. John C. Urquhart of Los Angeles, past state president of California Federation of Women's clubs, past president of the Western Federation of Women's clubs, and a member of the League of Women Voters, will be speaker. She will discuss the amendments appearing on the November ballot. Men of the congregation are invited to attend the luncheon and the subsequent talk by Mrs. Urquhart.

Garden Study club will meet Friday at 12:30 o'clock for a luncheon meeting with Mrs. Guy Belcher 418 West Second street. Hostesses will be Mesdames Mary McCormac, Guy Belcher, Blanche Strock, and Miss Ora Davis. The topic for the day will be "Flowers of Scotland."

Amber Circle members will meet Thursday for 12:30 o'clock luncheon in Masonic temple where Mrs. Jean Tibbetts, chairman, and her social committee will preside at the luncheon hour. This meeting is of special importance as it will be the annual courtesy extended past presidents of the circle, who will be guests of honor.

Laymen's Chiropractic auxiliary will meet Friday night at 8 o'clock in the clubhouse, 1905 Valencia avenue, where Miss Florence Scherbert, chairman, Mrs. Anna Linnartz and Mrs. Charles Beasley will form the hostess committee. Program features will include a talk by Mrs. Henry O'Neil of Glendale on "Municipal Clinics"; a discussion of legal situations regarding chiropractic, and a talk by Dr. James Workman, followed by bunko and refreshments.

Ladies' Aid society of Trinity Lutheran church will meet tomorrow at 2 o'clock in the church.

First Christian Missionary society will meet tomorrow at 1 o'clock in the educational building for a program following noon-day luncheon. The Rev. Frank Stipp, pastor of Brea Christian church, will be speaker.

Trinity Lutheran Guild will have a social evening Friday at 7:30 o'clock in the church hall. Royal Mueller will give a talk on his recent trip to Europe, displaying a number of motion pictures taken in foreign lands. There will be other entertainment, and refreshments will be served.

Arts and Crafts class under the auspices of the Y.W.C.A. will have its second meeting tomorrow morning from 9 to 11 o'clock in the Y. W. rooms. This will be open to the public, with Mrs. John V. Newman presiding as instructor. Opportunity to make various handcraft articles will be given those who attend, it was pointed out today by Miss Mary W. Howard, Y. W. secretary.

Hostess' Anniversary Given Celebration By P. E. O.

Coming as a pleasant feature of a meeting of chapter AB, P. E. O. yesterday afternoon in the home of Mrs. W. H. Spurgeon jr., 1617 North Main street, was a little celebration of the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Spurgeon.

Having learned of the anniversary date, the group presented a gift to the hostess, who was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Harry Hanson. The co-hostesses served luncheon early in the afternoon.

Mrs. Hanson, who is president of the chapter, conducted the meeting. Plans were made for Orange County P. E. O. Reciprocity day to be observed October 16 at 12:30 p. m. in Laguna Beach Las Ondas cafe, where luncheon will be served. Reservations should be made in the very near future with Mrs. T. E. Stephenson, a member of chapter AB, which will be hostess for the day.

Yesterday's program was especially enjoyable, with members relating vacation experiences.

• • •

D. A. R. Hears Talk By Lynn Crawford

Lynn Crawford, Polytechnic High school principal, gave a talk on the Constitution of the United States yesterday afternoon when members of Santa Ana chapter D. A. R. held their opening meeting of the season in the home of Mrs. E. G. Summers, 624 South Ross street.

Mrs. J. H. Nicholson, regent, conducted the meeting, during which tentative plans were made for the D. A. R. Southern Council meeting to be held in Santa Ana Ebell clubhouse November 17.

Sharing the affair with 22 members was a guest, Mrs. Laura Hunt, a member of Rockford, Ill. chapter who plans to transfer to the local group.

Mrs. F. E. Earel and Miss Mabel Larrick poured tea at the close of the afternoon, when refreshments were served from a prettily appointed table. On the hostess committee with Mrs. Summers were Mrs. Jennie Crawford, Mrs. Jesse Albright, Mrs. Harley Neill, Mrs. Alice Hill Hatch, Mrs. De Witt Dudley and Mrs. Marietta Philleo.

• • •

Four-Year Old Lad Has Merry Party

Master Robert McCalla's fourth birthday anniversary was celebrated in happy fashion this afternoon when his mother, Mrs. R. H. McCalla was hostess in their home, 423 South Flower street.

Playmates assembled early in the afternoon for a session of outdoor games. Mrs. McCalla invited the group indoors for two course refreshments climaxed with the serving of ice cream and birthday cake. Decorated in pink, with gleaming candles, the confection centered the gayly decked table which was appointed with nut cups, favors and other party details in pink and white. There were gifts for Master Robert.

Sharing the affair with Robert were Douglas and Phillip Thorman, Bob and Bud McCalla, Tustin; Roger Perkins, Orange; Jimmie Utt, Bob and Jackie Hasom, Eleanor Willits; together with a group of mothers of the boys and girls.

COUNTY PRESBYTERIAL

Many Presbyterian church women of this city plan to be in Anaheim tomorrow when the annual meeting of Orange county district presbyterial will be held in First Presbyterian church of that city.

The all-day session on the theme of "The entrance of Thy words giveth light," will begin at 10 o'clock with music; greetings from Mrs. T. A. Altenow, president of the hostess society; devotionals by the Rev. Thomas H. Walker, pastor of the host church; introductions of presidents, reports, music and address. W. H. Hall, minister of music at the Santa Ana church, will be soloist, and the morning address will be by W. C. Willetts, secretary of the Spiritual Life groups.

After luncheon in the church dining room, will come various reports and entertainment features. Mrs. R. E. Carswell of this city, president of Los Angeles Presbyterial, will give formal greetings and will introduce those on the program. There will be a dramatization of "Aunt Margaret's Will" by the Anaheim Missionary society, after which Mrs. William T. Blackstone of Chenekow, China, will speak on "The Light in China." Dr. Robert Burns McAulay of the Orange church, will pronounce the benediction.

VISITING HOME CITY

In her former home city for a visit, Mrs. Frank Erickson (Thelma Shipe) of Berkeley is a house-guest of her parents and sister, Mr. and Mrs. George Shipe and Miss Lorine Shipe, 633 North Van Ness avenue.

Mrs. Erickson arrived Saturday in company with her cousin, Robert Wimbush, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Wimbush, 1108 South Van Ness avenue, who had been in Eugene, Ore., attending homecoming day at the University of Orange where he studied last year. He stopped in Berkeley en route home for a short visit with the Ericksons.

While in the Southland, Mrs. Erickson is enjoying reunions with Santa Ana friends as well as with others in Los Angeles and in Pomona. She expects to return home early next week.

AUTO TRAILER PLANS
R. & R. BOOK STORE
605 N. MAIN STREET

Veteran Physician Finds His Birthday Celebrated

When a man of the professional standing of Dr. C. D. Ball, 1919 North Broadway, finds time among manifold duties to devote 37 consecutive years to work of such civic value as the presidency of a public library board, it seems appropriate that the library should pay tribute to him on such an important occasion as his seventy-seventh birthday anniversary. Yesterday when Dr. Ball reached his 77th milestone, the event was duly recognized at Santa Ana Public library, where last year he resigned as board president after years of faithful service.

In resigning from the presidency of the board, Dr. Ball did not relinquish his interest in the institution, and frequently drops in for a little visit with the staff and to browse among his favorite books. Aware that one of these visits would be due, Miss Ethel Walker, librarian, and her staff yesterday made arrangements to welcome Dr. Ball with special features.

They enlisted Mrs. Ball's assistance to make certain that their plans would not go amiss, and when Dr. Ball arrived accompanied by his wife, it was to find a gaily informal little tea staged in his special honor. The small basement lounge of the library was brightened with flowers and candles, and there was a birthday cake with pink candles to suggest the anniversary.

Members of the staff made it a point to be present as much as their duties would permit, all of them dropping in for a slice of cake and to extend congratulations and good wishes to one who had been a firm friend over many years. On the staff with Miss Walker are the Misses Verna Ramsey, Ruth Hilyard, Mary Bowyer, Ruth Bishop, Eleanor Metzgar, Alberta Carter and Leona Baxter, Mesdames H. Y. Evans, Anita Alexander, Mona Summers Smith, and Cora Suffern.

Dr. Ball told of some of the early library days and gave many entertaining reminiscences. In the many years of his work in Santa Ana, he has been prominent in all civic activities. He is one of the community's pioneer physicians and past president and past secretary of Orange County Medical association. Dr. Ball is Canadian born, and had his medical training at the old Bishop College in Montreal, later known as McGill University, one of the best known medical schools on the continent, and from which he now holds a degree.

Following his graduation in 1884, he returned to his native Stanstead, in Quebec Province, to practise for the next four years when he came to California. Two of Dr. and Mrs. Ball's four children have followed in their father's footsteps by adopting the medical profession, and no doubt some of his eleven grandchildren will follow suit.

Their oldest son, Charles Ball jr., lives in Milwaukee and has three of the veteran physician's grandchildren, Betty, Barbara and Charles Ball III. Dr. Dexter Ball of Santa Ana also has three children, all sons, Dexter, Bobbie and Donald. Dr. John Ball, also of this city, has both a son and daughter, Jack and Mary, and the one daughter of the Dr. C. D. Balls, is now Mrs. Paul Witmer of this city, and the mother of three children, Paul jr., Philip and Virginia.

Yesterday in advance of the library tea, Mr. and Mrs. Witmer had Dr. and Mrs. Ball for an informal little birthday luncheon in their home, 602 McFadden street.

• • •

Newly-married Couple Arrive During Birthday Celebration

Adding to the enjoyment of a birthday party Friday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Dixon, 1030 West Fifth street, was the surprise arrival of a former Santa Anan, H. O. Wallace and his bride, who have been living in Las Vegas, Nev.

The group learned that the couple's wedding occurred early in August in Las Vegas, and that the bride was the former Miss Leola Lee of Thatcher, Ariz. The new Mr. and Mrs. Wallace, who have been houseguests of Mr. Wallace's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Wallace, 848 North Parton street, have gone to Los Angeles for a short stay.

The bridal couple's arrival Friday evening came at the close of a charmingly-planned dinner party in celebration of birthday anniversaries of Mrs. Dixon and of Mrs. W. A. West. Zinnias and dahlias from the home gardens centered the table, which was spread with lace. There were gifts for the two celebrants.

Following dinner, the hosts and their guests attended the football game.

Sharing the affair with Mr. and Mrs. Dixon were Messrs. and Mesdames R. M. Wallace, William Mize, W. A. West, W. H. Huntington, and the surprise guests, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Wallace.

Good Housekeeping gives its seal of approval to AIR-STEP GUARANTEED
AIR-STEP Shoes
$5.75
at SEBASTIAN'S BROWN built SHOE STORE
108 East 4th Santa Ana Cal

Shower in Santa Ana Honors Beach City Bride-elect

Presiding at a shower of pretty appointments recently, Mrs. L. C. Mead was hostess in her home, 520 Wellington avenue, in compliment to Miss Georgia Mae Troop of Huntington Beach, whose marriage to Ralph Boyd of the beach city is anticipated as an event of the near future.

Miscellaneous gifts were presented to the honoree, and refreshments were served at the close of the pleasant affair.

In the group were the Misses Annabelle Cooper, Janice Preston, Martha Porter, Lucille Darby, Marion Reeves; Mesdames Frank Troop, O. A. Troop, F. Clapp, Arthur Ackey, Huntington Beach; Mrs. Allen Young, Oceanside; Mesdames Amanda Poor, Floyd Vale, Kenneth Brown, Jack Robinson, Charles Rockwell and the hostess, Mrs. Mead, of this city, with the bride-elect, Miss Troop.

Mr. Boyd is bookkeeper for the Standard Oil company in Huntington Beach.

• • •

Private Duty Nurses Hold Meeting

Private Duty section members of District 16, California State Nurses' association staged a pleasant and profitable meeting Friday night in the home of Mrs. Jeanne Grandy, 620 Spurgeon street.

It was with much interest that the assembled nurses heard R. J. Lock, local distributor for Park Davis company products, talk on two new drug preparations very much in use in medical and nursing organizations, Theolin and Antuitrin S. This informative talk was followed by reports, including that of Mrs. Alice Theal, director of the Nursing Bureau, who told of the various activities and the calls for many nurses during the month.

During the social hour which followed, refreshments were served buffet style to Mesdames Mira Greener, Eva Roelands, Thelma Johnston, Hazel Paul, and Ann Stolpe Lockhart, the Misses Glya Gettis, Melba Ferguson, Rose Mauch, Dora Kennemor, Vida Greenleaf, Elisabeth Johnston, Therresa, Haugness, Lena Neumeyer, Lydia Neumeyer, Betty Swanson, Leona Wunderlick and Laura Hanson, with the hostess, Mrs. Grandy, to complete the group.

GIRLS' EBELL PROGRAM

When the Misses Jean Dowds, Barbara Speed and Betty Timmons presided as hostesses at Friday afternoon's meeting of Girls' Ebell society, in the Howard Timmons home on Red Hill avenue, they will present a program of much charm to their sister club members.

Through the aid of Miss Patsy Miller, the hostesses will present the "Four Little Burkes," that family of young colored artists whose talents have aroused so much interest at their various public appearances. These gifted youngsters provide music, including violin numbers, songs and readings and will be presented shortly after the opening of the club meeting

Party Guests Arrange To Present Gifts To Honoree

Adding another to a series of pretty parties inspired by the bright hopes in the Harmon Howard home, was a surprise layette shower at which Mrs. Howard was complimented late last week in the E. U. Farmer home, 1221 South Parton street.

Arriving with the expectation of spending a friendly evening just with Mrs. Farmer, the young honoree had the pleasure of greetings from a group of guests, with various party features to follow. Asters arranged in graceful baskets lent charm to the spacious rooms, and saw their colors repeated in various details of the hospitality. Guessing games were played and a lovely vase was awarded as first prize to the party honoree, Mrs. Howard, with consolation gifts going to Mrs. Thwaite and Mrs. Griggs.

This interval was followed by the chief event of the evening, the presentation to Mrs. Howard of an array of daintily wrapped gifts to complete the layette she is preparing. The serving of whipped jello with cake and coffee concluded a delightful evening.

Invited to share the evening with Mrs. Howard and her mother, Mrs. L. A. Endres and her husband's mother, Mrs. Lulu Purkey, were Mrs. U. E. Farmer, Mrs. Keith Howard, Mrs. Iva Griggs, Mrs. Herbert Thwaite, Mrs. J. C. Kirby, Mrs. Ethel Hutchinson and Miss Opal Brownlow.

• • •

Day Nursery Assistance Club Holds Pleasant Contract Luncheon

Despite the fact that Mrs. James Irvine, founder and president of Day Nursery Assistance club, is now vacationing in Oregon with Mr. Irvine, her administration of club affairs is so complete that it continues to function without interruption, in the delightful suburban home of the Irvines on San Joaquin ranch.

Yesterday when contract play was resumed after a luncheon of many pleasant features, it was with Mrs. Howard Timmons and Mrs. C. Mortimer Plum as cohostesses for the day's events. They had planned a turquoise and gold color motif for luncheon details, using small pompon dahlias in clear sunny yellow, grouped in bowls whose exquisite blue tones were repeated in the service plates.

It is expected that Mrs. Irvine will have returned to assume hostess duties at the next luncheon in the club series, an event scheduled for Monday, October 19.

HOME FROM EAST

Returning home last week, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Williams, 1118 North Sycamore street, concluded an extended trip east during which they attended the national convention of Spanish War Veterans in Saratoga Springs, N. Y.

As delegates from Calumpit camp and auxiliary of this city, Mr. and Mrs. Williams attended the conclave, which was in session August 30-September 3. They will have reports ready for the organization Tuesday evening.

Leaving here July 11, Mr. and Mrs. Williams traveled to various points of interest. They spent some time in their former home cities of Pocatello, Idaho and Cheyenne, Wyo., where they took part in annual pioneer day festivities.

The Santa Ana couple enjoyed especially a ten-day stay in Boston, Mass., where they visited many historical and scenic spots. Also they spent some time in Springfield, Mass.

Supper Guests Enjoy Toasting Wieners At Garden Grill

When a group of girls well into the "magic 'teens" assembled for a birthday party complimenting one of the group, just such a happy affair may be anticipated as was shared last night at the E. W. Ashland home, 823 Cypress avenue, with Miss Betty Lou Ashland as birthday honoree.

In celebration of her fourteenth birthday anniversary, Miss Betty Lou was hostess to a dozen of her friends. Mrs. Ashland had planned the affair as an al fresco supper, with wieners toasted over the grill recently completed in the rear garden of the home. The toothsome wieners had an accompaniment of hot rolls, salads and other appetizing dishes, with Betty Lou's favorite "lazy daisy" cake completing the supper menu. This cake, with its cocoanut icing toasted under the broiler flames, was served with orangeade.

The supper table, spread near the grill, was gay with place cards, nut cups, and many candles, whose gleams lighted the pretty cosmos that had been provided by an interested neighbor, Mrs. S. H. Williams.

After supper the girls sought the living room of the home where many birthday packages were in readiness for the young party hostess to open and admire. Monopoly was then introduced for a hilarious evening, and prizes were won by the Misses Ruth Wallace and Phyllis Brockbank.

In the party with the birthday celebrant Miss Betty Lou, and her sister, Miss Marian Ashland, were the Misses Carol Miller, Phyllis Brockbank, Dorothy Van Horn, Lorraine Van Horn, Ruth Wallace, Bonnie Lee Martin, Norma Lane, Joyce Hubbard, Doris Fowler, Mary Hoover and Rosemary Harp.

BUSY MONTH FOR CLUB

October promises several special events of interest for members of a two table bridge club who discussed plans for the month at a meeting last night in the home of Mrs. Robert Goetting in Tustin.

The club received an invitation from another bridge playing group to attend a dinner party at Dixie Castle October 20.

Mrs. Jack Casey invited the group to meet with her October 14 to make plans for a Hallowe'en party.

Winners in last night's bridge contest were Mrs. Joe Cornelius and Mrs. Casey, who held high and low scores. Others present were Miss Frances Parks, Mrs. Bruce Vegely, Mrs. Ernest Crumrine, Mrs. Harold Breeding and the hostess.

Friends of Years Ago Enjoy Reunion Luncheon

Reminiscences of an earlier day in the community's history, when a group of lively young people enjoyed close associations, were very much in order Saturday when Mr. and Mrs. Volney V. Tubbs of Tustin avenue, were luncheon hosts at Hotel Laguna, to these friends of many years' standing.

It is the custom for some member to call the circle together each year, when happy memories are recalled, and friendship's ties are strengthened.

Guests arrived Saturday from Los Angeles, San Diego and Vista, to join those yet residing in this community. More than a score in number, they found that their hosts had reserved one large table where autumn's lovely colors were seen in the clusters of pompon dahlias used decoratively.

After luncheon, the guests gathered in the lounge of the popular hotel or sought the wide terrace verandah with its matchless view of the sea and coast, for an afternoon of happy reminiscences. Miss Louise Tubbs aided her parents in expressing hospitality.

• • •

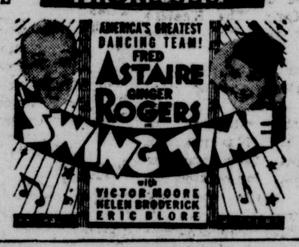

Foursome Leaves Today For Two Weeks' Trip

Leaving this morning, Mrs. Fred Wilson of Panorama Heights, her sister, Mrs. Herbert Soest of Los Angeles, Mrs. Coralynn Thompson of Santa Ana and Mrs. Jesse Ainsworth of Orange began a two weeks' trip which will take them to points of interest in Arizona and New Mexico.

The foursome will visit in Phoenix with a former Santa Anan, Helen Van Cartmell Bankston, and then continue to the Grand Canyon, from there they will go to Albuquerque, Santa Fe and to Carlsbad Caverns, N. M.

In Las Cruces, N. M., they will visit with a former Tustin resident, Miss Shirley Thomas, cousin of Miss Lena Thomas and Mrs. Hazel Northcross of this city. After a short stop in Wilcox, Arizona, where the Wilsons have a ranch, they will return home by way of Douglas, Ariz., Imperial valley and San Diego.

Sunday guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson on Panorama Heights were Mr. Wilson's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wilson of Solano Beach, former residents of this city. They returned recently from Needles, Ariz., where they were guests in the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wright. Mrs. Wright will be remembered as Miss Gladys Wilson of Santa Ana.

MATINEE 2 P. M. 25c FONE 858 ENDS TONITE
WEST COAST PHONE 858
Tonite, 6:15 - 9:05 General Admission 35c Child 10c-Dr. C. 40c
Mirth! Melody! Laffs! and Rhythm!

ADDED
Master Will Shakespeare
Popular Science (in color)
Sportlite Lucky Spills
World News

COMING TOMORROW — MATINEE 2:00 P. M. — 25c
Scoop!

P. G. WODEHOUSE is in the MOVIES!
WADE KNEE DEEP IN GRINS!
as seven comedy stars and "Great Ziegfeld's" famed director cut loose with the year's laff riot—
"PICCADILLY JIM"
By P G Wodehouse The author of "Thank You Jeeves"
ROBT. MONTGOMERY
Frank Morgan • Billie Burke
Eric Blore • Madge Evans
Gay MGM Romance!
M-G-M Color Cartoon
World News
Bob Will Double You in Stitches!
2ND FEATURE
STRAIGHT FROM THE SHOULDER
It Could Happen to You! Suspense! Action! Thrills! Romance!
David Holt Andy Clyde

MATINEE 2 P. M.... 25c Ends Tomorrow Fone 300
BROADWAY ALWAYS A GOOD SHOW!
Tonite, 6:00 - 9:05 General Admission 35c Child 10c. Loges 40c
"WHAT DID YOU EVER DO FOR SAM DODSWORTH?
You've taken the best years of his life and thrown them away on your own selfish ends. You can't have everything ... either you give up the life you're leading ... and go back to him ... or give him up and let us live our lives!"

2ND FEATURE
TUMBLING! CHILLING!
THE CASE OF THE VELVET CLAWS
with WARREN WILLIAM
No Wife or Sweetheart Can Afford to Miss This Picture!
COLOR CARTOON Toonerville Picnic | World News

Ph. 2810 WALKER'S 3d & Bush
MATINEES, Week Days 1:45 All Seats 20c
EVENINGS, Week Days 6:15 Gen'l. Adm. ...25c Loges 30c
CHILDREN, Always 10c
ENDS TONIGHT

SECOND FEATURE
PATRICIA ELLIS DENNIS MOORE MICKEY ROONEY in "DOWN THE STRETCH"
WEDNESDAY and THURSDAY
IT'S A LAFF PANIC!

SECOND FEATURE

PLUS MAJOR BOWES AMATEUR PARADE

PHONE 1050 STATE FAMILY THEATRE
MATINEE — 1:45.....15c
NIGHTS — 6:45....15c and 20c
CHILDREN — Always.....10c
LAST TIMES TONIGHT

AND

WEDNESDAY and THURSDAY
DANCING PIRATE IN COLOR!
ALSO

Make This Model At Home

DASHING GENERAL-PURPOSE FROCK DEMANDS SERVICEABLE FABRIC

PATTERN 4059

By ANNE ADAMS

Behold this latest Fall recruit, for there's a straightforwardness, a chic simplicity about this newest Anne Adams design, Pattern 4059, that's sure to command attention, whether in the classroom, office or friendly circle. The very simplicity of this pattern will make you itch to get started, even though you've never made a frock before, for with the step-by-step sewing instructions that accompany this pattern, it's easy to cut, stitch and finish in record time. See, that smooth front panel is all one piece. And see how alluringly the sleeve falls out above the slender wrist. Fabrics sure to give service are wool, cotton tweed, jersey and crepe.

Pattern 4059 is available in sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20, 30, 32, 34, 36 38, 40 and 42. Size 16 takes 2 3/4 yards 54 inch fabric.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins or stamps to Register Pattern department for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly name, address and style number.

BE SURE TO STATE SIZE

Just out! Our new ANNE ADAMS PATTERN BOOK, presenting the smartest in Fall fashions, the latest in frocks, fabrics and gift suggestions. You'll find glamorous gowns for after-dusk, alluring daytime models, cheery housedresses and kiddies' clothes. Styles, too, for the "would-be slender" woman, and the girl-away-at-school. Send for it today! BOOK, FIFTEEN CENTS. PATTERN, FIFTEEN CENTS. TWENTY-FIVE CENTS FOR BOTH WHEN ORDERED TOGETHER.

You and Your Friends

Mrs. R. B. Gump of Burbank, with her children, Patricia and Ross jr., were weekend guests of Mrs. Gump's mother and sister, Mrs. Molly D. Hannah and Miss Rosamond Hannah, 502 Halliday street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Adamson, 1017 North Ross street, entertained as dinner guests recently, their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick McMillan and daughters, Kitty Jean and Joan of Huntington Beach. The occasion marked Mr. Adamson's birthday anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Rolla R. Hays, 818 South Birch street, were hosts at a little dinner party recently. Their guests were Mrs. Julia Layman of Mount Carmel, Ill., who is taking special studies at U. S. C.; Mrs. Hallie Griffin of Owensboro, Ky., Mrs. Addye Griffin, a teacher in the Los Angeles schools, and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hudson of Long Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Norman, 945 West Highland street, and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Weekly, 1253 West Fourth street, are entertaining as houseguests, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Keeler and daughter, Maxine, of Salina, Kans. The Keelers expect to establish their home in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Watkins of this city and Balboa arrived yesterday morning from a three weeks' visit with relatives in Cleveland, Ohio. Mr. Watkins had opportunity during their trip, to attend the Legion convention in Cleveland. They made the trip in one of the Night Coaches, and were met yesterday morning in Riverside, by E. M. Waycott, returning with him to this city and then on to their home on Balboa Island.

Mrs. Ralph Crane, 1024 North Ross street, who has been ill for the past few days, was taken to St. Joseph hospital yesterday for treatment.

Miss Lettie Stowe returned Sunday to her home in Los Angeles after a two weeks' visit in this city with her mother, Mrs. Fred Stowe, 212 North Ross street.

Mrs. Margaret Suddaby, Lemon Heights, who is recuperating from illness following an operation she underwent a few weeks ago, was in Los Angeles today for treatment. She is reported making a satisfactory recovery.

Mrs. W. H. Kuhn, 526 North Artesia street, returned Friday from Glendale, where she spent several days visiting with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Kuhn. W. H. Kuhn, who is deer hunting in Lassen county, is expected to return home soon.

MUST

Mr. and Mrs. Cood Adams, Tustin avenue, had as guests Sunday, their nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Washburn and four months-old daughter Gail, of Los Angeles. Mrs. Adams is anticipating a visit from her sister, Mrs. Mary Bonnevier of Los Angeles next weekend. Mrs. Bonnevier will be accompanied by another sister, Mrs. A. R. Lott of Los Angeles, who will spend some time in the Cood Adams home as well as in the Anaheim home of another sister, Mrs. H. M. Adams.

Mrs. A. F. LeGaye is here from Elsinore to spend the week with Mrs. E. B. Collier, 117 East Washington avenue, and other friends, while looking after property interests in this city, the family home. She and Mr. LeGaye spent Sunday in Hollywood, Mr. LeGaye returning to Elsinore where the family is staying for the benefit of the health of the son of the home, Albert LeGaye. He is suffering from asthma, but the Elsinore climate is helping him remarkably.

Mrs. Marshall Northcross Jr., 209 1-2 West Tenth street, has returned from a northern vacation trip which she took in company with Miss Frances Emans of Los Angeles. They visited in San Francisco and other cities of the Bay district.

Miss Pauline Wollenberg and Merle Lopp of Los Angeles, Mrs. James Trew and Mrs. Mae Canfield of San Diego, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Triplett, 106 East Chestnut street, were guests at the Bemus cottage on Victoria drive, Laguna, Sunday.

Church Societies

Aid Section

Dr. Margarete Baker's talk on "Old Glass" provided one of the most interesting programs which Northwest section members of First Presbyterian Aid society have ever been privileged to hear, according to members who were present Friday afternoon when Mrs. G. B. Darnell opened her home at 2731 North Flower street, for the meeting.

Mrs. Louis Braasch, chairman, Mrs. Darnell, Mrs. L. L. Ostrander, Mrs. Mary Galloway, Mrs. George Niedergall, Mrs. J. L. Hewitt and Mrs. H. D. McIlvain composed the hostess group. Mrs. Milo K. Tedstrom, section leader, conducted the business session during which Mrs. C. J. Harwood led the devotional service.

Dr. Baker not only told of the history of glass making, but tied it in with the early history of the United States, showing examples of fine old glass produced in different eras. She told also of the possibilities of glass collecting as a pleasant and educational hobby, and cited various authoritative books dealing with the subject, several of which she had on display with her quaintly charming glass.

The afternoon closed with the tea hour planed by the hostesses. For their November meeting, section members will be entertained by their leader, Mrs. Tedstrom, 2215 North Flower street.

DISTRICT MEETING

Several Santa Anans were in San Diego Sunday for a meeting of Disabled American Veterans eighth district in U. S. Grant hotel, where luncheon was served to precede installation of officers and other events.

Mrs. V. L. Brown presided as adjutant during the meeting. Officers installed included Miss Lydia Fisher of this city, who became senior vice-commander of the district. Mrs. Harry Pickard of Santa Ana, junior past commander of the district, was presented with a gift on behalf of the four auxiliaries in the district.

Attending from here were Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Laub, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pickard, Mrs. Frances Thatcher, Mrs. Mary Fisher and Miss Lydia Fisher, all of whom are members of Jack Fisher chapter of auxiliary, D. A. V.

Coming Events

TONIGHT

Wrycende Maegdenu club; Y. W. rooms; 6:15 p. m.
Twenty-Thirty club; Green Cat cafe; 6:30 p. m.
Silver Cord lodge; Masonic temple; dinner; 6:30 p. m.
High School P.-T. A.; new high school building; 7 to 9 p. m.
Calumpit camp and auxiliary U. S. W. V.; K. C. hall; 7:30 p. m.
Santa Ana chapter De Molay; Masonic temple; 7:30 p. m.
Carpenters' Union; 402 West Fourth street; 7:30 p. m.
Junior Ebell society; clubhouse; 7:30 p. m.
Women of Moose; Moose hall; 8 p. m.
Modern Woodmen; M. W. A. hall; 8 p. m.

WEDNESDAY

First Baptist Women's society; church; all day; luncheon, noon.
United Presbyterian Aid society; church parlors; covered-dish luncheon, noon.
Calumpit Auxiliary U. S. W. V. Sewing Circle; with Mrs. Cora Graham, Garden Grove; all day.
Kiwanis club; Green Cat cafe; noon.
First Christian Ladies' Aid; educational building; all day; Missionary society; 1 p. m.
Orange Avenue Christian Women's Council; church; luncheon, noon.
First Congregational Women's Union; with Mrs. F. A. Neddermeyer, San Clemente; covered-dish luncheon, noon.
United Presbyterian Missionary society, church parlors; 1:30 p. m.
Social Order of Beauceant; Masonic temple; 2 p. m.
Episcopal Church of Messiah Women's Auxiliary; parish hall; 2 p. m.
First M. E. Home Missionary society; church parlors; 2 p. m.
Trinity Lutheran Ladies' Aid; church; 2 p. m.
Santa Ana Commandery; Masonic temple; 6:30 p. m.
Jack Fisher chapter and auxiliary D. A. V.; K. C. hall; 8 p. m.
Santa Ana Sciots; M. W. A. hall; 8 p. m.
Knights of Pythias; K. P. hall; 8 p. m.

Late News From Orange And Nearby Towns

DINNER HELD BY EPISCOPAL CHURCH GROUP

ORANGE, Oct. 6.—Concluding a two-day celebration of the 60th anniversary of the founding of the Trinity Episcopal church in Orange, members of the congregation held a 6:30 o'clock potluck dinner in the parish house of the church last evening. Approximately 95 persons were present to welcome former pastors of Trinity church.

The program opened with the singing of "America the Beautiful," "Auld Lang Syne" and "Jingle Bells," with Harry L. Dearing acting as master of ceremonies. Mrs. Merrill Bauer, of Santa Ana, accompanied at the piano.

Dearing gave a brief outline of the founding of the church, which took place in 1876, with the local Trinity church founding occurring in 1909. At the conclusion of the resume of the founding of the church, Dearing called on the following former pastors who favored with short talks: The Rev. Herbert V. Harris, the Rev. John C. Donnell, the Rev. Dwight H. Dow and the Rev. William J. Hatter.

The Rev. H. F. Softley, pastor of Trinity church, read a communication from Bishop R. B. Gooden, head of the Episcopal Diocese, which extended his congratulations to the church on its anniversary and announced the confirmation service to be held on January 1, 1937, with Bishop Gooden in charge.

The musical portion of the program consisted of a vocal solo by Mrs. W. C. Armstrong, "With Verdure Clad" by Hayden, from the Creation. Mrs. Armstrong was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Merrill Bauer, of Santa Ana, organist of Trinity church.

Dearing gave a brief outline of the early history of El Toro and the evening's entertainment concluded with dancing and cards.

PICNIC OBSERVES 40TH ANNIVERSARY

ORANGE, Oct. 6.—Celebrating the 40th wedding aninversary of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Winterrowd, members of Ruby Rebekah lodge of I. O. O. F. surprised the honorees with a picnic supper at Irvine park recently. Mr. and Mrs. Winterrowd were presented a bowl of blue pottery and candlesticks to match.

Those present were Messrs and Mesdames Walter Winterrowd, Fred Wiard, Roy Cox, E. M. Edwards, Bruce Richards, A. A. Harris, Purl Shell, Edd Windolph, William Peterkin, Ed Noonan, E. G. Chandler, John Isle, George Ragsdale and family, J. L. Knesel, Edwin Gould; Mesdames Ida Davis, Jesse Campbell, Laura Bowen, Hattie Pefley, Evelyn Harris and Miss Nora Edwards and Mrs. W. E. Nelson, of Bakersfield.

ANNUAL FUND CAMPAIGN OF Y.W.C.A. OCTOBER 21 TO 23

ORANGE, Oct. 6.—Members of the Y. W. C. A. board met Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Y. W. C. A. rooms in the Franzen building, with Mrs. Horace T. Newman in charge.

Plans were launched for the annual financial drive of the Y. W. C. A., which is to be on October 21, 22 and 23. Alfred Higgins, president of the Orange Community Welfare board designated the date of this drive. Mrs. Newman stated that the total budget of the Y. W. C. A. has increased 20 per cent over that of last year, reaching the amount of $1800.

The chairman appointed for the local drive is Mrs. Benjamin F. Morse, president of the Orange auxiliary of Veterans of Foreign Wars. Mrs. Morse is also active in P.-T. A. work.

Members of the board present were Mesdames Percy J. Green, Benjamin F. Morse, E. R. Forbes, William Hirstein, Frank B. Eye, Fred Bewley, Daisy Howell, Amy Palmiter, V. A. Wood, R. C. Patton, R. B. Newcomb and Miss Edna Bargsten.

The next meeting of the board will be on November 2.

GEORGE BAY RITES HELD ON THURSDAY

ORANGE, Oct. 6.—George Milton Bay, 87, passed away this morning at his home, 443 South Parker street. He had been in failing health for the past two years. Born in Burwick, Ill., Mr. Bay came to Orange 30 years ago from Mammoth, Ill.

Survivors are one son, C. L. Bay, of Orange, and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Clarence Bay, also of Orange.

Mr. Bay was manager of the Bay Transfer company of Orange for 25 years, retiring from his work five years ago.

Funeral services will be held Thursday morning at 10 o'clock from the Gillogly Funeral chapel, with the Rev. Robert Burns McAulay of the First Presbyterian church of Orange officiating. Interment will be in Fairhaven cemetery, beside the body of his wife, who passed away several years ago.

Tustin P.-T. A. To Meet Thurs.

TUSTIN, Oct. 6.—Announcement is made of the meeting of the Tustin Grammar school P.-T. A. to be held in the kindergarten room at 2:30 p. m. Thursday. The subject for discussion 's "Taxation As It Affects the Schools." Speakers are to be Assemblyman James B. Utt, Arthur L. Corey and Ernest Harwood. Mrs. Golden Weston will lead the panel discussion and eighth grade mothers are to be hostesses. Mrs. Robert Korff will preside.

RUBY REBEKAHS HOLD CARD PARTY

ORANGE, Oct. 6—Ruby Rebekahs of I. O. O. F. held their regular lodge meeting Monday evening in the lodge hall in the Ehlen and Grote building. The meeting was conducted by Noble Grand Flora Delle Cox. An invitation was read extending a welcome to the Orange group to be present at the Anaheim lodge's Hallowe'en dance to be held October 31. The next meeting of the local lodge will be a Hallowe'en party.

Refreshments of ice cream and wafers were served by Mrs. Hattie Pulley, Mrs. Rose Smith and Mrs. Annette Danker and Mrs. Laura Bowen to members present and to the following guests: Mrs. Maude Roberts, of Broken Bow, Neb., and Mrs. W. E. Nelson, of Bakersfield, a member of Ruby Rebekahs in that city.

The evening's entertainment concluded with the playing of pinochle and "500." First award in pinochle went to Mrs. Elizabeth Rodieck, and low score to Edd Windolph; in "500," first award went to Mrs. E. L. Meyers and low score to Mrs. Maude Walker.

SEWING MACHINES REPAIRED
Fix-it Shop, 105 E. 3rd. Adv.

MODERN WOMEN
Need Not Suffer monthly pain and delay due to colds, nervous strain, exposure or similar causes. Chi-ches-ters Diamond Brand Pills are effective, reliable and give Quick Relief. Sold by all druggists for over 45 years. Ask for CHICHESTERS PILLS
"THE DIAMOND BRAND"

WOMAN'S CLUB HEARS TALK ON MODERN HOMES

ORANGE, Oct. 6.—"Comfortable Living" was discussed by Marie Gessinger of Los Angeles at a meeting of the Orange Woman's club yesterday afternoon, when it was brought out that comfortable homes with harmonizing furnishings add greatly to the enjoyment of living. Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Henry Campbell, Mrs. E. R. Forbes, Mrs. Arnold Pinson and Mrs. Robert Swank.

Delegates to the county convention to be held at the Santa Ana Ebell club October 30 were appointed, as follows: Mrs. John Hirst, Mrs. C. C. Bonebrake, Mrs. Guy Richards, Mrs. Rex Shannon, Mrs. James R. Ragan, Mrs. E. H. Smith, Mrs. V. D. Johnson and Mrs. Donald Smiley.

Alternates are Mrs. George H. Peterson, Mrs. Fred Lentz, Mrs. Henry Campbell, Mrs. Alfred Leech, Mrs. E. J. Hibben, Mrs. Fred Alden, Mrs. H. F. Taylor, Mrs. Henry Meier, Miss Sue Scarritt and Miss Fannie Haeberle.

Dances were presented by Mrs. Margaret Reed of the Holly Lash Visel studio. Mrs. Pearl Kendall Hess spoke briefly on No. 3 and No. 9, amendments which will be voted on at the November election. Mrs. Hess was introduced by Mrs. Clara Vestal.

Mrs. George Everett Peterson acted as secretary in the place of Mrs. Paul Nelson, who was unable to be present. Mrs. Peterson also introduced the speaker of the afternoon, Miss Gessinger.

New members introduced were Mrs. Clara Vestal, Mrs. Wilber J. Alden, Miss Martha Steele, Mrs. Lawrence Collins and Mrs. John D. Hayes. Tea was served at the conclusion of the afternoon with the president, Mrs. W. F. Kogler, and the past president, Mrs. E. H. Smith, presiding at the lace spread tea table centered with a beautiful mixed bouquet.

MISS TRUMPHY BECOMES BRIDE OF L. F. FINLEY

ORANGE, Oct. 6.—Autumn golds were combined in the flowers used in decorating St. John's Lutheran church Sunday afternoon with the golden autumn sunshine, when Miss Thelma Trumphy, attractive brunet daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Trumphy, 633 East Maple avenue, was wedded to Loren G. Finley, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Finley, 409 North Shaffer street, the Rev. A. C. Bode, pastor of the church, reading the impressive ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a period frock of white brocade made with a train, the folds of her veil following the lines of the gown and caught with a wreath of orange blossoms. Roses, lilies of the valley and white gardenias were effectively combined in the beautiful shower bouquet she carried.

Attendants of the bride wore similar frocks of blues from turquoise to deep shades. Mrs. Rodney Leonard, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and her bouquet was of Talisman roses. Other attendants were Mrs. L. F. Pomeroy jr., sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. Robert Hafer and Mrs. Joseph Trumphy, all of whom carried arm bouquets of yellow roses, yellow sweetpeas and yellow snapdragons. Little Martha Lee Anderson, wearing a light blue frock, was flower girl.

Best man was the brother of the bridegroom, Lyle Finley, and ushers were Joseph Trumphy, Robert Hafer, Richard Ehlen and Henry Bosch. Preceding the ceremony, Miss Marie Fitschen provided a program of organ music and Miss Clara Fitschen sang as a solo, "Now We Thank We All Our God" and "O Promise me."

A reception was held at the Walker Memorial hall following the ceremony. In receiving her guests Mrs. Trumphy wore a gown of dark blue velvet and Mrs. Finley, mother of the bridegroom, blue lace, both wearing similar corsages of yellow rosebuds.

Ices centered with a yellow wedding bell were served with the wedding cake and appointments for the tables were carried out in yellow and white. At the reception program Miss Clara Fitschen, accompanied Miss Margaret Fitschen, who sang "At Dawning" and Mrs. Jean Des Larzes accompanied Miss Maryesther Wood and Miss Phyllis Kogler, who sang "The Bells of St. Mary's" and "In a Luxembourg Garden."

For traveling the bride chose a smart outfit of dark blue wool with black hat and accessories and the young couple will spend their honeymoon in the northern part of the state before establishing their home in this city.

VICTOR R. PRICE RITES WEDNESDAY

ORANGE, Oct. 6.—Funeral services for Victor R. Price, 51, of 254 South Glassell street, will be held Wednesday at 2:30 p. m. from the C. W. Coffey chapel with the Rev. James B. Abbott of the Free Methodist church of Orange officiating. Interment will be in Fairhaven cemetery.

The actual skin substance of dinosaurs has been found in Wyoming; the texture having been preserved 14,000,000 years.

COMPLETE HOMES
OUR SERVICE
BARR
LUMBER COMPANY
THE RIGHT MATERIALS
FOR EVERY KIND OF CONSTRUCTION
at THE Right PRICES

SANTA ANA REGISTER ORANGE COUNTY BUYERS' GUIDE

BUY IT IN SANTA ANA

AUTO BODIES (Opposite Birch Park) 429 WEST THIRD ST. AUTO PAINTING

BROOKS & ECHOLS
Expert body and fender repairs. Sport tops, side curtains, sedan decks, trimmings and auto glass replacements
Phone 337

FRANKE'S LACQUER SHOP DOES BETTER AUTO PAINTING
Electric Polishing and Waxing a Specialty

AUTOMOBILE CLUB of ORANGE COUNTY AUTOMOBILE INSURANCE
ORANGE COUNTY INSURANCE AGENCY — Insurance — All Kinds. 710 North Main St., Santa Ana. Phone 452.

AUTO TRUCKS—WHITE-INDIANA Tel. 350
A truck for every purpose. Complete service on all makes of trucks. General repairing. Now in our new location at 110 West 17th St. at Main. Sawyer Motor Co., Distributors for Orange Co.

BUILDING MATERIALS—HAULING Tel. 911
VAN DIEN-YOUNG COMPANY — Cement, lime, plaster, lath, brick, metal lath, stucco wire, steel, rock and sand, roofing, sewer pipe. Office and yards, 508 East Fourth street.

CARPET—LUDLUM—RUG CLEANING Tel. 2806
We clean and repair rugs and carpets. We also clean upholstered furniture and automobile upholstery. We do waxing and polishing of hardwood floors. We use ONLY soft water in our work. 1622 South Main street.

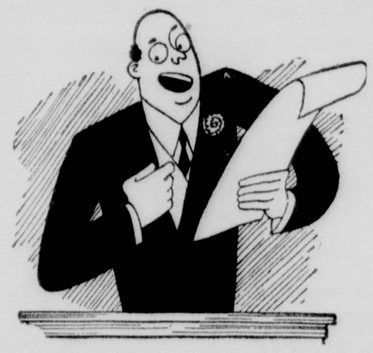

MILK PRODUCTS—PATTERSON DAIRY Tel. 2651
Milk, Cream, Buttermilk, Chocolate Milk, Cottage Cheese. The most exacting standards of quality; the greatest care in bottling. The SAFEST and BEST for your children. In Orange call 989-W. Patterson Dairy on West 1st Street.

MOTORCYCLES—RATHBUNS Tel. 191-W
Authorized distributors for Harley-Davidson motorcycles. Servi-Cars and package trucks in Orange county. A good motorcycle is the safest and cheapest motor transportation. Free demonstration. 80 miles per gallon of gasoline. Rebuilts that are guaranteed 90 days. A complete motorcycle service depot backed by 27 years experience. Rathbuns Motorcycle Co., 419 East 4th, Santa Ana.

PACIFIC PLUMBING CO. Tel. 99
Ruud and Continental Water Heaters. Magic Chef Gas Ranges. 1900 Whirlpool Washing Machines. Electrolux Refrigerators. Plumbing and Heating Contractors. Standard, Sanitary and Crane Plumbing fixtures. Expert, reasonable repair service. Showroom and shop at 313 North Ross street.

ROOFING—HOLMES ROOFING CO. Call 2060
Nothing adds to the value of your property more than a GOOD roof. We are roofing specialists and can save you money and trouble. Leaky roofs made like new. We are PABCO applicators of roofs of all kinds.
Office and Warehouse
312 East First Street — Santa Ana — Phone 2060

"I quote from the Record"—

The only record is the one you now hold in your hand—this newspaper

This is an election year. The air is filled with claims and counter-claims. What political speakers say is soon forgotten. Forgotten, but recorded!

The "record" is down in black and white—you hold today's record in your hand—it is this newspaper. This is a record that cannot die—that cannot be erased. For your newspaper is a record of fact!

Here is recorded exactly what was said and done by presidents and kings, by party leaders and candidates. More important, the newspaper interprets what it all means to you.

For this newspaper is edited especially for its readers. News of remote places is cut down. Local events are reported fully. Thus, a newspaper is "tailored" for the people it serves; you and your neighbors.

This is Newspaper Week. It is a good time to learn how "the record" is kept—for you.

KNOW YOUR NEWSPAPER

NEWSPAPER WEEK
OCTOBER 5-11

Producer of Tent Shows

HORIZONTAL

1 Famous man of last century
12 Fish net.
13 Ingenuous.
14 Blue grass.
16 Seller of hats.
18 Conceited precisians.
20 Paid publicity
21 Auto body.
23 Danish persons.
25 You and I.
27 To happen again.
29 He was a —— born American.
31 Blemish.
33 To turn aside.
34 Tardier.
35 Greedy.
37 Loaned.
38 At no time.
41 Monkey.
42 To divide.
44 Sun god.
46 Electrical term.
48 Prevalent.
49 Every.
51 Preposition.
53 Boy.
54 To grieve.
56 Stream obstruction.
58 His business.
62 Amphibian.
63 To say again.
64 Narrated.

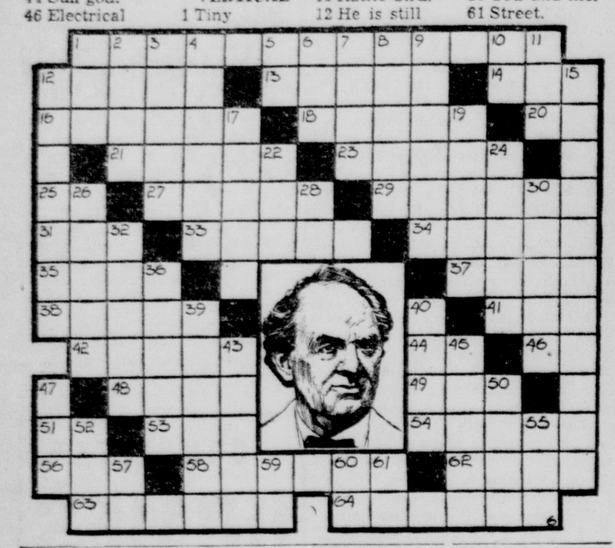

VERTICAL

1 Tiny vegetable.
2 Strikes.
3 To bury.
4 Required.
5 Form of "a."
6 To undermine.
7 Robin.
8 Pertaining to birds.
9 Pertaining to a reign.
10 Above.
11 Ratite bird.
12 He is still famous as a ——.
15 He believed in —— his wares
17 Contests of speed.
19 Pertaining to seta.
22 Almond.
24 Local positions.
26 Roof edges.
28 Musical note.
30 Veins.
32 Stream.
36 Demon.
39 To renew the front of.
40 To stuff.
43 Larva.
45 Overhead.
47 Seed bag.
50 To entice.
52 Distant.
55 Wand.
57 Myself.
59 Right.
60 You and me.
61 Street.

Answer to Previous Puzzle

J	A	S	C	H	A	H	E	I	F	E	T	Z
P	O	R	E	■	A	R	U	M	■	A	R	E	A	L
R	I	M	■	O	V	E	N	■	A	L	G	A	■	A
O	N	■	P	L	E	A	■	H	U	S	O	■	H	R
D	■	C	O	I	N	■	T	A	L	E	N	T	E	D
I	D	L	E	D	■	L	I	R	A	■	■	■	■	■
G	O	A	T	■	P	A	T	E	■	E	■	■	■	■
I	N	N	■	W	A	I	T	■	A	A	■	■	■	■
E	T	■	C	O	N	C	E	R	T	S	■	■	■	■
S	■	D	O	N	E	■	R	E	L	Y	■	■	■	■
■	E	A	S	T	■	M	E	T	E	■	D	E	L	E
O	M	I	T	■	P	E	R	I	■	M	O	L	A	R
R	U	S	S	I	A	N	■	A	M	E	R	I	C	A

JASCHA HEIFETZ

Brain Twizzlers

By Prof. J. D. Flint

The night manager of a metropolitan hotel looked up from his desk one evening and found a prospective guest standing there. The guest desired rooms for his party and when asked by the manager how many were in the party, he said, "If you are smart you will get our business. Our party is inter-related and we represent a mother, father, aunt, uncle, sister, brother, niece, nephew and two cousins. We have the least number in the party that will fulfill those relationships."

The manager's problem was to determine how many were in the party.

Answer to Yesterday's Twizzler

The General (whose name was Grenade) married Miss Tank; Howitzer married Miss Grenade; Verylight married Miss Howitzer; Mustardgas married Miss Verylight; Tank married Miss Mustardgas.

(Copyright John F. Dille Company)

DOHENY PARK

DOHENY PARK, Oct. 6. — Mr. and Mrs. Paul Burke, of Doheny Park, and Mr. and Mrs. Butler, of Santa Ana, enjoyed a trip to Catalina Island recently.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Guthard and Mr. and Mrs. Harry McCurdy have left for Sand Point, Ida. Mrs. Guthard and Mrs. McCurdy are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Henderson. They expect to make their home in Sand Point.

Four young people who were returning home from San Juan Hot Springs Friday night, suffered injuries when their car turned over three times. They were Miss Charlott Armstrong, Miss Margery Gallagher, Cecil Outhout and Harry Gunther. The car hit a soft shoulder and skiddod. Cecil Outhout was driving. The car was badly damaged.

Miss Armstrong had cuts and bruises, Mrs. Outhout had an injury to an ear, Mr. Gunther's finger was cut and Miss Gallagher had to have several stitches taken in her right leg.

Mrs. Fred Moe and Mrs. Henry Armstrong were recent guests at a luncheon given by Mrs. William General in Laguna Beach. They attended the luncheon of the Laguna Woman's club Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Roberts, of Maywood, spent the weekend with Mrs. Robert's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Greenside.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Wallace are proud grandparents. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wallace, of Glendale are the parents of a son, born Thursday evening.

LA HABRA

LA HABRA, Oct. 6.—Miss Eunice Launer, who is attending U. S. C. spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. Launer.

Miss Ethel Wiede, attending the Santa Barbara State Teachers' college, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Wiede, at their home on East Central avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Clark and daughter, Marilyn, of Los Angeles, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Clark and daughter, Jean.

DINNER HELD BY O. E. S. OFFICERS

LA HABRA, Oct. 6—Matrons and patrons of the 56th district of the Order of the Eastern Star were guests recently at a fried chicken dinner given by Mrs. Ruth Jane Davis, deputy grand matron of the district. The affair was given at the La Habra Masonic temple.

Bridge and "500" were played during the evening, with prizes in the bridge games going to Mrs. William Lockenmeyer and James Tarpley for high scores and to Mrs. Vida Snell and Ralph Seward, consolation. Prizes in the "500" games went to Mrs. William Nitell and William Lochenmeyer, high, and Mrs. William Abplanalp and Dr. Jackson for consolation.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Leutwiler, of La Habra; Dr. and Mrs. Jackson, of Brea; Mrs. Esther Long and Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Lacey, of Fullerton; Mr. and Mrs. Kirk, of Anaheim; Mr. and rMs. Huston Lile and Mr. and Mrs. William Nitell, of Yorba Linda; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Seward, of Anaheim; Mrs. Vida Snell and Mr. and Mrs. William Alplanalp, of Buena Park; Mr. and Mrs. William Lochenmeyer and Mr. and Mrs. William Ccheifle, of Artesia; Mr. and Mrs. Ned Bridge, of Norwalk, and Mr. and Mrs. James Tarpley, of Santa Ana.

Tall buildings have a wind-sway of approximately 11-2 inches.

STORIES IN STAMPS

By I. S. Klein

The STAR-GAZING GENERAL

THE stars and the planets formed the world of Milan Rastislaw Stefanik, young Czech scientist and inventor, before the World War. But fame came to him more for his exploits on the battlefield, in the name of the newly organized country, than for his world-wide astronomical studies.

For Milan Stefanik became one of the leaders in the liberation of Czechoslovakia. With President Mazaryk, during the war, he traveled through Europe and America, seeking recognition for the new country. And during the fighting, he advanced in rank at the head of his own organized countrymen, leading them at the battle of Arras, at Salonika, in Russia and Siberia.

After the war, General Stefanik became minister of national defense for Czechoslovakia. May 4, 1919, he entered an airplane at Udine. Italy, after a diplomatic visit, but never got back to his country. The plane fell in flames.

The general's portrait appears on a stamp which Czechoslovakia issued recently.

(Copyright, 1936, NEA Service, Inc.)

NEXT: Whom do the "colossi" of Thebes commemorate?

FUN FOR THE WHOLE FAMILY

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES — Ouch! — By MARTIN

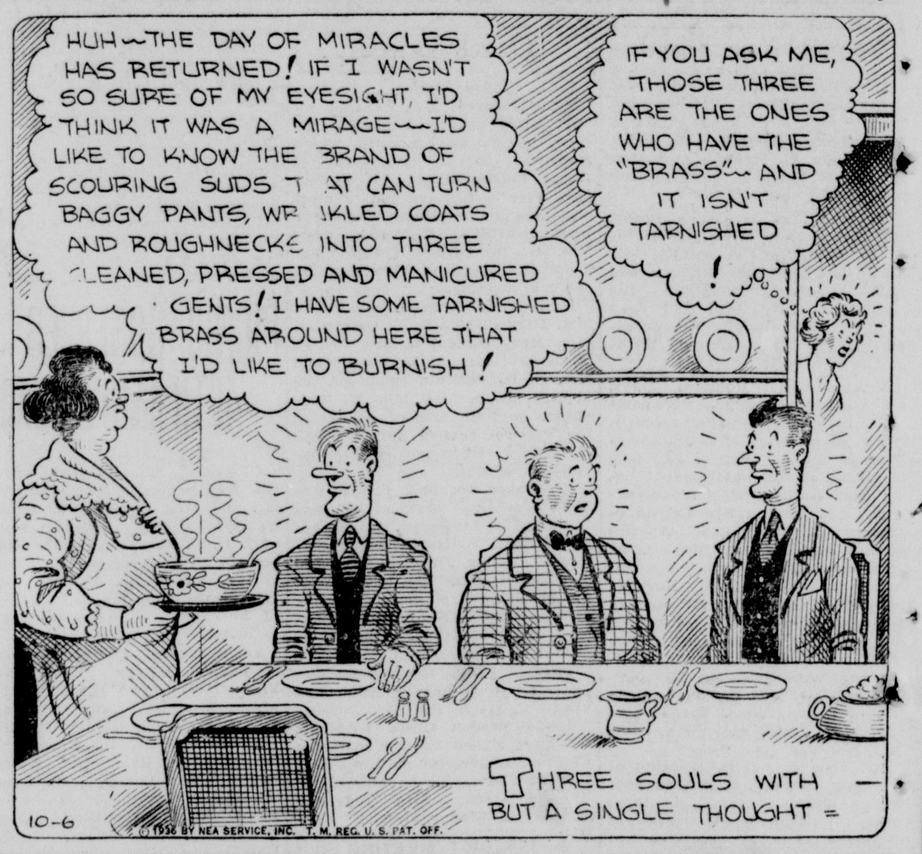

WASH TUBBS — Worse—and More of It — By CRANE

OUT OUR WAY — by WILLIAMS

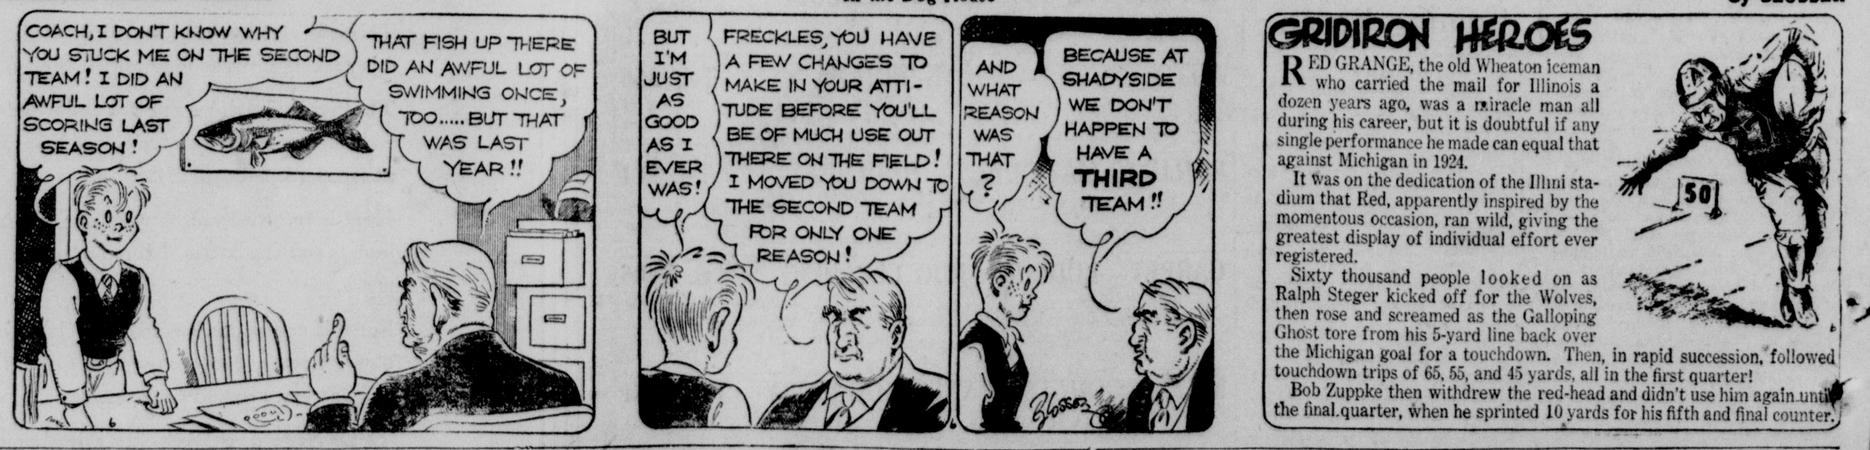

OUR BOARDING HOUSE . ..... with ..... Major Hoople

MYRA NORTH, SPECIAL NURSE — An Old Friend — By THOMPSON AND COLL

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS — In the Dog House — By BLOSSER

GRIDIRON HEROES

RED GRANGE, the old Wheaton iceman who carried the mail for Illinois a dozen years ago, was a miracle man all during his career, but it is doubtful if any single performance he made can equal that against Michigan in 1924.

It was on the dedication of the Illini stadium that Red, apparently inspired by the momentous occasion, ran wild, giving the greatest display of individual effort ever registered.

Sixty thousand people looked on as Ralph Steger kicked off for the Wolves, then rose and screamed as the Galloping Ghost tore from his 5-yard line back over the Michigan goal for a touchdown. Then, in rapid succession, followed touchdown trips of 65, 55, and 45 yards, all in the first quarter!

Bob Zuppke then withdrew the red-head and didn't use him again until the final quarter, when he sprinted 10 yards for his fifth and final counter.

ALLEY OOP — Some Consolation — By HAMLIN

News Of Orange County Communities

Newport Council Accepts $190,826 Bid On Sea Wall

PERMIT ISSUED FOR BAY RACES ON NOVEMBER 1

NEWPORT BEACH, Oct. 6.—Bids for constructing the sea wall around Balboa Island were opened last night at the regular meeting of the Newport Beach City council. Of the two bids received, that of the Griffith company, Los Angeles, was the lowest, totaling $190,826.19, and upon recommendation of City Engineer R. L. Patterson the council moved to have that recommendation forwarded to WPA headquarters.

The other bid received was from the A & B Construction company, Monterey Park, and totaled $202,868.61. The successful bidder agreed to start the work in due time after the contract had been awarded and to have the work completed within 240 calendar days from the awarding date.

Backed by recommendations of the Southern California Yachting association and the American Power Boat association, Commodore John Stick of the California Yacht club and that organization's regatta committee chairman, Paul Lamport, addressed the council and obtained permission to hold races for 732 cubic inch speed boats on November 1.

Pier Planned

The council, subject to the regular procedure, passed requests for a pleasure pier to be constructed by Mrs. M. J. Davis on Lido Isle and underground storage tanks on the state highway to be installed by W. J. Bristol.

D. A. Behr made application for renewal of his lease with the city on a three-year basis. Upon recommendation of the planning commission the council rejected a request from the Irvine company to change the zoning ordinance to permit the installation of a trailer camp at Corona del Mar and another request from R. L. Willets for further changes in the zoning ordinance.

The city engineer was granted $500 to conduct a survey of the erosion of the ocean front between the Newport pier and the Santa Ana river and his further request that the city seek aid of the U. S. Beach Erosion board was also granted.

To Sign Agreement

The council agreed to sign an agreement whereby the city was permitted to dump sewage in the Orange County Outfall sewer, the sewage to come from the area now within the incorporated city limits.

On recommendation of Councilman Irving Gordon, chairman of the street committee, the salary of City Engineer Patterson was raised to $400 per month.

A request from the Irvine company that amendments to a Corona del Mar lease be stricken from the lease was not allowed, with the council instructing the city attorney to let the lease lay in his files.

The request of Mrs. W. I. Williams that the city give two lots for the building of a church was not allowed due to constitutional restrictions.

City Buys Cars

Theodore Robbins of Newport Beach was the successful bidder in furnishing the city with additional auto equipment, the equipment to be a car and truck, the bid totaling $1570.05 for both.

Bids for insuring the city's cars and trucks were received from Lew Wallace, $810.87; L. W. Briggs, $639.55; C. F. Dennison, $811.43, and J. P. Greeley, $788.32. All bids were referred to the city engineer for inspection and report.

Ruben Cole's request that the city buy fireworks and bunting to celebrate the opening of the new state highway grade separation at the Arches was not allowed as the opening is only temporary and proper ceremonies are planned in conjunction with the state at the time the work is complete which will be about November 1.

Bapeist Group to Meet October 15

BREA, Oct. 6.—Mrs. W. M. Shoff, president of the Missionary society of the Baptist church, announced today that the Santa Ana Valley Missionary association directors will meet in the Baptist church here October 15, beginning at 10 a. m.

The luncheon menu is being apportioned among the various societies of the association, the women of the Brea church being asked to supply the drink and table service. About 60 are expected to attend.

All phases of missionary work will be set forth and all the women of the church are welcome to attend. All directors of the association are expected to be present, it is stated by the president, Mrs. A. J. Copas.

DR. CROAL
DENTIST
Phone 2885 for Appointment
NOW LOCATED
410½ NORTH MAIN STREET

Mrs. Stephens Is Hostess To Club

LA HABRA, Oct. 6.—Mrs. O. T. Stephens entertained the members of the La Tarde Feliz club at her home on West Greenwood avenue recently. A 1 o'clock dessert luncheon was served, with the fall colors carried out in the floral decoration of zinnias and marigolds. Bridge was played during the afternoon and scores were recorded for the annual prizes.

Attending were Mrs. A. W. McBride, Mrs. R. W. Vanderhoof, Mrs. A. J. Young and Mrs. H. S. Hoard, guests of the club, and Mrs. A. V. Douglass, Mrs. A. J. Wilson, Mrs. Louis Muchow, Mrs. W. F. Heiden, Mrs. J. A. Chewning, Mrs. George Soule, Mrs. C. L. Crumrine, Mrs. Walter Hole, Mrs. R. W. Walling, Mrs. J. W. Smith, Mrs. G. A. Van Valin and Mrs. L. H. Brewer.

CITY COUNCIL GETS PROTESTS ON ORDINANCES

PLACENTIA, Oct. 6.—The Placenita city council last night was more or less swamped with protests of ordinances, coming from various sources on the building code, on sidewalk placement, on the wheel tax, the house moving code, and on games of chance with playing cards.

The council, with the recommendations of George Holden, attorney taking the place of Tom McFadden as city attorney, determined to maintain its stand on the collection of the wheel tax. The protests were from A. Zlacket, an independent grocer affiliated with Certified Grocers, and from the Placentia Orange Growers' association and the Placentia Mutual Orange association, whose protests were brought by Chief of Police Gus Barnes.

All claimed that their trucking business, Zlacket with deliveries from his mutually owned wholesale department and the packing house men that the hauling was not a business and should be exempt. Holden interpreted the code as applicable to both kinds of organizations.

H. J. Scott, inspecting a building that was being remodeled, and that had been moved into the city without permit, appeared with the owner, H. O. Lander. After Lander had protested the code ruling, he agreed to make plans in conformity with the code adopted.

Councilmen stood against permitting Harlan Newnes using trade check prizes in games in his business. It was brought out during the investigation that Placentia has a law against games with playing cards in public places.

Work will start the last of this week or next week on the labor part of an alley and street resurfacing project under the WPA, according to George Bates, city engineer.

Reports were read by Mrs. Nellie Cline, clerk. The city judge, S. C. Harmony, collected $125.51. There is a total of $1996.99 on hand in the treasury and $2836.41 in the special gas tax fund, reported on by the city treasurer, J. H. Rymer.

Horace Lucy, assistant police officer, will start on his vacation Wednesday. Wayne Mabry will take his place.

The council voted to terminate the contract with E. Stockwell for hauling garbage from the city.

Rally Services Set For Sunday

WESTMINSTER, Oct. 6.—Annual Rally day services of the Westminster Presbyterian Sunday school will be held next Sunday morning in connection with the Rev. Samuel Edgar, pastor of the Reformed Presbyterian church of Santa Ana, as speaker at the service, which will open at 9:45 o'clock.

Christian Endeavor and church service hours have been advanced to 6 and 7 o'clock, respectively.

INSTALLATION SERVICES FOR PASTOR OCT. 11

SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO, Oct. 6.—An impressive installation service is being arranged for Sunday evening at San Juan Capistrano Community Presbyterian church for the Rev. Albert N. Park jr., who has accepted a unanimous call from the congregation to serve as pastor of the church.

Taking part in the service will be Dr. Theodore F. Smith, moderator of the Los Angeles Presbytery; Dr. Hugh McNinch, pastor emeritus of the local church; Dr. Glen W. Moore, executive secretary of Los Angeles Presbytery; Dr. O. Scott McFarland, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Santa Ana; Capt. Robert Dub. Workman, ranking chaplain of the battleship force, U. S. navy; Lieut.-Com. Harry M. Peterson, chaplain of the U. S. marine base at San Diego, and Captain Park, who is a retired naval chaplain.

An organ is t obe installed in the church for the occasion and commencing at 7 o'clock an hour's recital will be played. The instillation service will follow the recital.

Rally day is planned for the Sunday school at 9:40 a. m. A committee of young people will have charge of the Sunday school program and social at the church Friday evening at 7:45 o'clock.

According to David T. Prenter, superintendent of the Sunday school, the program will include games for young and old. There will be music and refreshments.

Diplomas earned by completion of work in the various departments will be presented and certificates of merit and other awards for faithful attendance will be given. Regular church services will follow, with Captain Park occupying the pulpit.

Officers of the church invite all in the coastline community to attend the services as well as the regular services throughout the year.

Friday evening, October 23, at 7 o'clock, has been set aside for a dinner and reception for Captain Park.

Workers have been busy the past week at the church. Plaster repairs have been made and the church has been painted.

Two Honored At Birthday Affair

SMELTZER, Oct. 6.—Complimenting her sister and brother, Pauline Applebury and Leonard Applebury, Miss Betty Applebury surprised them with a party at the Applebury home recently. Following games ice cream and birthday cake were served.

The table decorations were carried out in pink and white. A large anniversary cake baked by an aunt, Mrs. Della Applebury, centered the long table while smaller cakes, one bearing 14 candles, the other 12, were placed at the respective ends of the table.

The anniversary group included besides Pauline and Leonard Applebury and hostess, Betty Applebury, Scott and Gwendolyn Hoeptner, Louis and Marjorie Betschart, of Talbert; Billy and Jack Kettler, Vernon and Clifford Houser, Roger Dean Graham, Medora and Hotsumi Kitjimi, of Springdale; Donald Phillips, Bobbie Heil, of Smeltzer; Raymond and Joy Holt, of Garden Grove; Normand and Donald Harding, of Bolsa; Betty Slater and Betty Jean Beem, of Wintersburg, and Joyce Campbell, Midway City.

MEXICANS IN PROGRAM

WESTMINSTER, Oct. 6.—Several hundred Mexicans were in Westminster Sunday in attendance at the all day meeting of Sociedad Progrecista, Mexican lodge, which has 29 organizations throughout California, with an approximate membership of 1000 persons. Members of Westminster lodge, General Maribo Escabedo No. 25, were hosts at the program and dance included on the program.

HUNTINGTON BEACH COUNCIL ALLOWS GOLF COURSE FUNDS; PWA TO AID IMPROVEMENTS

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Oct. 6—The golf course here, leased from the city and operated as a private course, will not be allowed to go to ruin by the city council, it was decided last night when the council appropriated $500 to install a water sprinkling system and make other needed improvements and repairs. The action taken was in compliance with the request of the Women's Golf club of the city expressed by letter to the council.

Councilman Arthur Morehouse opposed spending money on the golf course, saying the city did not even have a valid lease on the grounds, owned by the Standard Oil company. But Councilman Lee C. Chamness, chairman of parks and streets, pleaded strongly for the needed finances to keep the golf course in good condition. He was seconded by Councilman Hendrickson. Mayor Warner was absent from the meeting and Councilman Tom B. Talbert presided as mayor. The $500 appropriation went over by a three to one vote, Morehouse voting against it.

Wants Bees Moved

Councilman Lee Chamness made complaint about the bees on the east side. He said that some apiaries are maintained inside the city limits and that private homes have a few hives. He called the bees a nuisance. The council took the matter under advisement.

Councilman Morehouse reported that the piano committee, composed of himself and City Clerk C. R. Furr, had agreed on a Knabe piano offered by a Long Beach music house for $680. The new piano is for the city auditorium at Memorial hall. The council authorized the purchase of the piano as recommended by the committee.

PWA Aids Projects

Councilman Chamness said the PWA would take over as its projects the Tent City improvements as outlined by the city engineer and the improvements to Lake Park. The work will cost $2000 for Tent City and $450 for Lake park. The council accepted the offer of the PWA. Tent City is the section of the municipal beach set aside for auto camp purposes.

D. G. Higgins, captain of the life guards, submitted his report for the summer season. There were 298,075 visitors at the beach this summer, he estimated. This was a gain of 78 per cent over the previous year. There were 51,180 visitors and 21,135 autos registered at the auto camp on the beach.

Criticizes Operators

Councilman Hendrickson criticized oil operators who had turned waste oil from dehydrators into the sewer lines, declaring that the oil might ruin the new sewer plant of the city. One oil operator was fined $50 recently when he pleaded guilty to allowing waste oil to flow into the sewer lines.

The city allows the oil men to turn waste water from the dehydrators into the sewer lines but not the waste oil.

BRIDGE CLUB MEETS

SPRINGDALE, Oct. 6.—The Farmer's Bridge club met recently with Mr. and Mrs. Emil Kettler as hosts at their home. Refreshments of pie and coffee were served. Those present were Mrs. Agnes Gothard, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Woodington, Mr. and Mrs. William Kettler, Albert Ruoff, Mr. and Mrs. John Kettler and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Kettler. Prize winners at bridge were Mr. and Mrs. Woodington and Mrs. Gothard.

CHANEY TALKS ON AMERICAN DILEMMA

PLACENTIA, Oct. 6.—"Shall We Save or Spend—An American Dilemna," was the topic presented by Homer C. Chaney at the Orange County Public Forum at the Calencia high school last night. The attendance was about double that of last week.

After outlining the two lines of thinking on financial matters, that of "thrift" and that of "spending" and the results of extremes in either direction, the speaker made suggestions to cushion effects of those extremes.

Eight plans were suggested, first, to increase wages which method, the speaker said, would be effective provided wages were raised during prosperity and not after a depression started; use of consumers' co-operatives for wider distribution of income; socialized savings; reduction of cost production and price to consumer; use of continued mild inflation; national dividend, or social credit, nationalized credit and to balance savings and spending by planned economy.

Baptists To Hold Revival Services

FULLERTON, Oct. 6.—Special evangelistic meetings are being planned for the Baptist church starting October 11 and continuing through November 1, according to announcement of the pastor, the Rev. Francis E. Hawes.

The Women's union of the church will meet all day Thursday at the church for sewing and a program. Services of the afternoon will include a talk by Attorney W. L. Waters at 2 p. m. on "The Path to the Ballot."

Hostesses at luncheon will be Mrs. Jennie Pickering, Mrs. Ethel Good, Mrs. Martha Patton, Mrs. Mamie Gage, and Mrs. Edna Perdue.

La Habra Group Plans Card Party

LA HABRA, Oct. 6.—A public card party is planned by the American Legion auxiliary for October 16 in Memorial hall. Both bridge and "500" will be played. The auxiliary has voted to serve the treat to the children taking part in the Hallowe'en parade as in other years.

RALLY SERVICE CONDUCTED IN MESA CHURCH

COSTA MESA, Oct. 6.—E. A. Rea, vice principal of the Newport Harbor Union High school, and Henry Abrams, principal of the Costa Mesa Elementary schools, were the main speakers on a Rally day program given in the Community church at the Sunday School hour Sunday. The theme of the program was "Christian Training and Christian Development in the Young People of School Age."

"A nation reflects the type of people of which it is made," Mr. Rea said. "As right leadership comes from information from the life of Jesus Christ, young people should not neglect their church school training."

Mr. Abrams pointed out that practically all of the boys and girls of school age in California go to the public schools, but statistics show that only about 50 per cent of them attend institutions for religious training. "Christian training should be taught both in the home and in the church school to insure the development of character that the nation needs for its future leadership," he said.

The Rev. Grow S. Brown, superintendent of the Sunday school, spoke briefly on the theme of the program and also gave several readings from the poems of Robert Louis Stevenson. The Rev. W. I. Lowe, pastor of the church, also gave a short talk.

Mrs. Grow S. Brown was in charge of the lesson for the Epworth league in the evening. Mrs. Brown, formerly a missionary in China, gave a lesson on missionary work. The Rev. Mr. Lowe spoke on the theme, "Looking Forward" at the evening worship period. The Epworth league choir furnished the music.

MONTAGUE TRANSFERRED

SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO, Oct. 6.—H. B. Montague, who has been employed by the American Fruit Growers' association as field man in Orange county, has been transferred by the association to Oxnard. Mr. and Mrs. Montague will make their home in Ventura. The Montagues have been residents of San Juan Capistrano for the past four and one-half years.

New Leader For Club Auxiliary

BUENA PARK, Oct. 6.—Mrs. Robert Rittenhouse (Marie Hatch) resigned as president of the junior auxiliary of the Woman's club at the opening session at the Woman's clubhouse. Mrs. Frank Wilsey, vice president, assumed her station, while Mrs. Percy Owens was elected vice president of the club. Mr. and Mrs. Rittenhouse are moving to Costa Mesa at an early date.

Mrs. Richard Nelson and Mrs. Bert Wells are sponsors of the junior organization from the senior club.

Mrs. Rittenhouse and Mrs. Wilsey served a refreshment course of pie-a'-la-mode following the meeting. Appointments of fall flowers were used in decorating.

700 ATTEND PLAY IN LAGUNA BEACH

LAGUNA BEACH, Oct. 6. — Nearly 700 persons packed the Laguna high school auditorium Saturday night to witness the presentation of "The Mikado," produced by the federal theaters propect. With a cast of 17 professionals, a chorus of 60 voices, and an orchestra of 20 pieces, the Gilbert and Sullivan masterpiece was well received.

Julius Lieb, well known in Orange county, was conductor; musical arrangements were under the supervisions of Leon Eckles and production details were handled by William G. Stewart. Arrangements are afoot to secure a return engagement for "Mikado" at an early date.

Honor Three At Birthday Party

LA HABRA, Oct. 6.—A triple birthday party was held recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Mills honoring the pastor of the Missionary Baptist church, the Rev. Silas Hill; the Sunday school superintendent, W. J. Hipolite, and the church pianist, Miss Jean Ludy, whose birthday fall on the same day.

Mrs. Howard Ludy was in charge of the entertainment and following the games a musical hour was enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. Homer Shirey led the community singing and Mr. Shirey sang two solos. A large basket of flowers was presented to the honorees who in turn presented the gift to the church.

A decorated birthday cake in the Hallowe'en motif for the honorees and one for Miss Ludy individually formed a part of the refreshment course.

BEACH CHURCH HOLDS RALLY DAY SERVICES

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Oct. 6—Rally day was held at the First Methodist church Sunday with the Sunday school and church classes offering morning and evening programs and many members and former members attending both services.

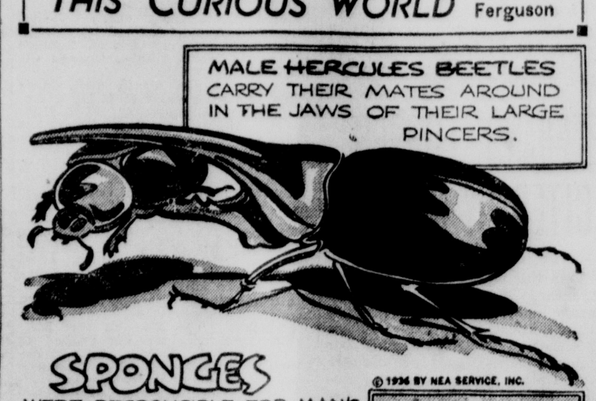

Mrs. Walter D. Cole, wife of the pastor, was in charge of both programs, which were as follows: Hymn: "Brightly Gleams Our Banner;" welcome to parents and scholars, Ernest Gregory, superintendent of Sunday school; salute to Stars and Stripes, Willis Warner jr.; salute to the Christian flag, Joe Cady; song, "When He Cometh," Patricia Colvin; song and welcome, Mary Ray Vandeveer and beginners' department; song of primary department assisted by Charlene Rimel, soloist; prayer song, junior department.

Scripture reading, First Psalm, junior department; "The Lord's Prayer," an interpretive poem, by eighth and ninth grade girls, with solo by Cleo Waugh; reading, "The Church," Mrs. Roy Smith; offeratory, Mrs. Edna Conrad, pianist; Ralph C. Turner and Mr. Robinson, violinists; "Objectives of the Church," address by the Rev. Walter B. Cole; song, "Living For Jesus," by the young people's department.

"Second Chance," a morality play featured the evening service. The cast included Mrs. Linda Achey, George Chalmers, Harry Groves, Bob Stricklin and Norman Young.

Miss Loretta Stine, popular local musician, rendered a group of instrumental numbers on the marimba. Miss Lila McCall, attractive soloist, sang the prayer song "At Evening." The play was directed by Mrs. Cole.

THIS CURIOUS WORLD By William Ferguson

THE sponge industry is among the oldest on earth. It is mentioned frequently in the literature of the ancient Greeks, and is referred to in the Old Testament. The sponge fisheries of the Mediterranean grew into an important industry at an early date, and the entire populations of sea-coast towns made their living at the trade.

NEXT: What was the origin of the word lynching?

SUBURBAN HEIGHTS By GLUYAS WILLIAMS

FRED PERLEY GOT IN A PICKLE WHEN, ACTING AS PEACE MAKER, HE TOOK THE DOLL AWAY FROM THE GRIGSBY CHILD WHO HAD JUST REDUCED THE PLUMER GIRL TO TEARS BY WRESTING IT FROM HER, AND DISCOVERED SOON AFTER BOTH CHILDREN HAD FLED HOME WAILING, THAT THE DOLL BELONGED TO THE GRIGSBY GIRL

10-b (Copyright, 1936, by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.) GLUYAS WILLIAMS

TRANS-PACIFIC FLIGHT

BY DECK MORGAN

© 1936, NEA Service, Inc.

BEGIN HERE TODAY

KAY DUNN, pretty airplane stewardess, falls in love with TED GRAHAM, veteran pilot who flies the trans-Pacific route.

Ted has two interests in life—his job and DICKIE, his adopted son, 7 years old. When Ted asks Kay to marry him, she fears it is merely to make a home for Dickie, but she agrees.

She does not agree, though, with Ted's theories that marriage, to be successful, must be planned scientifically, just as a plane flight. She is rebellious because he insists her housekeeping must be carried on in the same way, with charts and budgets.

Kay gives a party and Ted, tired and weary, refuses to join the guests. To punish him, Kay impulsively boards the plane for Honolulu next morning.

In Honolulu she learns there is an outbreak of spinal meningitis at Midway, and Ted is piloting a plane bringing serum. Ted arrives, takes off again shortly. Without making her presence known, Kay boards the ship. ILLAH, Oriental dancer, also is a passenger.

A violent storm breaks but there is no serious difficulty until the direction finder fails to work. Kay, Ted and the navigation officer are in the chart room when Illah enters. Pistol in hand, she demands the plans of Ted's invention, the gyropilot.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER XXIV

ILLAH advanced menacingly toward the two ship's officers, pistol in hand. "Go into the cockpit," she ordered, and Ted and the navigation officer moved backward, followed by Kay.

Illah brandished the automatic in the radio officer's face. She gave a call number. "Get in contact with that station immediately," she said. "It's a pearling schooner, anchored at Wake Island."

The radio officer sat down and tapped out the call on the sending set. After a moment he said, "They don't answer."

"You lie!"

The radio officer protested. "But I tell you they don't answer. Since you know the position of the ship, though, I can broadcast the message on the wave-length. They'll get it."

Illah smiled. "That is good. That is fate. Send the message at once."

When he had finished, Illah shrugged her shoulders. "I die," she said, "knowing my work is well done. I am a mystic. I am not afraid."

Slowly she gathered her white veils about her and walked back into the passenger compartment.

* * *

TED returned to the chart room and sent Kay into the passenger compartment to reassure the women. The storm had not abated.

A message came in from the station at Midway and Ted took it in with a glance.

"YOUR SIGNALS HAVE FADED OUT. ARE YOU OFF COURSE? HONOLULU SAYS YOU ARE LOST. WHAT'S WRONG WITH RADIO COMPASS? STORM FADING OVER ISLAND. VISIBILITY IMPROVING."

Ted's eyes shone with renewed hope. He went to the radio officer for a new report.

"The messages are coming in stronger," the officer said. "We can't be far from Midway."

"If we can only find the lagoon on the island," Ted said hopefully. "We can't come down in the open sea with waves piling 30 feet high over the reefs."

Then he came back to Kay. He called her into the crew compartment where they could be alone. "Kay," he said, "I simply want you to know that I trust you, and have always trusted you. I don't want things unsaid to come between us—ever. Whatever happens—"

She faced him, tears in her eyes. "Oh, Ted! Nothing can happen!"

* * *

WHEN Ted had gone back to his post he found another message from Midway:

"NO SIGNALS FOR LAST HOUR. ARE YOU LOST OVER OCEAN? TRY TO SIGNAL BATTLESHIP U. S. S. MISSISSIPPI LATITUDE 19 DEGREES 15 MINUTES NORTH AND LONGITUDE 167 DEGREES 30 MINUTES EAST."

"The messages are coming in strong now," the radio officer said. "We can't be more than a hundred miles away from Midway. I'm trying to reach the Mississippi."

"But we can't do much circling," Ted said anxiously. "We've got to locate the island without a direction finder now."

He and the navigation officer took up their positions on the bridge. The latter looked at the instruments and then said, "This is one time the human element will have to take the place of the machine. It's your ship, Ted. I ask you to try to bring us in. One man will have to take the responsibility, and it's yours."

No sooner had Ted taken the controls that the radio officer came with another message. Ted opened the throttles of the four 800-horsepower engines and ordered the engineer to change the propeller pitch. They were steadily increasing speed.

He scanned the message. "NO SIGNALS YET. ARE YOU LOST OVER OCEAN? STORM LIFTING. CHANGING HIGH PRESSURE AREA. CEILING 300 FEET."

They brought him another message:

"The U. S. S. Mississippi is coming in on the radio! They're calling!"

Ted barked orders now. "Get the Midway Station and triangulate. Find our position and we'll ride the beam in."

* * *

THE crew was jubilant. The navigation officer was at work, finding his position on the improvised "beam." It was not as accurate as the direction finder, but it might work in this emergency.

The navigation officer "located" the Mariner, in short order. She was flying in a tangent toward the island, and they were almost overhead!

Ted's uncanny navigation had brought them straight to the island. He had felt his way through the storm!

But when he went down to 500 feet again he found the ceiling low and took the ship back out to sea.

He glanced at the fuel tank and made a decision to wait.

A message came through. "NO SIGNALS, BUT YOU HAVE CIRCLED TWICE OVERHEAD AND GONE BACK TO SEA. IS FUEL HOLDING OUT? LIGHTS AND FLAMES ON LAGOON. CAN YOU COME IN? CEILING LIFTING."

Ted kept his face sternly to the task. There was no use taking a chance when they were so close to safety. He came down to 300 feet above the surface and asked for his position on the triangle. The ceiling was still too low. But suddenly his face was set in a grim expression and he decided to ride the improvised "beam" in.

Tiny beads of perspiration popped out on his forehead. His eyes were glued to the instruments. Two hundred feet! One hundred and eighty feet. One hundred and fifty feet!

Suddenly, before the eyes of every crew member and passenger, there burst forth the glare of searchlights and flares over the black lagoon. Ted's eyes swept the black fronds of the palms as he leveled off, and brought the ship down in calm, familiar waters.

Midway Island! Uncle Sam's outpost in the middle of the Pacific Ocean.

Passengers cried out with joy, and tears welled in Kay's eyes as she went forward toward Ted.

(To Be Concluded)

RADIO NEWS

High lights from the careers of Joe Di Maggio, Tony Lazzeri, Frank Crossetti and "Lefty" Gomez will be given by Ira Blue in his brief biographical sketches of San Francisco heroes of the 1936 World series baseball games during his Sports Forum broadcast over the NBC station KPO today at 7:45 p. m.

Harry Richman, flying troubadour, will make his third guest appearance on the 'Laugh with Ken Murray" program over the nationwide Columbia network today, from 8:30 to 9 p. m.

Fred Astaire and Charles Butterworth have collaborated in the presentation of their new singing discovery, Trudy Wood, who will step out of the Uptowners to join Astaire in a duet, "Me and the Moon," and to sing a popular tune as a solo during the Packard hour over the NBC-Red network today, at 6:30 p. m.

Gwynfi and Oliver Jones, brothers who came to California from Wales, land of coal miners and music, will be two of the four soloists on the Good Morning Tonight program over the NBC-Red network today from 9:30 to 10 p. m.

Rupert Hughes, the Caravan's versatile master of ceremonies, will present another gala hour program from Hollywood with guest artists and Nat Shilkret's orchestra, during the broadcast over the nationwide Columbia network today from 6:30 to 7:30 p. m.

Mouthies, old and new, and all of them as ridiculous as possible, will be offered by Gracie Allen, with George Burns struggling futilely to keep cool, during their broadcast over the nationwide Columbia network tomorrow from 8:30 to 9 p. m.

"The Case of John Leonard Whitfield," nicknamed "The Cat", will be reenacted by Phillips Lord's "Gang Busters" in their broadcast over the nationwide Columbia network tomorrow from 7 to 7:30 p. m.

The three-cornered love-affair between Gerina Mason, teacher at the Red Onion schoolhouse, Tom Baxter from New York City, and Joe Purdue, scion of one of the best mountaineer families, again will occupy the attention of the Rev. Josiah Hopkins and his parishioners during the "Goose Creek Parson" program over the Columbia network tomorrow, from 7:45 to 8 p. m.

Joining in the second of a series of NBC Tenth Anniversary tributes, Johnny O'Brien, NBC harmonica wizard; Ralph Richards, pianist, and Ralina Zarova, soprano, will be heard with Meredith Willson's orchestra in a half-hour program over a coast-to-coast NBC-Blue network from San Francisco tomorrow, at 7:30 p. m.

"Pop Eyes on a Pogo Stick" is Meredith Willson's description of his musical caricature of Eddie Cantor, which will be a feature of the second broadcast in the series of NBC Tenth anniversary tributes which the NBC maestro is presenting tomorrow at 7:30 p. m., over the NBC-Blue network.

TONIGHT'S PROGRAMS

4 to 5 P. M.

KFWB—Nip and Tuck; 4:30, Popular Music; 4:45, Hearth and Home; 4:50, Popular Music.

KMTR—Almanac; 4:30, Arizona Indians; 4:55, Beverly Hillbillies.

KFI—Easy Aces; 4:15, Voice of Experience; 4:30, John Herrick; 4:45, Rush Hughes.

KHJ—Sunset Serenade; 4:15, Herbert Foote Ensemble; 4:25, Joan Bennett; 4:30, Benny Fields; 4:45, Lee Wiley, sololst.

KFVD—Talk; 4:15, Records; 4:30, Talk; 4:45, Organ.

KNX— Hometown Sketches; 4:15, Rest Haven; 4:45, Ballet in Blue.

KFOX—Talk; 4:15, William-Walsh Orchestra; 4:25, Talks; 4:45, Talk.

KFAC—Organ; 4:15, Records; 4:30, Talk; 4:45, Inspector Emory.

KECA—Evening Prelude; 4:15, Tony Russell; 4:30, Joey Nash; 4:45, Vivian Della Chiesa.

KVOE—All Request Program; 4:30, Popular Presentation.

5 to 6 P. M.

KFWB—Gold Star Rangers.

KMTR—Beverly Hillbillies.

KFI—"Long About Sundown; 5:30, Facts; 5:45, Crosscuts.

KHJ—Music Hall; 5:30, Chapel Moments; 5:45, George Fischer.

KFVD—Irish Rover; 5:15, Records.

KNX—Maurice's Orch.; 5:20, Buddy-Ginger; 5:30, Jack Armstrong; 5:45, Orphan Annie.

KFOX—Round Up; 5:15, Hollywood Brevities; 5:30, Talk; 5:40, Rolly Wray; 5:45, Mystery Drama.

KFAC—Christian Science; 5:15, Remembering; 5:30, Whoa Bill.

KECA— Paul Martin; 5:30, Beaux Arts Trio.

KVOE—Instrumental Classics; 5:30, Adult Education Broadcast: Popular Astronomy; 5:45, Organ Recital.

6 to 7 P. M.

KFWB—News Flashes; 6:10, Musical Miniatures; 6:15, B'nai B'rith Program; 6:30, Dixieland Band; 6:45, California Drama.

KMTR—Talk; 6:10, Records; 6:15, Records; 6:45, Strings.

KFI — Ben Bernie; 6:30, Fred Astaire's Show.

KHJ—Black and White; 6:15, Gaylord Carter, Organist; 6:30, Caravan, with Rupert Hughes.

KFVD—Records.

KNX—Travel Drama; 6:15, Talk; 6:30, Masquerade; 6:45, Tango Time.

KFOX—News Flashes; 6:10, Al-Molly; 6:25, Percy Prunes; 6:30, Hal Nichols' School Kids; 6:45, Jerry Nelson.

KFAC—News; 6:15, Tim-Terry; 6:30, Turf Talk; 6:45, Musicale.

KECA—Talk; 6:15, Souvenirs; 6:30, Husbands and Wives.

KVOE—Modern Rhythm; 6:15, Keep Smiling Program; 6:30, Late News of Orange County; Stolen Cars Broadcast; 6:45, Sons of the Pioneers.

7 to 8 P. M.

KFWB—Sands of Time; 7:15, Mexican Patio; 7:30, Soft Lights, Sweet Music.

KMTR—Let's Dance; 7:15, Federal Theaters; 7:30, Seven Seas; 7:45, Sizzlers.

KFI— Fred Astaire's Show; 7:30, Darry McKinley; 7:45, Transcription.

KHJ— Caravan; 7:30, Talk; 7:45, Strange Facts.

KNX—Elmer Goes Hollywood; 7:15, Republican Campaign Committee; 7:30, Newlyweds; 7:45, King Cowboys.

KFOX—Eh-Zeb; 7:15, Bobby-Betty; 7:30, Boy Detective; 7:45, Studio Staff.

KFAC—College Chimes; 7:15, Gino Severi's Ensemble; 7:30, Interview; 7:45, Talk.

KECA—Hildegarde; 7:30, Portraits of Harmony.

KVOE—"Through the Hollywood Lens"; 7:30, Santa Ana Community Chest Presentation of Ben Bernie; 7:45, "Let's Dance."

8 to 9 P. M.

KFWB—Gloom Chasers.

KMTR—Mexican Hour; 8:45, Talk.

KFI—Amos 'n' Andy; 8:15, Lum and Abner; 8:30, Leo Reisman, Phil Duey.

KHJ—William Hard; 8:15, Renfrew of the Mounted; 8:30, Ken Murray.

KNX — Larry Lee's Orch.; 8:30, Rhythmic Romance; 8:45, Talk.

KFOX—Pacific Paradise; 8:15, Parade of Literature; 8:30, Theater of the Air; 8:45, Unsolved Mysteries.

KFAC—Talk; 8:15, Gino Severi's Ensemble.

KECA—Transcription; 8:15, Patrick J. Hurley; 8:30, Dude Ranch.

KVOE—"Out of the Past to You"; 8:30, Political Broadcast; 8:45, O. B. Haas presents Paul Kelias.

9 to 10 P. M.

KFWB—Western Stars; 9:30, Oriental Musings.

KMTR—Talk; 9:10, Records; 9:30, Hollywood Community Sing.

KFI—Death Valley Days; 9:30, Good Morning Tonight.

KHJ—Fred Waring's Pennsylvanians; 9:30, Dick Stabile's Orch.; 9:45, Rubinoff.

KNX—Talk; 9:15, Bob Millar's Orch.; 9:45, Crockett Family.

KFOX—Talk; 9:15, Western Stars; 9:30, Thunder Mountain Boys.

KFAC—Jimmy Dorsey's Orch.; 9:30, Dream Weaver.

KECA — Watanabe and William; 9:15, Operatic Recordings.

KVOE—Spanish Program, conducted by Senor Enrique Laurent.

10 to 11 P. M.

KFWB—News Flashes; 10:15, Popular Music; 10:30, Hal Chanslor's Orchestra.

KMTR— Chito Montoya's Orch.; 10:30, Lorenzo Flennoy's Orchestra.

KFI—Talk; 10:15, Parade; 10:30, Jimmie Grier's Orch.

KEHE—Olympic Fights.

KHJ—News; 10:10, Jimmy Dorsey's Orch.; 10:30, Sterling Young's Orch.

KFVD—Records.

KNX—Crockett Family; 10:30, Voice of Hollywood; 10:45, Hits and Encores.

KFOX—News Flashes; 10:15, Neal Glannini's Orch.; 10:30, Hal Chanslor's Orch.

KFAC — Jack Dunn's Orchestra; 10:30, Records; 10:45, Jones Boys.

KECA—Operatic Recordings.

KVOE — 10:15, Modern Rhythm; 10:30, Organ Melodies.

11 P. M. to 12 Midnight

KFWB— Kearney Walton's Orch.; 11:30, Eddie Eben.

KMTR—Hawaiians; 11:15, Santaella's Dance Orch.; 11:45, Cubanolans.

KFI—Jan Garber's Orch.; 11:30, Tom Brown's Orchestra.

KHJ—Phil Harris' Orch.; 11:30, Jimmy Bittick's Orch.

KFVD—Records.

KNX—Larry Lee's Orchestra; 11:30, Pontrelli's Orchestra.

KFOX— Kearney Walton's Orch.; 11:30, Eddie Eben.

KECA—Talk, Organ Recital.

KVOE—11, Selected Classics.

12 Midnight

KFWB—News Flashes; 12:05, Varieties.

KMTR—Song Session; 12:15, Dance Music; 12:30, Hawaiians.

KMPC—Diego Romero's Gauchos; 12:15, Symphonique; 12:30, Peacock Court.

KHJ—Paradise Isle.

KNX—Talk.

KGFJ—Records all night.

KFXM—News Flashes.

KFOX—News Flashes.

KFAC—Records all night.

KHJ WEDNESDAY PROGRAMS

Morning—6, Rise and Shine; 6:10, Sports News; 6:15, Rise and Shine; 6:55, News; 7, Rise and Shine; 7:25, Stock Reports; 7:30, Rise and Shine; 8, Transcriptions; 8:15, Walt Beck and his Guitar; 8:30, Gaylord Carter; 8:45, Dr. Dafoe; 9, The Gumps; 9:15, Between the Bookends; 9:30, Romance of Helen Trent; 9:45, Rich Man's Darling; 10, Betty and Bob, drama; 10:15, Happy Hollow; 10:30, John K. Watkins—Who's Who in the News; 10:42, Betty Crocker; 10:48, Hymns of All Churches; 11, The Big Sister; 11:15, Happy Hollow; 11:30, Afternoon Recess; 11:45, Transcription.

Afternoon—12, Magazine of the Air; 12:30, Monticello Party Line; 12:45, Ben Sweetland, commentator; 1, Music from Texas; 1:15, News; 1:25, Stock reports; 1:30, Instrumentalists; 1:45, Clyde Barrie; 2, Margaret McRae, songs; 2:15, Univ. of the Air; 2:30, Stuart Hamblen's "Covered Wagon Jubilee"; 3, Feminine Fancies, with Tom Breneman, M. C.; 3:30, Charm School of the Air; 3:45, News; 3:55, Lost and Found.

KFI WEDNESDAY PROGRAMS

Morning—6:45, Radio Bible Fellowship conducted by Rev. Milo F. Jamison; 7, Thesaurus Transcription; 7:45, Church Quarter-Hour; 8, Financial Service; 8:15, Howdy Folks; 8:45, Voice of Experience; 9, KFI News Period; 9:15, The Story of Mary Marlin; 9:30, How to be Charming; 9:45, Mystery Chef and his Cooking Schol; 10, Federal Housnig Administration Talk by Wm. O. Harris; 10:05, Joe White, tenor; 10:15, Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch; 10:30, John's Other Wife; 10:45, Just Plain Bill; 11, Ann Warner Chats with her Neighbors; 11:30, Federal and State Market Reports; 11:45, Old Refrain.

Afternoon—12, Pepper Young's Family; 12:15, Ma Perkins; 12:30, Vic and Sade; 12:45, The O'Neills; 1, Henry Busse's Orchestra; 1:30, Landon Radio Clubs; 1:45, Reserve; 2, California Chain Stores Political Program; 2:15, The Country Cousins; 2:30, String Ensemble; 2:45, Bailey Axton, tenor; 3, Woman's Magazine of the Air.

KVOE WEDNESDAY PROGRAMS

Morning—6, Rhythm Time; 6:45, Dude Martin's Round-Up; 7, "Garden of Melody,..." Richard Aurandt at the Console; 7:30, Salon String Ensemble; 8, Popular Hits of the Day; 9, Musical Masterpieces; 9:45, The Monitor Views the News; 10, Hawaiian Melodies; 10:30, Orange County Public Forum Broadcast; 10:45, Vocal Favorites; 11, Popular Presentation; 11:30, Fire Prevention Week Broadcast; 11:45, Santa Ana Community Chest Presentation.

Afternoon—12, Stolen Cars Broadcast; 12:05, Orange County Tuberculosis & Health Ass'n. Broadcast; 12:15, Late News of Orange County; 12:30, Political Program; 12:45, Piano Melodies; 12:50, Market Quotations; 1, Band Marches; 1:15, Concert Hour; 2:15 ,Musical Varieties; 2:30, Club Cabana; 2:45, Popular Hits of the Day; 3:30, Selected Classics; 4, All Request Program.

WEDNESDAY SHORTWAVE

GERMANY—DJD AND DJB

Afternoon—2, Concert of Light Music; 2:45, News and Economic Review; 3, "Genoveva." From the opera by Robert Schumann.

Evening—3:15, Today in Germany; 4:20, "The Relay." A Short Play; 4:45, German Marches; 5:15, News and Economic Review; 6:15, The jolly war. From the Operetta; 7:45, Greetings to our Listeners.

CANADA—CJRX

8:45—Woodhouse and Hawkins in Nitwit Court.

HAWAII—KKH AND KIO

9:30—"Hands Across the Sea."

AMERICAN

Morning—9:30 a. m., National Farm and Home Hour. W8XK (15.21); 12 Noon, U. S. Marine Band W8XK (15.21).

Afternoon and Evening—3:45, Lowell Thomas, W8XK (15.21); 5, Folies de Paree, with Fannie Brice. W8XK (11.87); 5:30, Lucy Monroe, Frank Munn, Gustave Haenschen, and his Orchestra. W8XK (11.87).

LONDON—GSF AND GSC

Evening—6, Big Ben, "Under the Southern Stars"; 6:30, Solomon (Pianoforte); 6:40, "Food for Thought." Three talks on topics of the moment; 7, A Violin Recital; 7:20, A Syncopated Serenade; 7:40, News.

SCIENTIST TELLS OF FREEZING SELF

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 6.—(UP)—Sir Joseph Bancroft, professor of physiology at Cambridge university, has confirmed by scientific tests on himself the widely-held belief that, after the initial stages, freezing to death probably is not unpleasant, but produces a "beautiful feeling of warmth."

The British physiologist related in a lecture at Yale last night his experiences in two unusual tests. In one he lay naked in a refrigerated room until he was nearly unconscious. In the other he inhaled a mixture of air containing 7.2 per cent carbon dioxide—an experiment which he said brought him into a "land of errors" where wrong appeared right.

FORUM TO TAKE UP SUBJECT OF LOCAL OPTION

E. E. Covert, campaign manager for the United Forces of California, will speak in opposition to local option tonight, when he meets Harry W. Lewis, Santa Ana, in a debate on the question which will be presented to the people of California at the polls, Nov. 3. The debate will be a feature of the Forum for Political and Economic Education, which convenes at 8 p. m. in the Santa Ana junior college.

In line with the forum's policy to permit discussion of debated questions, a similar policy will be carried out tonight. Lew Betz, chairman of the meeting, stressed the importance of the subject to be debated. The question, in brief is this: Resolved, that the people should vote yes on proposition No. 9 granting cities and subdivisions the right to regulate, zone, or prevent the sale of alcoholic beverages within their limits.

One point raised by Betz is announcing the debat, centers around both proposition No. 9 and proposition No. 3, which provides for centralized control of liquor. He advanced the thory that if both propositions are passed, the one receiving the largest total vote will be placed in force.

THREE RABID DOGS PICKED UP IN COSTA MESA

Two more dogs afflicted with rabies have been picked up in Costa Mesa, where the first of the current rabies cases was discovered a few weeks ago, according to anouncement from Dr. K. H. Sutherland, county health officer, today.

One rabid dog was taken from the corner of Anaheim and Hamilton streets, and the other at 236 Avocado street, Costa Mesa, during the past week.

While only one person, and very few animals were bitten by these two dogs, the health department is afraid that other cases of rabies may develope in the next few days because of contacts with the dog that infected these two known cases of the past week, said Dr. Sutherland.

Inquiry has revealed, he said, that the probable source of infection was a tan female mongrel, shot while runing along Newport avenue in the east section of Costa Mesa, headed toward the airport, about September 4 or 5.

"From what we can determine from observance, this dog may have bitten many animals along the route before it was shot. Costa Mesa dog owners are urged to keep their dogs at home, or on leash, during the next two months, and report to the health department immediately if the animal shows signs of illness or unusual behavior," said Dr. Sutherland.

FOUR PERSONS ARE HURT IN ACCIDENTS

Four persons were reported injured today as the result of traffic accidents on Orange county highways yesterday.

Leonard Tunstall, 24, of 217 Sixth street, Huntington Beach, sustained mnior injuries at 6 p. m. yesterday, when his car collided with a car driven by Mrs. J. E. Booth, 35, also of Huntington Beach. The accident occurred on Slater avenue near the Ocean View school.

Benito Ramirez, 16, Alta Vista, sustained a fractured arm late yesterday, when he fell from a truck near Brea. He was taken to Orange county hospital, where first aid treatment was rendered.

John Evans, and Mrs. Elizabeth Evans, 76, Placentia, were both injured at 6 p. m. yesterday, when their car became involved in a collision at the intersection of North Main street and Santa Ana boulevard, Santa Ana. The other car involved in the accident was driven by Mrs. John Houk, Garden Grove.

G.O.P. WOMEN WILL MEET ON THURSDAY

Margaret Lee Clemens, niece of the great Mark Twain, California humorist, will be the featured speaker at a luncheon rally held by Orange county Republican women Thursday noon, in the Hotel Laguna, at Laguna Beach. The affair is set for 12:30.

Mrs. Edith W. Van de Water, California member of the Republican national committee, will be guest of honor at the rally, to which all Republican women of the count yare invited.

Mrs. Frank Rospaw, of Placentia, vice-chairman of women's activities in the county, for the Republican organization, is directing arrangements for the rally, assisted by Mrs. Edith A. Cloyes, of Santa Ana, co-chairman.

Reservations for the luncheon should be made by this evening with either Mrs. Rospaw or Mrs. Cloyes, it was announced.

New Boat Of State Board At Newport

NEWPORT BEACH, Oct. 6.—Welcomed by a group of city and county officials and civic workers, the "Yellowtail," 45-foot craft of the State Fish and Game commission, pulled into Newport harbor at 3 p. m. yesterday, the harbor which will be her home port.

The boat was accepted by W. C. Jerome, county supervisor, and officials present included Mayor Harry Williamson, Frank W. Crocker, president of the Angling club of Balboa; Ben S. Lemon and E. F. Peterson, of Laguna Beach.

On the boat were Capt. E. R. Hyde, and his assistant, Bob Crowell, H. C. Bishop and Hal Sackett, of Long Beach, members of the salt water fish commission; Herbert C. Davis, executive officer of the fish and game commission, Leslie Kimmell, of Laguna Beach and J. P. Greeley, city civic worker.

The boat will follow a course from Newport harbor to Catalina, thence to San Clemente island, down to San Diego and back to the home port. The boat replaces the "Broadbill," which was sent to San Pedro. The craft was built in San Francisco and will be used to enforce fish and game laws.

MISSION WORK IN CHINA IS OUTLINED FOR GUILD GROUP

ORANGE, Oct. 6.—Bertha Epley guild of the First Christian church held its regular meeting Monday night in the church parlors. Miss Hazel Carr presided at the business meeting. Miss Carr announced the aim and goal of the missionary year. The goal of the guild was set at $140.

The program chairman, Sue Rankin, announced the topic for study, "The Negro and Education." Mrs. Byron Fletcher led the devotions, which had as their topic, "Moving Forward Toward God." Mrs. W. R. Holder spoke on the Jarvis Christian college in Texas, which is one of the two mission schools for Negroes maintained by the Christian church.

The musical portion of the program was furnished by the Christian church trio, consisting of Mrs. Walter Kogler, Mrs. A. D. Burkett and Mrs. Leon Des Larzes, who offered four selections, "Oh Suzanna," "Golden Slippers," "Deep River" and "Swing Low, Sweet Ccariot." They were accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Margaret Ockles.

The speaker of the evening was Miss Ethel Suffern, missionary, who gave an outline of the missionary work which she carried on in China.

Light refreshments were served by a committee consisting of Miss Sue Rankin, chairman, and Mesdames Byron Fletcher, Robert Robinson, W. R. Holder, A. D. Burkett and Olive McBane.

Guests present were Mesdames Alice Pratt, Rebecca Pope, Dorothy Fletcher and Miss Ethel Suffern.

NEW OIL DUMPING ORDINANCE PASSED

A new county ordinance prohibiting the dumping of oil, or the running of oil upon a public highway, was passed by the county supervisors today, as the outgrowth of Chairman John Mitchell's objections to defective drainage conditions at Seventeenth and Garfield streets, Huntington Beach, where oil and water waste accumulated along the highway.

The new ordinance provides a possible fine of $300 and a three-months jail sentence for violation of the ordinance.

VETERANS' LOSSES CITED BY SPEAKER

"What the war veteran has lost in the three long years" under the present national administration was the subject of an address given last night by E. Neal Ames, Los Angeles, past national commander of the United Veterans of the Republic, before the Santa Ana Assembly of the Republican Service League, in county Republican headquarters, Santa Ana.

In addition to picturing the veteran's position under the present administration, Ames discussed economic and financial conditions, and pointed out glaring discrepancies between statements of Franklin D. Roosevelt before his election in 1932, and after the election.

C.N.P.A. President Talks to Rotary

Greetings from the newspapers of California were extended to Santa Ana Rotarians today in an address by Frank Rospaw, Placentia, president of the California Newspaper Publishers' association. The speaker was introduced by Guy Gilbert, president of the Santa Ana club, at the noon meeting at Green Cat cafe.

As a feature of the program today, Edna Hewitt Smith, executive secretary of the Orange County Tuberculosis and Health association, presented a talking picture based on methods of combating tuberculosis. In her talk prior to presenting the picture, Mrs. Smith outlined the work being done in Orange county to combat the disease.

ACCIDENT VERDICT RETURNED BY JURY IN NUTHALL DEATH

The exact cause of the accident which early Sunday morning resulted in the death of Thomas Nuthall, 29, Buena Park, will in all probability forever remain a mystery. Nuthall was killed when his car crashed into a bulkhead bordering the Santa Ana canyon highway.

A coroner's jury this morning, hearing testimony of officers who investigated the case, returned a verdict of accidental death. However, they reported that the cause of the accident was undeterminable. The inquest was held at the McAulay and Suters mortuary in Fullerton.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Congregational church in Buena Park. The church pastor, the Rev. F. Stanley Powles, will conduct the services. Entombment will be in Loma Vista mausoleum.

Survivors include the mother, Mrs. Lola B. Nuthall, a brother, Everett Nuthall, two sisters, Miss Ruby Nuthall, Mrs. Cleo Herbert, all of Buena Park; another sister, Mrs. Evelyn Bannister, of Long Beach; Mrs. Laura Braly, of San Juan Capistrano, an aunt and two uncles, John Pigg, of Buena Park, and Tom Pigg, of Long Beach.

Roosevelt Back At White House

ABOARD ROOSEVELT SPECIAL, Oct. 6. — (UP)—President Roosevelt returns to his White House desk today from Hyde Park, N. Y., for a round of conferences with departmental heads before leaving on Friday on a campaign swing that will take him as far west as Cheyenne, Wyo.

It was understood Mr. Roosevelt probably would be on the road until Oct. 18, visiting a number of "key"cities for major addresses in some, and appearances in others.

He has definitely decided to speak in Chicago Oct. 14 and the following night in Detroit. Those places will be visited as he returns east.

Delay Irrigation District Hearing

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Oct. 6.—(UP)—Additional delays in the hearings of cases brought by California irrigation districts for refinancing under federal bankruptcy laws were granted today in United States district court here.

The South San Joaquin irrigation district case was continued until December 14, and the Glenn-Colusa irrigation district case until November 9.

L. A. PRODUCE

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 6.—(UP)—Trading was rather slow and prices unchanged in most lines.

Broccoli: Local 2½-3c.

Chives: 20c.

Artichokes: Steady; Aroyo Grande 48s $2.00-$2.25, 60s $2.25-$2.50, 70s $1.50-$1.75.

Asparagus: Local extra fancy 13-14c. Imperial valley fancy standards $2.50; standards $2.00.

Avocados: Local Sharpless 11-12c. Itzamnas 6-7c; Dickinsons 6-6½c; Harmons and Gnters 6-8c; Seedlings 5-6c.

Beans: Steady; local Kentucky Wonders 5-6c; Brown seed Kentucky Wonders 3½-4c; Green pod 3½-4c; Limas 2½-3c; Pole limas 3½c; Orange Co. kax 3½-4c; San Luis Obispo and Morro Bay Kentucky Wonders 5-6c; San iDego Co. Kentucky Wonders 5-6c; Carpinteria Limas $1.65.

Bunched vegetables: Steady; beets 60-75c; carrots 75-90c; Dikon 50-60c; green onions $1.75-$2.0; leeks 90c-$1; mustard 25-30c; oyster plant 90c-$1.05; parsley 40-50c; radishes, small red, 40-45c; icicle 60c; spinach, 60-70c; turnips 50-60c.

Cabbage: Local cannonball 50-60c; red cabbage $1.25-$1.50; Savoy 75c.

Cauliflower: Weak; local snowball 40-50c.

Celery: Golden self-blanching weak; Oceano 22 & 24 inch crates $1.00-$1.15 local 22 & 24 inch 50-60c; Oceano Utah 22 in. crates 75c. Local Utah 20 & 22 in. crates 50-65c.

Okra: Coachella valley 5-6c.

Corn: Local field corn 35-40c. Chino Evergreen 65-75c.

Cucumbers: Firm: Oceano, Lompoc and Santa Maria 75-85c. Orange Co. 70-80c.

Lettuce: Santa Maria and Guadalupe dry pack 4s $1.15-$1.25; 5 doz. $1.00-$1.15; Lompoc 4s $1.65-$1.75; 5s $1.35-$1.50; San Luis Obispo 4s $.35-$1.50; Cambria 4s $1.75 and 5s $1.50; local loose pack 3s 30-40c.

Onions: Local Spanish 45-50c. Red Torpedo 30-35c. Red Italian 65-75c.

Peas: Guadalupe and Oceano pole 7-8c. Bush 5-5c. San Luis Obispo 7-8c.

Peppers: Ventura Co. California Wonders 1½-1¾c. Yellow chili 50-75c lug. Red Pimentos 3c lb. Local California Wonders 25-30c. Santa Maria green chili 3-3½c.

Strawberries: Watsonville Nich Ohmer $1.15-$1.25.

Pumpkins: Ton $15-$16; few $14.

Tomatoes: Ventura Co. Globes 4x 5s 75-85c. 5x5s 75-90c. 6x6s 50-60c. Ponderosas 5x5s 90c-$1.00; Lompoc and Santa Maria Marglobes 4x5s 70-85c; 5x5s 90c-$1.00; 6x6s 50-60c. Orange Co. Stones 4x5s 45-50c; 5x5s 50-60c. 6x6s 25-40c. Ponderosas 4x5s 65-75c; 5x5s 70-80c; 6x6s 40-50c. San Fernando Valley Ponderosas 5x5s 50-60c; 6x6s 30-35c. San Diego Co. Jack O' Hearts 4x5s 70c. 5x5s 90c. 6x6s 65c. Local red and yellow egg 40-50c.

Potatoes: Idaho Russets U. S. No. 1 $1.75-$1.85; U. S. No. 2 $1.50; Oregon Klamaths U. S. No. 1 $2.00-$2.10; Stockton Burbanks, fcy. $2.60.

FINANCIAL AND MARKET NEWS

NEW YORK STOCKS

Furnished by Wm. Cavaleir & Co. Members New York Stock Exchange 516 N. Main — Phones 600 & 601

	High	Low	Close
Air Reduction	76½	75⅝	76
Alaska Juneau	16⅝	16⅛	16⅝
Allied Chem - Dye	234	232	234
Allis Chalmers	64⅝	62	64
Am Can	124⅝	123¼	124
Am Locomotive	39⅞	38¼	38⅛
Am Rad Std San	23⅞	23¼	23⅝
Am Roll iMlls	32	31⅜	31⅞
Am Smelt & Ref	88⅛	85¾	88
Am Steel Fdry	44⅞	44⅛	44⅝
Am Tel & Tel	177⅝	176¼	176½
Am Tob B	101	100¼	101
Anaconda Copper	41⅛	40⅝	41⅛
Armour of Ill	5⅞	5¾	5⅞
Artloom	17	16¾	16¾
Atchison	82½	81¼	82¼
Atlantic Ref	29	28	28⅝
Auburn Motors	35½	33¾	33⅞
Aviation Corp	5⅛	5	5⅛
Baltimore & O	26¼	25⅝	26¼
Barnsdall	18¼	18⅛	18⅜
Bendix Aviation	32⅛	30⅜	32
Bethlehem Steel	73⅜	72⅝	73¼
Borden Co.	27½	27¼	27½
Briggs	62⅞	61½	62⅝
Cal Picking	39½	39¼	39¼
Case	166	162	164½
Caterpillar Tractor	83	81½	82¼
Cerro De Pasco	56	54	56
Chesapeake & Ohio	70⅝	70¼	70⅝
Chrysler	126⅞	125⅝	126¼
Columbia Gas	19⅞	19⅜	19⅝
Comm Solvents	15½	15¼	15⅜
Comm & So	3⅞	3⅝	3⅝
Cont Oil	35	34	34⅜
Cons Ed of N Y	43⅜	43	43⅜
Cons Oil	14	13⅞	13⅞
Continental Bak A	19¾	19½	19⅝
Curtiss-Wright	9⅞	8¾	8⅝
Deere	94½	89¼	93⅝
Douglas Aircraft	82½	79	81⅞
Dupont	165½	165	165½
Eastman Kodak	177⅞	174½	177⅞
Elec Auto Lite	46⅞	45⅝	46½
Erie	17⅝	17½	17⅝
Eaton Mfg	38¾	38	38¾
Freeport Texas	26¼	25½	25⅝
Gen Electric	48⅛	47½	48
Gen Foods	40¾	40⅛	40¼
Gen Motors	71⅛	70⅝	71
Gold Dust	13⅞	13⅝	13⅝
Goodrich	22⅜	22	22
Goodyear	23⅞	23½	23¾
Gt Nor Pfd	42	41½	42
Gt Western Sugar	35⅞	35⅝	35⅝
Hiram Walker	43¼	42½	43
Holly Sugar	36⅞	35¼	36⅞
Hudson Motors	18⅝	18⅛	18¼
Illinois Central	28½	28	28⅜
Int Harvester	88	86	88
Int Nickel	63	62	62⅝
Intl Tel & Tel	13½	13⅜	13½
Johns Manville	123½	123	123½
Kennecott Copper	51⅞	51½	51⅝
Libbey Owens Ford	70	69	69⅜
Loew's Inc	58½	58	58½
Long Bell Lbr	4⅞	4⅝	4⅞
Mack Truck	47	45⅝	47
McIntire Porcupine	39½	38⅝	38⅝
Mexican Seaboard	34½	32⅝	33⅝
Montgomery Ward	51⅞	50⅝	51¼
Nash Motors	19⅛	18⅝	18⅞
Nat Cash Register	28⅜	28	28⅜
Nat Dairy Prod	26	25½	25½
Nat Biscuit	30¼	28⅜	30¼
N Y Central	48⅜	47⅝	48⅝
Nor Am Co	32⅛	31⅝	31⅝
Nor Am Aviation	8⅛	7⅝	8⅛
Nor Pacific	29½	29	29¼
Pac Gas & Elec	37⅞	37½	37⅜
Pac Lighting	53⅝	53	53⅝
Packard Motors	12⅞	12⅝	12⅝
Peney J C	93⅜	93⅛	93⅜
Phelps Dodge	41½	40¼	41½
Phillips Pet	45¼	44⅛	44¼
Pennsylvania Rail	40⅞	40⅜	40⅞
Purity Bakeries	17½	17¼	17⅜
Radio Corp	11⅜	11	11
Remington Rand	19	18¼	18⅜
Rep Steel	25	24⅜	24⅞
Reynolds Tob B	57⅛	56⅜	57
Safeway Stores	32⅛	31½	32
Sears Roebuck	91⅜	91⅛	91⅝
Servel	28⅞	27⅞	28⅝
Shell Union	24⅜	24⅛	24¼
Simmons	44⅞	44¼	44½
Socony Vac	14⅝	14¼	14½
So Porto Rico Sug	30⅝	29⅝	30¼
So Cal Edison	31½	31	31
So Pacific	46⅜	45⅜	46⅝
So Rails	25⅜	24⅝	25⅜
Stand Brands	15⅜	15⅛	15¼
Stand Oil Cal	37⅝	37	37½
Stand Oil N J	64¼	63¼	63¾
Stewart Warner	21	20⅞	21
Texas Corp	40¼	39⅝	39¾
Tidewater Oil	19½	19	19¼
Transamerica	14	13⅞	14
Tex Gulf Sulph	37	36	36⅝
Union Carbide	100	98½	100
Union Oil	22⅞	22⅜	22⅜
Union Pacific	140	139⅞	140
United Aircraft	26¼	25⅞	26
United Corp	7⅝	7½	7½
U S Gypsum	100¼	100	100¼
U S Rubber	36¾	36¼	36½
U S Ind Alcohol	35⅞	35¼	35¼
U S Smelt & Ref	86⅞	85	86⅞
U S Steel	75¼	74⅝	75¼
Vanadiu m	24¼	24	24⅛
Warner Bros	13⅝	13⅜	13½
Western Union	89⅜	88⅝	89⅜
Westinghouse	150½	149⅞	150¼
White Motors	23	22½	22⅝

Dow-Jones Averages

Industrials—174.51, up 1.70.
Rails—58.56, up .36.
Volume—2,260,000 shares.

STATISTICS INDEXES

Copyright 1936
1926 Average Equals 100

STOCKS

	50 Inds.	20 Rails	20 Utils	90 Stocks
Yesterday	156.3	61.0	97.1	131.3
Week Ago	151.4	58.5	96.6	127.5
Month Ago	151.4	58.7	99.4	128.0
Year Ago	109.3	35.3	70.1	90.9
1936 High	156.3	61.0	102.0	131.3

THE NEBBS—The Green-Eyed Monster By SOL HESS

4a Travel Opportunities

DRIVING to Okla. City and vicinity Thurs. Take two, share expenses. 908 Brown, Apt. 2.

6 Strayed, Lost, Found

LOST—Sept. 26, large grey male cat. 1508 Louise. Ph. 4187-J.

NOTICE TO FINDER
The Penal Code of California provides that one who finds a lost article under circumstances which give him means of inquiry as to the true owner and who appropriates such property to his own use without first making reasonable effort to find the owner is guilty of larceny.

LOST—Eastern Star pin on blouse bow. Keepsake. Reward. Ph. 3035.

IN answering advertisements containing a Register box address, be sure to always include the LETTER of the alphabet which appears preceding the box number. This will insure prompt delivery. Example: "A. Box 20, Register."

Automotive

7 Autos

1935 FORD V-8 De Luxe Sedan, excellent condition, low mileage. Priced for quick sale. 1124 S. Ross

Speedometer repairs, parts
Motor Reconditioning
J. Arthur Whitney
113-115 FRENCH ST.

Ford

OCTOBER CLEARANCE SALE PRICES.
MONEY BACK GUARANTEE
USED CARS
RENEWED AND GUARANTEED

'36 Ford 8 Dlx. Tour. Sedan ...$739
'35 Ford 8 Dlx. Tour. Sed., radio $629
'35 Ford 8 Std. Sedan $549
'35 Chev. Master Coach $539
'35 Ford 8 Std. Tudor $499
'34 Ford 8 Dlx. Sedan, trunk...$489
'35 Ford 8 Pickup C. C. $479
'34 Ford 8 Victoria Coupe $469
'34 Ford 8 Dlx. 5-w. Coupe.....$459

SQUARE DEAL GUARANTEE

'34 Plymouth 6 Dlx. Coach $459
'34 Ford 8 Dlx. 3-w Cpe., radio $449
'33 Chev. 6 Master Sedan $419
'34 Chev. 6 Panel Delivery $419
'33 Pontiac 8 Coach $399
'31 Franklin 6 Sedan $359
'33 Ford 8 Std. 5-w. Coupe $209
'32 Ford 8 Std. Tudor $309

TERMS AND TRADES
GEORGE DUNTON
805 NO. MAIN. PHONE 146.
Open Eves. 'till 9; Sunday 'till 5.

1936 PONTIAC Master Coupe, looks and runs like new. $695. Accept car in trade. Easy terms. 616 W. 4th St. Apt. 7.

IMPORTED English 4 passenger automobile. Cost new $1200. Big sacrifice. Beautiful little car. 40 miles to gallon. 616 W. 4th, Apt. 7.

1936 FORD coupe. Sacrifice price. Private owner. Ph. daytime 373.

GMC Truck

'36 Chev. Coach, low mileage ...$625
'35 Chev. Coach, very clean $585
Buick Sedan $150

L. P. MOHLER CO.
302 French St., Santa Ana. Ph. 654.

Rust and paint removed from autos. & machinery.
Orange Co. Sand Blast. Co.
817 East Fruit St. Phone 1030

CHEVROLET 4 door Sedan. Good rubber. Cheap. 1139 W. Walnut.

YOU CAN PLANT LOTS OF THINGS

October is a real garden month in Orange County. Practically all of the hardy perennials can be planted now for next Summer's blooms. Use Vigoro in your garden. It makes gardening a pleasure. Buy all your seeds from seedsmen — men who are interested in results.

R. B. Newcom Seed and Feed Co.
Broadway at Fifth Santa Ana

7 Autos (Continued)

Attention!

Beautiful DeLuxe late 1935 Hudson coupe equipped with $70 radio, extra heavy bumpers, rear wheel guards, lighter, twin horns, new double eagle tires. Prettiest car in Orange county. Sacrifice. Apply 139 Albert Place, Costa Mesa.

1935 DODGE 4 door Sedan, $625. Radio. 1018 West Bdwy., Anaheim.

FOR SALE—'27 Chev. $50. Ph. 1367-J

'27 OLDS Sedan and '27 Harley-Davidson motorcycle. A-1 cond. 704 So. Parton. Call evenings.

Ford

OCTOBER CLEARANCE SALE PRICES.
MONEY BACK GUARANTEE
USED CARS

'30 Ford A Spt. 2-4 Coupe $199
'28 Franklin 6 Sedan $179
'29 Buick 6 Std. Bus. Coupe...$139
'29 Chev. 6 Sedan $129
'26 Lincoln 8 Sedan, 2-w. .....$ 99
'26 Chrysler 6-60 Sedan .....$ 79
'27 Pontiac 6 Landau Sedan....$ 69
'27 Buick Std. 6 Sedan .....$ 29
'27 Chev. 4 Sedan .....$ 29
'25 Essex 6 Coach .....$ 29
'25 Ford T Rdstr. Pickup.....$ 14

TERMS AND TRADES
GEORGE DUNTON
805 NO. MAIN. PHONE 146.
Open Eves. 'till 9; Sunday 'till 5.

10 Motorcycles - Bicycles

PEERLESS balloon tire bicycle $18.50. Speedway bicycle, 26-in., $10. Henry's Cycle Shop, 427 W. 4th.

11a Trucks, Trailers, Tractors

FOR SALE—Garden tractor with equipment. Corner Cypress and Palisades, S. A., Rt. 4, Box 324.

GYPSY CARAVAN Auto Trailers. Cor. Water & Dickel, Anaheim.

SEE the New "Covered Wagon" Trailer Coach on display at 111 W. 1st. R. L. Peterson, S. A. Dealer.

PICKUPS wanted! State year, condition and price. C. Box 47, Register

FOR SALE—Model K Cletrac tractor. Reasonable. Call 505 West La Veta, Orange.

FOR SALE—'32 Ford pickup; 7 ft. leveller. Ed Hoffman, 1 mile east, ½ mile north of Talbert.

Employment

13 Help Wanted—Female

WOMAN HELP—20 years of experience in supplying domestic help. Phone 124. 912 French St.
Palace Employment Agency

IN answering advertisements containing a Register box address, be sure to always include the LETTER of the alphabet which appears preceding the box number. This will insure prompt delivery. Example: "A. Box 20, Register."

REV. SARAH, Spiritual advisor, moved 408 Acacia St., Garden Gr. 1 blk No. of Highway off 4th.

WANTED—2 neat appearing ladies wishing to earn Christmas money during spare time, write G, Box 50, Register.

WANTED—Woman for cooking and general housework, 6 adults. Must be unincumbered and capable of taking full charge. This is a permanent position and good wages for right party. 3 miles east of Orange. Phone Orange 1069.

13 Help Wanted—Female (Continued)

WANTED—Housekeeper in motherless home. One child. L, Box 52, Register.

WANTED—Girl for general housework. Board, room and salary. Phone 200-J, Newport. Call 205 Marine Ave., Balboa Island.

14 Help Wanted—Male

Our Best Season Now Open

Yes, we need men and we will show you how to apply your time in selling the leader in the field. Men with plenty of pep and vitality who have push and are persistent are the kind of men we need and you will make money while being trained. We are growing and want men to grow with us. Apply 9:30 a. m., 902 W. 4th.

CIVIL SERVICE JOBS, 18-50. PREPARE FOR COMING EXAMS. Free facts. Terms. K. Box 44, Register.

15 Help Wanted (Male, Female)

EARN living expenses while qualifying as secretary; we place you. MacKay College, 612 Figueroa, L.A.

MAN or woman of refined appearance to solicit members in a well known county organization. Commission basis. Must be able to furnish small surety bond. Should have car. Many good prospects furnished. Apply, giving full particulars, Secretary, P. O. Box 822.

17 Situations Wanted —Female (Employment Wanted)

NURSING—Mrs. Speak. Ph. 758-M.

EXP. woman wants day and hour work. Cleaning or laundry. 1636-M.

REFINED girl would like light house work and companion to elderly lady anywhere. 1043 East Palmyra, Orange.

WASHING wanted, 30 pieces $1.00 finished. Will call for and deliver. 308 E. Stanford. Phone 2268-J.

18 Situations Wanted Male (Employment Wanted)

PH. 3836-M for power lawn renovating. H. D. Eby, 212 E. Edinger.

PAINTING, tinting, decorating. Ph. 4390-W.

19 Business Opportunities

EXCHANGE small estab. business for residence lot. George Townsend, 121 West Third.

FOR SALE—Cafe with living quarters, on new highway to L. A. Wine, dine and dance. Parking space, good location, good business. Reason for selling: Other business and sickness. L-Box 50, Register.

VEGETABLE truck and route for sale, reasonable. 1712 Spurgeon St.

A GENUINE SACRIFICE
Established beauty shop doing fine business. Finest of locations. Owner leaving town. 3758 7th St., Riverside. Phone 3924.

1 acre on 101 Hiway, fine business with 5 living rooms, 4 cabins, 70 orange and 8 walnut trees. $1000 gross per month. A real bargain at $8500
Good gasoline and oil route with a truck and contract. Nets $150 or better. An excellent buy at..$1100
Some good gas stations for lease or sale. Several small businesses to pick from.

HOWARD REALTY CO.
152 So. Los Angeles St., Anaheim. Phone 2753.

19a Contracting and Building

JOHN TERPSTRA
CONTRACTOR AND BUILDER
Building of all kinds. FHA loans arranged. Phone 5283-J.

Sanistone & tile drainboards. 5184-W

PLASTERING and CEMENT work W. F. Hentges, Phone 0269-J.

KALSOMINING, PAINTING—Interior and exterior. Phone 4594-W.

Financial

20 Money to Loan

AUTO, FURNITURE
LOANS QUICKLY ARRANGED.
"Confidential. No Red Tape."
Community Finance Co.
117 West Fifth St. Phone 760.

JOHN S. McCARTY
AUTO LOANS — INSURANCE
FURNITURE LOANS
111 So. Main St. Phone 5727.

$500, $1000 $1800, $2000, $5000, 5%, 6%, 7%. Baird. Phone 3664-W.

Interstate Finance Co.
307 No. Main. Phone 2347.
Quick loans on real estate, automobiles, chattel mortgages or notes. We buy mortgages, trust deeds, notes and automobile contracts. Contracts refinanced. Action without red tape.

Auto Loans
Lowest rates — easy monthly payments — immediate service. Mortgages and Trust Deeds purchased or will accept them as security for loan.
Federal Finance Co., Inc.
No. Sycamore, Santa Ana. Calif.

2ND MORTGAGE LOANS
$100 and up. Money same day.
Vacant Lot Loans
Also furniture, autos, machinery, etc.
AUTO BANK
1105 American Ave., L. Bch. 638-534.

AUTO LOANS
If you need money or wish your present payments reduced
—SEE—
WESTERN FINANCE CO.
320 No. Main Phone 1470

$1000 TO $25,000, 3 yrs. 5% & 6%. Cleve Sedoris, 102½ East 4th St.

22 Wanted To Borrow

WANTED—$3000 on 9 acres of oranges. Bank references. L, Box 53, Register.

WANT—$2500 on good real estate security. Reliable party. O, Box 44, Register.

WANT $850 on $1850 home. 206 West 5th. Phone 5711.

Instruction

23a Miscellaneous

RUSSELL THOMPSON'S Hawaiian Studio. Guitars for sale. 1115 W 8th

Livestock and Poultry

26 Dogs, Cats, Pets

COCKER Spaniel puppies, reasonable. Everything for dogs, cats, birds. Neal's Sporting Goods, 209 East 4th.

TOY fox puppy $3. 2345 Spurgeon.

A. K. C. Dog Show Oct. 17 and 18th, National Guard Armory. Entry blanks at Neal's Sporting Goods Store or Mrs. Robt. Sandon, Ph. 1961-W, 1410 W. Washington St. or the local veterinarians. Entries closed Oct. 7.

EVERYTHING for bird or dog. Singing canaries. We buy your birds. VAN'S BIRD STORE, 506 No. Main St.

WIRE HAIRED Terriers, 2 mos. Sacrifice for quick sale. 829 So. Garnsey.

27 Horses, Cattle, Goats

Highest prices paid for all kinds of horses & mules. Ph. Newport 448.

DEAD cows, horses, hogs hauled for carcass. Phone Hynes 2764.

WILL pay $10 up for all kinds of horses, mules. Phone 539.

WANT beef cows, hogs, veal calves. Phone 1338 or 2831-W 1068 W. 3rd

FOR SALE—Heavy work horse. Ed. Hoffman, 1 mi. E., ½ mi. N. Talbert.

FRESH COWS—Guernseys and Holsteins. 5 breeder gilts, 6 months old. 15th and H. B. Blvd. New West minster.

A 5 months old nanny goat, price $4. ½ mi. No., ½ mi. west of Bolsa.

FOR SALE—A-1 family cow Phone 3144-J.

4 GAL. Jersey, 3 gal. Guernsey. 2nd hse. W. Verano on Catalina, Silver Acres.

1 MILK goat 29 R. I. R. laying hens. Call after 4 p. m., Cor. Century and Harbor Blvd.

28 Poultry — Rabbits and Supplies

FAT hens dressed free. Brown, 1009 No. Batavia. Phone 200-M, Orange.

POULTRYMAN'S
FEED AND SUPPLY
Laying mashes—Albers, Ace-High, Taylors, Globe and Universal Chick start.. and growing mashes Rabbit pellets Choice rabbit alfalfa. Dairy feeds and alfalfa. Poultry remedies, bird supplies, garden seeds. Low prices. Free delivery.
1501 W FOURTH Phone 5678

RHODE Island Red baby chicks. Frank Jones, E. 17th and Prospect.

LEGHORN HENS, 20c lb. Young ducks, 15c lb. Red fryers. Ph. 4136.

HEINEMAN Red pullets, blood tested, trap nested stock; also poultry equipment, new 8x16 poultry house. 1938 Newport Blvd., Costa Mesa.

1 YR. old W. L. hens, $1 each. 3rd house E. of Blue Gum on Anaheim Road.

Quality Feeds
Dairy, Poultry and Rabbit Feeds. Extra leafy alfalfa. Grain hay Straw
FREE DELIVERY
Hales Feed Store
Phone 4148 2415 West Fifth

28 Poultry — Rabbits and Supplies (Continued)

FOR SALE—White Muscovy ducks, all ages. Ph. 4398. 320 E. Bishop.

R. I. R. pullets, 50c up. Leghorn laying hens $1 each. Milk cows, geese, ducks, fryers. Truck $25. Paull's Ranch, 18th and Placentia, Costa Mesa.

Young ducks. Warner's E. 17th. 5184W

RABBITS, New Zealand Reds; grey and White Flemish Giants. Ped. stock. 256 S. Esplanade, El Modena

FOR SALE—475 W. L. pullets. Vaccinated for pox, over pneumonia. Almost 5 mos old. 95c in flock lots. 1520 So. Bonview Ave., Ontario.

SPECIAL DRESSED FREE
R. I. R. 22c lb., while they last. 3035 No. Main. Ph. Res. 1496-W.

Ryan's W. 5th Feed Store
A full line of Poultry Mashes, Ace-High, Globe, Sperry's, V-O, Taylors and our own mashes. Also a full line of Dairy and Rabbit Feed. Choice Rabbit Alfalfa. Free delivery. 1735 West 5th. Phone 447.

ROCK, RED FRYERS—926 W Bishop

29 Want Stock and Poultry

WE buy and sell all kinds of poultry and eggs. We call for live poultry and deliver dressed. Bernstein Bros. 1613 West 6th St. Phone 1303. Santa Ana.

CASH for poultry. Will call. Ph. 3133. R. D. Taylor. Ball Road, Anaheim

Swaps

30 Swaps

SWAP—Beautiful furniture, anything you desire, for good used piano. Danz-Schmidt, 112 E. Center St., Anaheim.

Merchandise

32 Building Material

THIS WEEK'S BARGAINS

1x6 Rustic Siding .....$20 M.
Knotty Pine .....$37.50 M.
⅝ Shim Stock SIS .....$18.00 M.
Corrugated Iron, per square $4.50
Kalsomine per lb 9c
Paint, per gallon $1.25
Lumber, all dimensions $27.50 & up
6 ft. 3x4 Redwood Posts 20c. No extra chg. per M ft. for longer lengths.
Lt. Roofing 85c. Min. surface $1.55.
FREE DELIVERY—PROMPT SERVICE.
West Fifth St. Lumber Co.
Phone 4560. 2018 W. Fifth St.

ROOFING
90 lb. Mineral Surface..$1.59 per roll
35 lb. Smooth Surfaced...88c per roll
45 lb. Smooth Surfaced...$1.10 per roll
55 lb. Smooth Surfaced...$1.31 per roll
Liggett Lumber Co. Phone 1922.

34 Feeds and Fertilizer

SIFTED dairy fertilizer 25c sack del. Phone 5569 617 No. Artesia

FOR SALE—Rabbit fertilizer. Cheap. 819 South Flower St.

35 Fruits, Nuts, Veget'bles

APPLES—1 and 2 cents per lb. Harbor Blvd., ½ mi. So. of First St. Chas. Warren.

DELIC. apples, 60c box. Miner, 548½ West Victoria, Costa Mesa.

WANTED—WALNUT MEATS
910½ WEST 4TH ST.
FRED L. MITCHELL.

CASH BUYERS OF WALNUTS AND WALNUT MEATS
ROSENBERG BROS. & CO.
Phone 962 Orange, Cal.

WANTED — WALNUT MEATS.
MITCHELL'S—305 EAST 4TH

WE are buying 1936 crop California walnuts and shelled walnuts. C. G. White Packing House, East 4th St. and Santa Fe tracks, Santa Ana. Telephone 69.

WANTED—Walnut meats. Pay top prices. See Tucker, New Way Stand, Grand Central Market.

APPLE TIME at Ford's Snow-Line Orchards, Oakglen, on paved highway, 18 mi. E. of Redlands. Delicious, Romes, Winesaps. Low prices, box or load.

36 Household Goods

NICE line of slightly used gas heaters. Cheap. See them at Luer's Furniture, 310 No. Spurgeon.

Boulder Dam Special
SAVE $60.00
On a brand new 4-burner Westinghouse Electric Range, all porcelain enamel, large oven latest design. $99.50. Easy payments.
KNOX & STOUT
420 EAST 4TH STREET.

SIX cu. ft. electric refrigerator, famous Buckeye, special at $69.50. Terms. HORTON'S. Main at 6th.

Large Used Majestic Elec. Refrigerator
$39.00
Terms 75c a week.
221 W. 4th TURNER'S Ph. 1172

WHAT'S ALL THIS?

What's the noise about a big boom in Real Estate just ahead? Seems to be the prediction all the authorities. Maybe you'd better rouse yourself. We've a lot or two left as low as $400. Some at $550, others at $750, and from that up. All fine restricted properties. Maybe it wouldn't be amiss to reserve at least one.

RAY GOODCELL
713 North Main Santa Ana Phone 1333

NORTH BROADWAY HOME

5-room stucco house, tile roof and modern, located on No. Broadway, $3500. Terms. BELLE GRESCHNER, Branch Office S. A. Realty, 1019 N. Main St., Phone 2493.

36 Household Goods (Continued)

USED furniture Wright Transfer Co 301 Spurgeon St. Phone 156-W

LIKE NEW vac. cleaner and attach., only $10. 2345 Spurgeon.

SALE OF USED FURNITURE
Penn Van & Storage Co. 609 W 4th

Everything electrical for the home. B & G. appliances. 213 No. Bdwy.

Wringer Rolls $1.00 Each
De Luxe Cushion Type to fit most all makes.
REBUILT MAYTAG
Looks and runs like new. Reasonable. Pay $1 week.
SLADE & JOHNSON
1200 No. Main St. Phone 2302.

2 BEDS, complete. One antique. Large mahogany table, cheap. 826 No. Birch.

FOR SALE—3 rooms of good furniture. A bargain. 121 Bachman Drive, Santa Ana.

RUGS, stoves, dining set. 805 West Eighth St. Phone 160.

WANTED—1 full size child's crib. Phone 4773.

38 Miscellaneous

WE pay highest prices for all kinds of junk. Geo. T. Calhoun, 3101 West Fifth St. Phone 1404.

WE PAY MORE. Bring gold, silver, plate, glassware, old furniture, Haviland antiques to 105 W. Third, or will call. Phone 0111-M.

AUTO truck and tractor parts, pumping plant engines. 1½ h. p. to 75 h. p. Geo. T. Calhoun, 3101 West 5th St. Phone 1404.

I BUY all kinds of junk, metals, iron, rubber, rags and old cars. Rice, 905 East 2nd. Phone 1045.

USED Hardie & Bean orchard sprayer. Also good used tractors. Lynn L. Ostrander Co., 415 East 4th St. Phone 1056.

BRAND NEW portable typewriter & desk $38.50 complete, case and inst. book inc. $3 dn, $3 mo. Remington Rand, Inc. 415 N. Sycamore.

Wood, $2 tier, up. All sizes. 623 So. Shelton.

STAMPS
NEW & OLD. BOUGHT & SOLD.
Clarke Stamp Shop, 1213 N. Van Ness

WOOD, $9.00 full cord, delivered, 16 or 24 inch; mostly walnut. Route 2, Box 88, Anaheim.

WANTED—Small grub stake to locate mercury in Vallicitos Mts. Address M. Mize, 222 Avocado St., Costa Mesa.

WE pay more for houses to wreck. Phone 4747-J. 406 East Walnut. A. B. Chandler.

FOR SALE—Walnut sacks. 422 W. 5th

FOR SALE—Kindling, sawdust and shavings. Santa Ana Cabinet and Fixture Co. Phone 1442.

TUXEDO—Fine to remodel for ladies' tuxedo suit. 829 No. Garnsey.

39 Musical Instruments

BUNGALOW PIANO. A little beauty—case was little damaged in shipment. Railroad made good settlement and you can get the benefit. Be sure and see us. Danz-Schmidt, 112-116 East Center St., Anaheim.

GRAND PIANO, slightly used. This is a wonderful bargain, only $295. Danz-Schmidt, 112-116 East Center St., Anaheim.

PIANOS! PIANOS! PIANOS!
Ten at $39; 5 at $59; 4 at $79, and dozens of others. Donz-Schmidt, the biggest piano store, 112-116 East Center St. Anaheim.

PIANO TUNING REFINISHING, H. T. Dysart. 220 E. 4th. Ph. 866.

PARLOR grand piano for sale. Perfect condition. A bargain at $395. 220 So. Parton St.

GROVE OPPORTUNITY
Average net cash return past 14 yrs. $650 per acre and just in its prime. All Valencias, deep soil, no smudging. $3000 per acre. This happens to be one of those things demanding immediate action. See HAL C. RITTER or Mr. Berger, 420 No. Sycamore. Phone 456.

40 Nursery Stock - Plants Seeds

BLANDING NURSERIES
1348 So. Main Phone 1378

CITRUS TREES, 90c. A-1 mt. grown. All var. Vista grown avocado trees. Phone 446-R. Bennett's Nurseries Res. Tustin Ave., bet. 4th and 17th

QUALITY CITRUS TREES
All leading varieties at reasonable prices. Free delivery.
FRED W. MAY NURSERIES
Office, 313 Bush St., S. A. Ph. 4871
Res. Lemon Heights, Ph. S. A. 3635-J.

COCOS Plumosus Palms, 15c up. Wholesale, retail. 518 So. Main.

41 Radio Equipment

YOUR old radio as down payment on a new RCA-Victor, priced as low as $21.95. HORTON'S, Main at 6th.

10 Good Used Console Electric Radios
$4.95, $5.95, $6.95.
CASH AND CARRY
221 W. 4th TURNER'S Ph. 1172

Apts. For Rent

44 Apartments, Flats

FURN. APT. All pmd. 925 French

LOVELY nice new double and single De Luxe apt. 315 W. 10th St.

NEAT, attractive sm. flat. Adults. 1069 West 4th. Phone 3349-W.

MODERN double single apt. Utilities paid. 1309½ W. 4th. Bristol Apt.

44 Apartments, Flats (Continued)

APTS $10-$15. All pd. 206 No. Rose

IN answering advertisements containing a Register box address be sure to always include the LETTER of the alphabet which appears preceding the box number. This will insure prompt delivery. Example: "A. Box 20, Register."

FOR RENT—Large double apt., unfurn. Strictly modern. 1003 No. Broadway.

NICELY furn. apt. 923 Minter St.

3 RM. furn. apt. 726 So. Flower.

FURN. APT.—$20 per month. 1067 West 5th.

3 ROOM upstairs apt. Gentleman preferred. 116 E. Santa Clara Ave.

FURNISHED APTS. and sleeping rooms at 620 East 5th St.

5 RM. furn. apt. Reasonable. See owner, 214½ No. Olive.

SMALL partly furnished apt. at 1804 No. Broadway, $6 per month.

FURN. APT.—209 East Pine.

FURN. 2 room apt. at 626 East Third. Call after 3:30 p. m.

48 Rooms With Board

ROOM and board. 421 East Pine.

CARE for aged people. 712 Bush.

ROOM, board, $6.25 wk. 423 E. Pine

49 Rooms Without Board

ATTRAC. rm. Private entrance and lavatory. Garage. 602 So. Birch.

HOTEL FINLEY — Rooms at $2.50 week. Free parking. Live in a hotel.

ROOMS for men with club privileges at Y.M.C.A. $3.00 week up.

IN good home, 2 separate rooms, for men employed. Close in. No garage. Phone 1310.

SLEEPING ROOMS. Hot and cold water. 127 So. Main.

FURN. rm., kitchen privileges, everything paid. Priv. ent. Close in. 1024 West 4th St. Garage.

Real Estate For Rent

53 Houses—Town

Penn Van & Storage Co.
609 W 4th Ph 1212

FURN. stucco duplex. Adults only. No pets. 334 Normandy Place.

WRIGHT
TRANSFER AND STORAGE CO.
301 Spurgeon St Phone 156-W.

HOUSES FOR RENT—FOR SALE.
J. Homer Anderson
PHONE 334. 2610 VALENCIA ST.

2 BEDROOM modern. Close in. $35. ALLEMAN 313 Bush. Ph. 4871.

FURN. 4 rms. for 3 or 4, unfurn. 5 rms. for 4 or 6. No pets. 702 West Third.

FOR RENT—5 rooms, 2 bedrooms. Modern. 121 Bachman Drive.

FURN. 4 rm. cottage. 1414 East 4th.

5 RM. house, good location. Adults. 606 Orange Ave.

5 ROOM modern unfurn. house. 435 So. Pacific, Tustin. Phone 3995-R.

FURN. house for rent, all modern conveniences. 1901 Bush. Ph. 1477J

Real Estate For Sale

58b Income Property

WE have a desirable combination or stores and apts. income property in Fullerton, very close in, and on loveliest street in the city. This is a foreclosure and we have exclusive handling of same. Let yourself be convinced by seeing. Price only $8750. Ann Thompson, Realtor, 1416 No. Main. Ph. 919-R.

APT. house. 20 rentals. 925 French.

INCOME stucco court, eight units. $8000. Paying 19% gross. Money to loan. See Jackson, with Secrest, 111 East 6th St.

59 Country Property

20 AC. fine for alfalfa. Good well, paved street. House. $6000. Terms. G. R. Tompkins, 603 Main St., Corons.

59b Groves, Orchards

5 AC. oranges, close by, SAVI water. Good soil. Blvd. Taxes $39. Only $4500. If you see it you will buy it. Terms.
HERB ALLEMAN, 313 Bush. Ph. 4871

WELL improved 10 acres in oranges and alfalfa; modern 7 room house, 24 cows dairy barn, good pumping plant 5 miles northwest of Santa Ana. Best of terms. Price $6000. L, Box 51, Register.

5 ACRES set to 96 walnut trees interset with 257 Valencias 2 to 5 years old. Improved with 8 room stucco in first class condition. Price of $8500 includes tractor and all farming equipment.
WALSH-LINDEMEYER CO.
610 No. Main St. Phone 0636.

TUSTIN grove, price, location, soil, water the best. Bear investigation. G. O. Berry, 208 W. 5th, Santa Ana.

60 City Houses and Lots

MAKE an offer 1705 West Washington. Spanish type home, lot 90x208. 24 orange trees, 9 walnut trees. No assessments.

LARGE roomy 9 room beautiful home, northwest Santa Ana. A sacrifice at $11,500.
STEBBINS REALTY CO.
602 No. Main St. Tel. 1314.

IN answering advertisements containing a Register box address, be sure to always include the LETTER of the alphabet which appears preceding the box number. This will insure prompt delivery. Example: "A. Box 20, Register."

$3500—5 room stucco on North Broadway. This is a place that will appeal to you.
STEBBINS REALTY CO.
602 No. Main St. Tel. 1314.

WHY rent? We can sell you a good 5 rm. house for $1800. Easy terms. 6 room modern home on Greenleaf. $5500. 5 acres Valencias, $5750. See Shaw or Carden, with
ROY RUSSELL
Phone 200. 218 West Third.

60 City Houses and Lots (Continued)

LAGUNA or Santa Ana lots $300, $5 down $5 monthly. Phone 544-M.

WILL take lot in Northwest as down payment on modern 5 room home at 901 West Chestnut after 6:00.

OUR BEST BUYS
5 r. frame, new paint, hdw. firs. $1650
4 r. frame, cor. lot, new paint job $1350
5 rm. stucco, S. W. part $2000
6 rm. stucco, Eng. type, good..$3500
6 rm. stucco N. W., furnace, fireplace, sprinkling system..$3750
ANN THOMPSON
1416 NO. MAIN ST. PH. 919-R.

FOR SALE—Sm. cozy, 2 bdrm. house, very reasonable. Call 1451 Maple.

MODERN 7 room stucco home, well located, newly renovated. $500 down, $5800 full price.
Secrest, 111 E. 6. Ph. 4350

JUST LUCK
That we are able to get a hold of this $3500 Spanish stucco, large lot, and double garage, that we can make quick sale on for.....$2650
SHEPPARD
206 West 5th. South of Library.

3 RM. garage house for sale, $155 down, bal. like rent, $10 month. $855. 207 East Occidental.

4 ROOM house, $20 down, $20 per month. Phone 544-M.

$2750 for a 5 room frame on North Spurgeon. $500 down bal. monthly.
Secrest, 111 E. 6. Ph. 4350

3 BEDRM. home, real close in. Fireplace, tile kit., hardwood floors. Everything mod. and convenient. Only $3250. Terms.
HERB ALLEMAN, 313 Bush. Ph. 4871

CLOSE IN HOME
If you want a comfortable home close to churches, schools, and down town business, with three bedrooms, fireplace tile sink, furnace, and other conveniences, see us right away.
W. B. MARTIN
207 North Main St. Phone 2220.

Best Buy in Santa Ana
$1650—Five room house and gar., basement bearing fruit, no assessments, close in. Northwest part. $750 cash, balance 6%.
Edwin A. Baird
417 1st Nat'l. Bank. Ph. 3664-W.

6 RM. Spanish stucco, tile bath and drainboard, full tile roof, hdwd. floors, furnace, fireplace. All rooms larger than average. Priced to sell $4700. 10% cash, bal. monthly.
WALSH-LINDEMEYER CO.
610 No. Main St. Phone 0636.

3 bed. Sp. stucco, hdwd. flr., tile sink, $2000, $300 cash, bal. like rent.

2 bed. frame, hdwd. floors, $1400.

1 acre, 2 bedrm. home. Very cheap water. Good soil. Room 500 poultry. Immediate possession. $2000. Terms.
Hawks-Brown, Realtors
107 W. 3rd. FOR RESULTS. Ph. 5030

FOR SALE—Modern 5 room house, sacrifice for immediate sale. Owner, 601 So. Van Ness.

FOR SALE—Two buildings, price $200. WYLIE. Phone 456.

6 RM. hse., furn., real close in, $3750. Full corner lot. Bargain. Cleve Sedoris, 102½ East 4th.

$2500—Easy terms, buys bungalow reconditioned inside and out. Vacant. Make offer. Berry, 208 W. 5th

61 Suburban

FOR ½ acres or more see N. W. Cor. Harbor and Hazard. Water, gas, lights. Beautiful location.

NEW knotty pine bungalow, 4 rms., double garage. Patio, trees, lawn. Cor. Mesa Dr. and Plumosa, east of S. A. Country Club. Oper afternoon and evenings. Owner.

6½ ACRES avocados & lemons, good crop; fine view, $5200, easy terms. Rt. 1, Box 475, Orange.

BEAUTIFUL stucco, 2 bedrooms, completely furnished, ½ acre, Costa Mesa. $5000. Owner, L, Box 47, Register.

ACREAGE STEAL
3 acres walnuts, fine district, 300 feet on East Fourth street, good six room house no assessments. $7500. See Carden or Shaw, sole agents.
ROY RUSSELL
218 West Third. Phone 200.

62 Resort Property

FURNISHED cabin at Silverado canyon, will accept late model car in trade. See Stover 210 E. 1st St.

Real Estate For Exchange

65 Country Property

70 A. alfalfa ranch near Chino. Well improved, fine well. Good price and terms. Some exchange, Orange Co. or Long Beach income. George Townsend, 121 W. 3rd St. S. A.

66 City Houses and Lots

WHO has good house in S. A. to exchange for attractive house, garage, about 40 avocados etc. at Encinitas, Cal. Clear for clear. Mrs. T. A. Rees, 422 West 16th St.

Real Estate Wanted

60a City Houses and Lots

PAY CASH for modern home well located. Phone 4778-W.

1936 CHEVROLET Sedan, A-1 condition, as down payment on a 5 rm. bungalow. See WYLIE, S. A. Realty Corp., 420 No. Sycamore, Phone 456.

61a Orange Groves

WANTED—Five acre orange grove. State location and price. L, Box 43, Register.

THE TOONERVILLE TROLLEY THAT MEETS ALL THE TRAINS — 10-6

Directory

For Professional and Specialized Service

Awnings

J. W. INMAN
AWNINGS—TENTS
Anything in canvas. Rugs cleaned and sized. Mattresses made over.
614 West 4th St. Phone 1569.

Santa Ana Tent and Awning Co. Ltd.
1626 So. Main St. Phone 207.

Furniture

LONG & CULLEY
Cabinet making, furniture, novelties and special wood work. 906 W. First.

Mattress Work

Mattresses custom built. Your old mattress made into an innerspring. Santa Ana Mattress Co. 411 East 4th. Phone 948.

Insurance

Let Holmes protect your homes. E. D. Holmes at 429 No. Sycamore. Phone 816.

Money to Loan

You can borrow at the legal rate of interest on jewelry of all description, clothing, furs, musical instruments, etc. Open eves. until 9.
C. M. Marks—120 East 4th
Yes, we buy old gold

Termite Control

COAST TERMITE AND FUNGUS CONTROL. 113 E. BISHOP.
Free inspection. Phone 2258-W.

Washing Machines

Wringer Rolls, Gears, Belts, etc., for all makes. Motors re-wound. Free estimates. Reasonable prices. 1200 No. Main St. Phone 3302.

Published every evening (except Sunday) by The Register Publishing Company Ltd., 220 No. Sycamore, Santa Ana, California. Entered in Santa Ana post office as second class matter. TELEPHONES: Advertising, 87; Subscription, 89; News, 28.

Member United Press Association (leased wire) and Audit Bureau of Circulation.

People's Paper of Orange County

Santa Ana Register

SUBSCRIPTION RATES—By carrier, $7.00 per year; $3.75 for 6 months; 65c per month. By mail, payable in advance, in Orange county, $7.00 per year; $3.75 for 6 months; 65c per month; outside of Orange county: $10.00 per year; $5.25 for 6 months; 90c per month; single copies, 3c. Established November, 1905. "Evening Blade" merged March, 1918; "Daily News" merged October, 1923; "Times" merged November, 1930.

EDITORIAL FEATURES

FIRE HAZARDS

This week is International Fire Prevention Week. Every day of the year should be one to prevent fires.

We have a splendid Fire Department but every citizen should realize that our fire fighters should have every possible assistance in preventing waste by fire, no matter how capable the Fire Department may be. There can be much damage resulting from carelessness of some citizen, before the Fire Department can get to a place to extinguish it. Every possible fire hazard should be reduced to the minimum and the throwing away of lighted matches, cigars and cigarettes can do untold damage.

Let everyone cooperate against the horrors of fire.

ONE CAUSE OF WAR?

Neville Chamberlain, in a copyrighted article, said he was asked several years ago what his opinion would be as to the probable cause of the next war. He reports that one of his guesses was that it would come from over-crowding of population.

He now remarks that it seems those nations that are so disturbed because of over-crowding the population are the nations that are doing everything they can to encourage an increase in the birth rate.

Italy, Germany and Japan should explain why they are complaining about being cramped and they are the nations that are making the biggest demand that the women have more and more children.

LIQUOR QUESTION DISCUSSED AT FORUM

Very few people understand the two liquor problems that will be voted on November 3. One is Proposition No. 3, amending the present liquor control and creating alcoholic beverage commission. The other is Proposition No. 9, which provides that every city, town, county, city and county or territory outside of incorporated cities, shall have the power to regulate, zone or prohibit the sale of alcoholic beverages within its limits.

These amendments cannot both be carried, should they both receive a majority. The one that receives the larger majority will prevail, it has been ruled by the courts.

The matter will be thoroughly explained at the public Forum for Political and Economic Education at the Junior College building tonight at 8 o'clock. Good speakers will be there to present both sides of the proposition.

STEALING UNPROFITABLE

Yesterday, we gave figures from a great economic statistician, Robert Doane, showing that the national wealth per capita was higher in 1913 than it ever was before or ever has been since. We stated that we would quote today from a great student of right and wrong. It was Edward Westermark, who wrote "The Origin and Development of Moral Ideals" in two books of 750 pages, to whom we referred.

In this book, Westermark explains how and why people began buying and selling what they wanted, instead of stealing it.

He said that in primitive tribes it was regarded wrong to marry a woman from the same tribe so it was customary to steal a bride from a neighboring tribe. This caused wars and feuds so that the bridegroom formed the habit of giving the bride's father a present to appease his wrath and to prevent him from starting a feud and a fight. This worked so successfully that it soon became a habit to buy the brides outright instead of stealing them. Westermark said that this was the way people started to buy and sell a cow, or anything they wanted, rather than steal it, for the simple reason that, in the long run, it was easier.

We know, as individuals, that it is not profitable to steal. This we can pretty well agree on and have made laws to prevent it. Yet, we as a group, evidently believe that the voting majority can do no wrong; that the voting majority has a right by law to take the fruits of the work of our geniuses and, thus, deprive them of their opportunity to serve humanity. In other words, the voting majority, under the income tax law, has a right to legally steal.

Under the Clayton Amendment to the Sherman Anti-Trust Law, groups have the right to combine and, by force and intimidation, keep other people from learning to do jobs or work at jobs; and, by so doing, get a fictitious reward for things and services which is, in reality, just another form of stealing from society as a whole. This, we have also made legal. We also made it legal for groups of bankers to loan other people's wealth by illegitimate credit expansion, reaping the fruits of other people's work and giving little, if anything, in return for this right.

The figures we quoted, showing that our national wealth per capita declined since we have established these customs into laws and made stealing legal, and should be a warning to people that it is not profitable for individuals or the government or society as a whole to legally steal.

Any private business that had for 150 years been more successful than any other institution of the kind, and suddenly found that its success was passing, would take stock and analyze what was done at the time this change took place. If the business were well managed, it would then immediately correct the things that it had done since the decline started that it had not done before. If it did not do this, it would eventually perish. It seems to us, the same rule works with the government.

ROYAL BLOOD

Alfonso, Count de Covadonga, one-time heir apparent to the Spanish throne, lies ill in a New York hospital. To help him back to health and happiness, his mother, the former Queen Victoria Eugenie of Spain, hurried to his bedside.

The other purpose of her maternal mission, according to rumor, is to dissuade her son from marrying another Cuban commoner.

The count is ill with haemophilia, the "disease of royalty" which prevents blood from clotting. A number of European nobles, afflicted with this ailment, have bled to death from slight bruises or scratches.

The count is reported to be recovering, thanks to a series of blood transfusions. The blood was supplied by professional New York donors.

Thus a royal mother has come to America to keep common blood from mingling with that of a Bourbon—yet that mixture has saved her son's life!

WHO PAYS FOR METROPOLITAN CANAL?

The Metropolitan Water District, so far has put up a very small amount of the cost of building the Metropolitan water system. So far, most of this payment is coming from the sacrifices of those people who have loans, such as life insurance policies, bank deposits, notes and preferred stocks. These bonds are being bought by the banks who simply credit the borrowing on the books of the banks, increasing the deposits. These increased deposits reduce the due bills represented by life insurance, bonds and bank deposits held by many citizens throughout the United States.

These are the people, so far, that are actually furnishing the food, shelter and indulgences that are being paid out to the workers to build the canal. They are doing this and do not know that it is being taken from them. When they find out that they are actually depriving themselves of food, shelter and indulgences to build the dam and to supply the food, shelter and indulgences for all of the non-productive work the government is supplying, then is when the real trouble will start. If the work were all productive and would pay a rate of interest and pay back the principal, it would be a different story.

With all the countries of the world going off the gold standard and money representing no physical value at present, it is hard to tell what money will buy when these bonds are eventually paid off. It might be, before many years, that water at $15 an acre, would be extremely cheap, especially if, by inflation, oranges sell for $10 or $100 a box. If we have extreme inflation, the Metropolitan Water project will be practically entirely built out of the reduced incomes of all those in the United States who have insurance policies and loans of other kinds. These people will, of course, not get the benefit of the water and the Orange county people will get the benefit of it without paying for it. That is part of the cruel injustice of a money system that radically changes in purchasing power. It takes from one group and gives to another.

Who really will be paying for the Metropolitan Water Canal, no one knows at present. Only time will tell!

TOO BIG A PRICE

Roosevelt, in his Pittsburgh speech, pointed out that we were starting the smokestacks and increasing employment; that people who protested against the way the New Deal is doing, are reactionary, selfish and not public spirited.

The real trouble with the little activity, above what has been the result of sacrifice and efficiency, and it is mostly that, is that it has been bought at entirely too costly a price. The real price we have paid for this has been purchased by the sacrifice of moral and spiritual values for the present administration has engendered a well-nigh universal spirit of covetousness.

The Roosevelt administration has applied artificial political forces which are breaking down and making soft the whole structure of life among us not only in its physical but in its mental and spiritual aspects.

As President Hopkins, of Dartmouth College, said in his recent article in the Atlantic Monthly, "one of the most sapient aphorisms of which I know is that it takes a tragic amount of time on the part of the wise to correct the mistakes of the merely good."

Roosevelt may be the best and most kind hearted man in the world; so good, as the Spanish Proverb says, that he is good for nothing. The results are bound to become catastrophes if the process is continued of dissipating our inheritances of courage, initiative, fortitude and aspiration.

Hastening the loss of these qualities, which made America what it was, is entirely too high a price to pay for the little temporary stimulant of business that we have. Especially is this true and visible when ten million people are still out of work.

Understand, The Register does not contend for one moment that Roosevelt originated these foolish ideas which were started years ago and now both the Republican and Democratic parties are thoroughly tinged with ideas that are bound to destroy the morale of our people. But Roosevelt seems to be more imbued with the illusions than any President we have ever had in the past.

If a man does not make new acquaintances as he advances through life, he will soon find himself left alone. A man, sir, should keep his friendship in constant repair. —Johnson.

Anybody Think This Insurance Policy Isn't Safe?

Day By Day In Washington

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

(Copyright, 1936)

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 6.—President Roosevelt has repudiated Communist support, which is negligible, but there is something far worse than Communism in Tennessee. It is brazen corruption at the polls and, unless all signs fail, Mr. Roosevelt will be handed 11 electoral votes this autumn as a consequence of a situation in Shelby county which he ought publicly to repudiate and send special officers from the department of justice to prosecute at once.

The story of Shelby county is well known all over the state. It has been investigated before by a committee of the United States Senate, but this year all records for daring in election fixing were broken in the Democratic primary just a few weeks ago.

Consider these facts:

1. Burgin Dossett was running for the nomination for governor and had the endorsement of the two Democratic United States senators and the governor of Tennessee. He received throughout the state, with the exception of Shelby county, about 37 per cent of the vote. His opponent, the successful contestant, beat him in the ratio of about 2 to 1.

2. In Shelby Co., which includes the city of Memphis, Mr. Dossett was beaten by a ratio of about 60 to 1. In the entire county he received only 861 votes while his opponent received 60,218. It must be borne in mind that Senator McKellar, who endorsed Mr. Dossett and lives in Memphis, must have had more strength than the three votes in his own precinct which were cast for his man against 200 for the opposing candidate.

3. Next there is the case of Harvey Hannah, running on the same day, August 6, in the Democratic primary for member of the state utilities commission. For 25 years he has been in public service and is well known. He actually had a majority of 51,000 over his opponent, Leon Jourolman, in the entire state with the exception of Shelby county.

4. When the Shelby county votes were sent in, it was found that Mr. Jourolman had 59,434 and Mr. Hannah only 1,008, as a result of which Mr. Hannah lost the nomination by 7,000 votes.

Nowhere in the United States where election fixing goes on has any political boss dared to put out results that present such absurd ratios. Mr. Roosevelt might, of course, win this year in Tennessee without the aid of Shelby county, but, with most observers predicting that the Roosevelt majority will be cut down from 133,000 to about 75,000, it is easy to see what a 60,000 majority in Shelby county will mean to Mr. Roosevelt's fortunes.

Whether the political organization that dominates Shelby county, and controls the police and the election machinery there, will dare to do in a presidential election what it has done in the primaries remains to be seen, but it is a safe assumption that, if it were not for the situation in Shelby county, there would be a real contest for the electoral vote in Tennessee this year.

The anti-Roosevelt sentiment in the state is strong, particularly in the eastern section, but any organized effort to carry the state against Mr. Roosevelt has long since been regarded as a forlorn hope on account of the impossible barriers that are raised in Shelby county.

If, as Chairman Farley claims, the election of Mr. Roosevelt is "in the bag," then 11 electoral votes more or less would not cause the President's defeat. Hence, an open repudiation of what is going on at Shelby county and the dispatch of federal officers to put in jail a few persons who have falsified returns would be welcomed by the people of Tennessee as an emancipation devoutly to be wished.

The methods used in Memphis are described in official proceedings of a committee of the United States Senate, which heard sworn testimony in October, 1930. Negroes are voted in large numbers. There is very little if any secrecy in the voting, which is often conducted on the sidewalks and not in booths. Voting is permitted without checking up to see if the voter is on the registration list. Dean John Randolph Neal of a law school in Knoxville, Tennessee, testified that he saw Negroes march from one precinct to another and vote over and over again.

On August 6 of this year, the same Dr. Neal visited Memphis and was told at many polling places that the vote was the lightest in years, probably not over 25 per cent of the registered voters, but, when the returns were announced, the largest Democratic vote ever cast in Memphis was reported.

For a long time, the city of Memphis has been dominated by a political boss. His word is law. He controls the election machinery and local officials generally to whom appeal might ordinarily be made for protection of an honest ballot. Today he is closely allied with the Democratic national organization and it is freely reported in the state that he expects to give Mr. Roosevelt out of Shelby county whatever majority is needed to make sure that Tennessee electoral votes are cast for President Roosevelt.

Will Mr. Roosevelt accept 11 electoral votes under these conditions or will he insure an honest election in Memphis? The people of Tennessee are eager to know.

BARBS

Caddies carry guns on a Madrid, Spain, golf course. The informed loyalist golfer will specify the number of his shooting iron.

• • •

Two alleged robbers, caught trying to take a bath in someone else's house at Tyler, Tex., are reported in jail now, all washed up.

• • •

There was just one thing lacking at that well-attended Kentucky hanging—an orchestra for an overture of swing music.

• • •

France, seeking to cement its ties with Poland, is trying to think of something concrete to offer.

Little Benny's Note Book

BY LEE PAPE

After supper ma said to pop, Do you know, Willyum, I've discovered the only sure infallible way to tell whether or not a moving picture is werth going in to see. The idea came to me after I'd unexpectedly got through my shopping this afternoon and found myself in front of the New Miracle with Lola Sultana's new picture announced in big life size letters. Well, shall I go in and take a chance, or shan't I, those were the 2 questions uppermost in my mind, ma said.

Did anybody come along and anser them? pop said, and ma said, Absilutely, that's the very point, because just at that moment the performance was over and about to begin again, and the crowd streemed out, and the thawt occurred to me that I could tell by their faces, satisfied or otherwise, whether they had enjoyed the picture and decide from that whether I would enjoy it myself, because after all I took it for granted that they were all human beings just like me, but really Willyum, I never in all my life saw a crowd with such a mass of expressionless faces.

By gollies you were up against it, pop said, and ma said, Not at all, there was no legal law against my asking a few of the women what they thawt of the picture, and that's just what I did. I asked 3, and the ferst one said she had slept through quarter of it, and the 2nd one said she had slept through half of it, and the 3rd one said she had stayed awake through the whole thing and she'd never cease to regret it, and believe me she was quite rite, ma said.

What, you went in to see it after all for Peet sake? pop said, and ma said, Well yes, I never miss a Lola Sultana picture on principal, and I told myself that I awt to be broad minded enough to ignore advants criticism, but the point is I proved my own satisfaction that the women were quite rite, so that's how I know it's a perfeck way to make up your mind about a new picture.

I'll see you later, perhaps, pop said.

And he got in back of the sporting page and stayed there.

In the Long Ago

From The Register Files 25 Years Ago Today

OCTOBER 6, 1911

Efforts are being made to learn the identity of the unknown thief who this morning stole a purse containing $75 from the office of Bergman & O'Barr's meat market.

The quarterly meeting of the Bee Keepers' club of Orange County will be held at the courthouse tomorrow afternoon. The club will discuss the situation in regard to danger of infection from foul brood and will endeavor to persuade the beemen to cooperate with the inspector in keeping the disease away.

Frank Stout has bought the A. G. Lucas seven-acre ranch on Washington avenue. His son will move soon from Los Angeles to the ranch property which includes one of the handsome cottages erected within the past year on North Broadway.

Thoughts On Modern Life

BY GLENN FRANK

ONLY EIGHTY ARE DEAD!

I had just come from a conference of distinguished scientists who had spent three days discussing ways and means of saving man from the blight of a dread disease.

Here I saw a glowing spark of divinity in these men whose motives were inspired by sympathy and whose methods were informed by science.

The press rang with acclaim for the devotion of this body of consecrate scientists to the saving of precious human life.

And then I picked up the evening paper to read in one brief headline a staggering indifference to human life.

ONLY EIGHTY ARE DEAD!

This short headline told of the rescue by insurgents of the beleaguered garrison in the Alcazar.

We have become used to the sight of blood in the headlines of these later years.

Street riots spill it!

Dictators pour it out in their purges!

What has passed with us for a good vigorous campaign struggle empties veins in some lands!

The god of force is mustering his minions again. Politics puts on armor. Oppositions are to be liquidated where once they were to be convinced or outvoted. We grow less squeamish about a little head-breaking. The end again justifies the means.

Humanity is in a hurry.

We no longer possess the courage to be patient.

This is the epidemic that threatens the life of the world. This is the paradox that puzzles the wise—we slaughter men in our eagerness to serve them. At least we do when we lose faith in ourselves and hand ourselves over to the secular saviors that swarm over modern politics.

Copyright, 1936, McClure Newsp'r Syn.

OUR CHILDREN

BY ANGELO PATRI

SELF-RELIANCE

"Here, Jimmy, I'll show you how it works out. I'll do it for you. My father showed me last night. He worked it out and I copied it. Here. See!"

"No, I don't want you to show me. Don't tell me. I want to do it myself."

"You can't. I'll bet you can't. My father had to work a long time over it until he got it."

"All right. Just give me time. Teacher said we needn't hand it in until Friday and by that time I'll have it." And he did.

This is a sort of sturdy self-respect that we ought to help children acquire. Let them help themselves to get the things they want instead of hurrying to buy them for them. The child who has everything he owns handed to him, who never has to make any effort to acquire, never learns to depend upon himself, never knows the thrill of discovering that he is powerful enough to get what he wants for himself.

"Pa, I'd like to have a pair of roller skates like Tom's. His father gave them to him the other day."

"Gave them to him, eh? Why?"

"Why? Why what?"

"Why did his father have to give him skates? Why didn't he have the gumption to get them for himself? He has an allowance; he has spare time; he could make and save the money for skates if he wanted them without having them given to him. I'd be ashamed to have people giving me things all the time. Once in a while a present is all right, but this givng and taking business makes me sick. I like to see a boy do something to help himself once in a while. What good is he else?"

It was plain to Jerry that Dad did not think kindly of the idea he had presented. He took his story to his mother.

"Father is right. How much money have you saved?"

"I have about a dollar and a quarter. Skates cost about three and a half, the kind I want."

"That means that you have to find a way of earning the two dollars and a quarter you need."

"I know grandma would give it to me if I asked her."

"Would you ask her?"

"No. I guess not. Dad would be mad. Anyway, I wouldn't. I'd rather earn my own skates and buy them with my own money. I don't want anybody to give me anything any more. I'm no baby."

"You stick to that and you'll be all right," said mother. "And I think that if you were to ask Mr. Hodges if he needed some work done afternoons, and Saturday mornings he would have a job for you. He was complaining the other day that his man did not have time to keep the yards clean. Anyway, go out and see what you can do."

Self-help, reliance upon oneself, is the most stimulating tonic imaginable for body and soul. It is the quality that makes a successful life. Every time one accepts help one subtracts that degree of power from his own mind and body. Out upon it. Train children to help themselves.

(Copyright, 1936, The Bell Syn., Inc.)

(Mr. Patri will give personal attention to inquiries from parents and school teachers on the care and development of children. Write him in care of this paper, inclosing a three cent stamped addressed envelope for reply.)

HERE AND THERE

Greece issued the first coin to bear a human likeness, that of Athena, goddess of wisdom. On the reverse side was the figure of an owl.

• • •

Ancient Egyptians possessed such musical instruments as the harp, guitar, pipe, trumpet, and drum, according to archeological findings.

• • •

Pasteurized milk is digested more easily and remains sweet longer than raw milk.

• • •

More than any other innovation, ply-wood has served to bring down the cost of modern furniture. At one time, a mahogany table was all mahogany.

• • •

The collection of refuse costs London $4,000,000 annually.

• • •

Crude stone implements known as "eoliths" represent the earliest known handiwork of man. They were chipped out by cave men at the beginning of the Stone Age.

• • •

On May 11, 1937, astronomers will have the best chance in 1000 years to determine whether the planet Mercury has an atmosphere. On that day, the tiny planet will appear to skim the sun's face.

PARAGRAPHS

By Robert Quillen

War will finish at least one dictator. Look what happens to a coach when his team loses.

Disasters that cause the most deaths are earthquakes, storms, plagues and great leaders.

If the idea was to ruin Mexicans and Chinese, enrich foreign miners and throw away millions, our silver policy works nicely.

You can tell what is good for you. If it would do you good, no propagandist is spending millions to make you like it.

Whatever the experts and straw polls may say, you are safe in betting that the election won't be close.

SOME HICK-TOWN MERCHANTS PROSPER, AND SOME STILL HAVE CLERKS WHO GET CHANGE FROM THEIR PANTS POCKETS.

Is fame worth winning? Well, name the seven heroes who have flown the Atlantic alone.

Fable: Once a girl married and her parents said: "She must live her own life now, and we shall never interfere."

Scientists have much better equipment now, but Alas! never yet have labor-saving kitchen gadgets made a good cook.

AMERICANISM: Asking a candidate offensive, tricky questions nobody could answer; calling him evasive and tricky because he doesn't answer them.

Maybe Darwin was right, but the richest guys marry the best lookers and still the race doesn't improve.

Unless you are easy to lick, and quick to give up, life begins every moment.

But when you help the under-dog, the other dog is soon under and you must begin all over.

A HUSBAND IS A MAN WHO SEES A STRANGE LADY WITH HER SLIP SHOWING AND THINKS HE OUGHT TO TELL HER ABOUT IT.

Still, if oratory is the proper measure of ability, Father Coughlin and the Rev. Gerald K. Smith are the two best qualified for the Presidency.

Using a taxi may cost more than having your own car, but it's such fun to feel neutral when the fenders crumple.

Why feel proud of a face that never reveals any emotion? The same effect is achieved by every wax dummy.

The final test of decent manhood is the kind of argument you use to discredit the other side's candidate.

CORRECT THIS SENTENCE: "SO I APPEALED TO THEIR INTELLIGENCE INSTEAD OF THEIR EMOTIONS," SAID HE, "AND THEY ELECTED ME."